UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

STANDING ORDER FOR
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE LAUREL BEELER
(Effective February 6, 2012)

Parties shall comply with the procedures in the Federal Rules of Civil or Criminal Procedure, the local rules, the general orders, this standing order, and the Northern District's general standing order for civil cases titled "Contents of Joint Case Management Statement." Local rules, general orders, general standing orders, and a summary of the general orders' electronic filing requirements (including the procedures for emailing proposed orders to chambers) are available at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov> (click "Rules" or "ECF-PACER"). The parties' failure to comply with any of the rules and orders may be a ground for monetary sanctions, dismissal, entry of judgment, or other appropriate sanctions.

A. CALENDAR DATES AND SCHEDULING

1. The criminal motions calendar is on the first and third Thursdays of the month at 9:30 a.m. The civil motions calendar is on the first and third Thursdays of the month at 11 a.m. Civil case management conferences are Thursdays at 10:30 a.m. and are not recorded unless a party is pro se or unless counsel requests recording.

2. Parties who notice motions under the local rules need not reserve a hearing date in advance if the date is available on the Court's on-line calendar (click "Calendars" at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>). Depending on its schedule, the Court may reset or vacate hearings.

3. For scheduling questions, please call Judge Beeler's courtroom deputy, Lashanda Scott, at (510) 637-3525.

B. CHAMBERS COPIES

4. Under Civil Local Rule 5-1(b), parties must lodge an extra paper copy of any filing and mark it as a copy for "Chambers." Please three-hole punch the chambers copy.

1 C. CIVIL DISCOVERY

2 5. Evidence Preservation. After a party has notice of this order, it shall take the steps needed to
3 preserve information relevant to the issues in this action, including suspending any document destruction
4 programs (including destruction programs for electronically-maintained material).

5 6. Production of Documents In Original Form. When searching for documents and material
6 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1) or after a Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a) request,
7 parties (a) should search all locations – electronic and otherwise – where responsive materials might
8 plausibly exist, and (b) to the maximum extent feasible, produce or make available for copying and/or 9 inspection the materials in their original form, sequence, and organization (including, for example, file 10 folders).

11 7. Privilege Logs. If a party withholds material as privileged, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) and
12 45(d)(2)(A), it must produce a privilege log as quickly as possible, but no later than fourteen days after 13 its disclosures or discovery responses are due, unless the parties stipulate to or the Court sets another
14 date. Privilege logs must contain the following: (a) the subject matter or general nature of the document
15 (without disclosing its contents); (b) the identity and position of its author; (c) the date it was
16 communicated; (d) the identity and position of all addressees and recipients of the communication;
17 (e) the document’s present location; (f) the specific privilege and a brief summary of any supporting 18 facts; and (g) the steps taken to ensure the confidentiality of the communication, including an 19 affirmation that no unauthorized persons received the communication.

20 8. Expedited Procedures for Discovery Disputes. The parties shall not file formal discovery
21 motions. Instead, and as required by the federal rules and local rules, the parties shall meet and confer
22 to try to resolve their disagreements. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(1); Civil L. R. 37-1. After attempting
23 other means of conferring such as letters, phone calls, or emails, lead counsel for the parties must meet
24 and confer in person. (If counsel are located outside of the Bay Area and cannot confer in person, lead
25 counsel may meet and confer by telephone.) Either party may demand such a meeting with ten days'
26 notice. If the parties cannot agree on the location, the location for meetings shall alternate. Plaintiff's
27 counsel shall select the first location, defense counsel shall select the second location, and so forth. If
28 the parties do not resolve their disagreements through this procedure, the parties shall file a joint letter

1 brief of no more than five pages instead of a formal motion five days after lead counsels' in-person
2 meet-and-confer. The letter brief must be filed under the Civil Events category of “Motions and Related
3 Filings > Motions – General > Discovery Letter Brief.” Lead counsel for both parties must sign the
4 letter and attest that they met and conferred in person. The joint letter shall set out each issue in a
5 separate section and include in that section each parties’ position (with appropriate legal authority) and
6 proposed compromise. (This process allows a side-by-side analysis of each disputed issue.) If the
7 disagreement concerns specific discovery that a party has propounded, such as interrogatories, requests
8 for production of documents, or answers or objections to such discovery, the parties shall reproduce the 9 question/request and the response in its entirety in the letter. The Court then will review the letter and 10 determine whether future proceedings are necessary. In emergencies during discovery events such as 11 depositions, the parties may contact the Court pursuant to Civil Local Rule 37-1(b).

12 D. CONSENT CASES

13 9. In cases that are randomly assigned to Judge Beeler for all purposes, the parties should file their
14 written consent to the assignment of a United States Magistrate Judge for all purposes, or their written
15 declination of consent, as soon as possible. If a party files a dispositive motion (such as a motion to 16 dismiss or a motion for remand), the moving party must file the consent or declination simultaneously
17 with the motion. Similarly, the party opposing the motion must file the consent or declination
18 simultaneously with the opposition.

19 10. The first joint case management conference statement in a case must contain all of the 20 information in the Northern District’s standing order titled “Contents of Joint Case Management
21 Statement.” Subsequent statements for further case management conferences should not repeat
22 information contained in an earlier statement and instead should report only progress or changes since
23 the last case management conference and any new recommendations for case management.

24 E. SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTIONS

25 11. Motions for summary judgment shall be accompanied by a joint statement of the material facts
26 that the parties agree are not in dispute. The joint statement shall include – for each undisputed fact –
27 citations to admissible evidence. The parties shall comply with the procedures set forth in Civil Local 28 Rule 56-1(b). The parties may not file – and the Court will not consider – separate statements of

United States Magistrate Judge

STANDING ORDER FOR ALL JUDGES OF THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CONTENTS OF JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT STATEMENT

Commencing July 1, 2011, all judges of the Northern District of California will require the identical information in Joint Case Management Statements filed pursuant to Civil Local Rule 16-9. The parties must include the following information in their statement which, except in unusually complex cases, should not exceed ten pages:

1. Jurisdiction and Service: The basis for the court's subject matter jurisdiction over plaintiff's claims and defendant's counterclaims, whether any issues exist regarding personal jurisdiction or venue, whether any parties remain to be served, and, if any parties remain to be served, a proposed deadline for service.
2. Facts: A brief chronology of the facts and a statement of the principal factual issues in dispute.
3. Legal Issues: A brief statement, without extended legal argument, of the disputed points of law, including reference to specific statutes and decisions.
4. Motions: All prior and pending motions, their current status, and any anticipated motions.
5. Amendment of Pleadings: The extent to which parties, claims, or defenses are expected to be added or dismissed and a proposed deadline for amending the pleadings.
6. Evidence Preservation: Steps taken to preserve evidence relevant to the issue reasonably evident in this action, including interdiction of any document-destruction program and any ongoing erasures of e-mails, voice mails, and other electronically recorded material.
7. Disclosures: Whether there has been full and timely compliance with the initial disclosure requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 and a description of the disclosures made.
8. Discovery: Discovery taken to date, if any, the scope of anticipated discovery, any proposed limitations or modifications of the discovery rules, and a proposed discovery plan pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f).
9. Class Actions: If a class action, a proposal for how and when the class will be certified.
10. Related Cases: Any related cases or proceedings pending before another judge of this court, or before another court or administrative body.

11. Relief: All relief sought through complaint or counterclaim, including the amount of any damages sought and a description of the bases on which damages are calculated. In addition, any party from whom damages are sought must describe the bases on which it contends damages should be calculated if liability is established.
12. Settlement and ADR: Prospects for settlement, ADR efforts to date, and a specific ADR plan for the case, including compliance with ADR L.R. 3-5 and a description of key discovery or motions necessary to position the parties to negotiate a resolution.
13. Consent to Magistrate Judge For All Purposes: Whether all parties will consent to have a magistrate judge conduct all further proceedings including trial and entry of judgment.
14. Other References: Whether the case is suitable for reference to binding arbitration, a special master, or the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.
15. Narrowing of Issues: Issues that can be narrowed by agreement or by motion, suggestions to expedite the presentation of evidence at trial (e.g., through summaries or stipulated facts), and any request to bifurcate issues, claims, or defenses.
16. Expedited Trial Procedure: Whether this is the type of case that can be handled under the Expedited Trial Procedure of General Order No. 64 Attachment A. If all parties agree, they shall instead of this Statement, file an executed Agreement for Expedited Trial and a Joint Expedited Case Management Statement, in accordance with General Order No. 64 Attachments B and D.
17. Scheduling: Proposed dates for designation of experts, discovery cutoff, hearing of dispositive motions, pretrial conference and trial.
18. Trial: Whether the case will be tried to a jury or to the court and the expected length of the trial.
19. Disclosure of Non-party Interested Entities or Persons: Whether each party has filed the "Certification of Interested Entities or Persons" required by Civil Local Rule 3-16. In addition, each party must restate in the case management statement the contents of its certification by identifying any persons, firms, partnerships, corporations (including parent corporations) or other entities known by the party to have either: (i) a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding; or (ii) any other kind of interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding.
20. Such other matters as may facilitate the just, speedy and inexpensive disposition of this matter.
