 STIPULATION RE BRIEFING
 (DEATH PENALTY CASE)

20
 21 By this Court's order of February 9, 2016, (Dkt. 48), the parties were directed to 22 brief claims designated as record based, and briefing on claims that Petitioner identified as 23 requiring an evidentiary hearing was to be completed after resolution of the record based 24 claims.

25 Four of the claims initially identified in the first category allege cumulative error
 26 and prejudice (Claim 20 – cumulative prosecutorial misconduct at penalty phase; Claim 36
 27 – cumulative prosecutorial misconduct at the penalty phase; Claim 43 – trial counsel's 28 cumulative ineffective assistance; Claim 47 – cumulative error of all claims.) Because some of the issues encompassed by these four claims are contained in the group of
