1 On October 8, 2013, in light of the lapse of federal appropriations to the Department of Justice, 2 Defendant U.S. Agency for International Development (“Federal Defendant”) moved this Court for an 3 order staying all dates and deadlines in the above-captioned matter, including discovery, all court
4 appearances and related deadlines such as Initial Disclosures and Alternative Dispute Resolution
5 deadlines, and vacating the Case Management Conference scheduled for November 6, 2013, until after 6 Congress has restored funding for the Department of Justice and the shutdown of the federal government
7 has come to an end. Good cause appearing, Defendant’s motion is hereby GRANTED.

8 The above-captioned action is hereby STAYED until further notice, including all discovery,
9 court appearances and associated deadlines, until a date after the shutdown of the federal government 10 has ended and relevant appropriations to the Department of Justice have been restored. The Case
11 Management Conference scheduled for November 6, 2013 is VACATED. Further, once the shutdown 12 of the federal government has ended and relevant appropriations to the Department of Justice have been 13 restored, the parties shall and are hereby ORDERED to meet and confer and advise the Court via 14 stipulation of the post-shutdown date on which all counsel are available to attend a Case Management 15 Conference.

16 The stay shall continue for 60 days or until the end of the government shutdown, 17 whichever is sooner. If the shutdown has not ended within 60 days, Defendants may 18 file a request to continue the stay. The parties shall appear for a telephonic Case Management Conference on 1/22/14 at 2:30 p.m., and a Joint Case Management Statement shall be filed at least 7 days prior to that date.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.

20 DATED: October 9, 2013
