JUDGMENT AND FINAL ORDER APPROVING
 SETTLEMENT AND OVERRULING OBJECTION

1 The Court, having granted preliminary approval of the class action settlement in this
2 matter on June 25, 2013, directed notice of the proposed settlement to all Class Members,
3 considered the Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Settlement, the Declarations of David
4 Borgen, David Sohn, and Jennifer M. Keough, read and considered all of the papers of the 5 parties and their counsel, received a single timely objection to the proposed settlement, heard
6 oral argument at the final approval hearing, and with GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS 7 HERBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

8 1. The Court hereby finds that the notice of settlement, which has been mailed to all
9 class members as previously ordered by the Court, described the terms of the proposed Settlement
10 Agreement, provided the date of the fairness hearing, the manner in which class members could 11 object to or participate in the settlement, and the manner in which class members could opt out of 12 the class. The Court finds that it was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and 13 complied fully with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) and 23(e)(1), due process and all 14 other applicable laws. The Court further finds that a full and fair opportunity has been afforded to 15 all class members to participate in the proceedings convened to determine whether the proposed 16 Settlement Agreement should be given final approval. Accordingly, the Court hereby determines 17 that all class members who did not file a timely and proper request to be excluded from the 18 settlement are bound by this final Order.

19 2. Attached as Exhibit A is a list of class members who submitted valid requests for 20 exclusion. These class members are hereby excluded from the class and are not bound by the 21 Settlement or the Court's judgment in this action.

22 3. The Court finds that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate in 23 all respects, is not collusive, is the product of good faith, arm's-length negotiations between the 24 parties, and fully complies with all applicable provisions of law. Accordingly, the Court hereby 25 finally and unconditionally approves the Settlement Agreement, and specifically:

26 a. Approves the Maximum Settlement Amount of $2,750,000 as fair,
27 reasonable, and adequate;

1 b. Approves that $10,000 of the Maximum Settlement Amount be allocated to
2 resolve PAGA claims, and that under Labor Code section 2699(i), 75% of that amount, or $7,500,
3 will be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency;

4 c. Approves the Named Plaintiff and Class Representative Martha Morazan’s
5 requested service award of $5,000, which is justified by the time and effort expended by Plaintiff
6 on behalf of the class and risk she assumed in bringing this action;

7 d. Approves Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fee request of $687,500 as 25% of the 8 $2,750,000 common fund settlement amount, finding no reason to depart from the benchmark
9 within the Ninth Circuit, and that a 1.49 multiplier on Class Counsel’s lodestar is warranted given
10 the results achieved;

11 e. Approves Class Counsel’s request for reimbursement of litigation expenses
12 of $10,222.83;

13 f. Approves payment to the Garden City Group, the Claims Administrator, of 14 $30,000 as costs and expenses of settlement administration;

15 g. Approves payment from the settlement fund of amounts determined by the 16 Settlement Administrator to be due to class members who did not timely opt out as specified in 17 the Joint Stipulation of Settlement.

18 4. The Court overrules the single objection timely filed on behalf of Mitchell
19 Marincovich, Ryan Compton, and Earnest Harrison, (“Objectors”). Class member Vincent Nava
20 filed an untimely request to join this objection, which request was denied by Defendant.
21 Objectors’ arguments regarding the fairness of the settlement amount, the manner in which 22 damages were estimated for purposes of settlement negotiations, the allegations of collusion by 23 class counsel, the adequacy and typicality of Plaintiff Morazan to represent the settlement class,
24 and the amount of requested attorneys’ fees are without merit.

25 5. This Judgment and Final Order shall have a res judicata effect and bar each 26 Plaintiff and each class member from bringing or maintaining any action asserting any of the 27 “Released Claims” as the term is defined in the Joint Stipulation of Settlement.

6. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Joint Stipulation of Settlement for one year.

7. The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this Order.

8. This action shall be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

This Order terminates Dkt. Nos. 59 and 72.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 15, 2013
