IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GILBERT ROBLES HERNANDEZ, JR.,
AKA GILBERT ROBLES, JR.,

No. C 12-0025 CW (PR)

Petitioner,

ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE

v.

SUPREME COURTS,

Respondent.

Petitioner, a state prisoner, has filed a pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. It is unclear from the allegations in the petition whether Petitioner is challenging the validity of his conviction or the denial of parole. In either instance, however, the Northern District is not the proper venue for the petition.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed by a state prisoner in a state that contains two or more federal judicial districts may be filed in either the district of confinement or the district of conviction. See 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d). The district court where the petition is filed, however, may transfer the petition to the other district in the furtherance of justice. See id. Federal courts in California traditionally have chosen to hear petitions challenging a conviction or sentence in the district of conviction. See Dannenberg v. Ingle, 831 F. Supp. 767, 767 (N.D. Cal. 1993); Laue v. Nelson, 279 F. Supp. 265, 266 (N.D. Cal. 1968). But if a habeas petition is directed to the manner in which a sentence is being executed, e.g., if it involves parole or time credit claims, the district of confinement is the preferable forum.

1 See Habeas L.R. 2254-3(a); Dunne v. Henman, 875 F.2d 244, 249 (9th
2 Cir. 1989).

3 Petitioner was convicted in Riverside County Superior Court,
4 which lies within the venue of the Central District of California.
5 See 28 U.S.C. § 84(c)(1). Further, he is incarcerated at Kern
6 Valley State Prison, which is located in Kern County and lies
7 within the venue of the Eastern District of California. See 28
8 U.S.C. § 84(b). Thus, jurisdiction over the petition exists in 9 either the Central District or the Eastern District, but not in the 10 Northern District.

11 If Petitioner seeks to challenge his state court conviction,
12 jurisdiction is more appropriate in the United States District
13 Court for the Central District of California. If he seeks to 14 challenge a parole eligibility decision, jurisdiction is more
15 appropriate in the United States District Court for the Eastern
16 District of California.

17 For the foregoing reasons, the petition is DISMISSED without
18 prejudice to Petitioner's refiling a petition in the appropriate
19 court.

20 The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment and close the 21 file.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.

23 Dated: 1/10/2012
