STIPULATION AND ~~[PROPOSED]~~ ORDER
 EXTENDING THE DEADLINE TO FILE JOINT LETTER BRIEFS TO COMPEL, IF NECESSARY.

NAROG V. CITY OF REDWOOD CITY ET AL.
 CASE NO. C13-3237 DMR

1 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the parties to this
2 action, through their respective counsel of record, as follows:

3 Discovery closed on September 16, 2014, and pursuant to the relevant local rule of court
4 the current deadline to file discovery motions is September 23, 2014. Plaintiff and Defendants
5 are meeting and conferring regarding: Plaintiff's responses to Defendants' written discovery;
6 Plaintiff's responses to the request for production of documents served with his deposition
7 notice, and Defendants' responses to Plaintiff's request for production of documents. The 8 parties respectfully request an extension of the deadline to file joint letter briefs in connection
9 with the disputed discovery to September 30, 2014.

10 There is good cause for the extension because the responses at issue were only recently
11 received by counsel for the respective parties. The parties are attempting to meet and confer in 12 an effort to narrow the issues and to resolve the matter informally without this Court's
13 intervention. The five court-day extension will not have any effect on the upcoming court
14 deadlines or the trial date.

15 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

ORDER

PURSUANT TO THE PARTIES' STIPULATION, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

the deadline for bringing joint letter briefs to compel is extended from September 23,

2014 to September 30, 2014. The parties are cautioned that the court will not be hearing motions to compel on shortened time based on the imminent

IT IS SO ORDERED. deadline for filing dispositive motions.

Dated: September 22, 2014
