11 YOLO COUNTY SUPERIOR
12 COURT, et al.,

13 Respondents.

14 On January 22, 2014, Petitioner Robin Gillen Starr, a prisoner at Salinas Valley State Prison
15 ("SVSP"), filed the instant federal petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 on 16 behalf of himself and other prisoners.

17 As an initial matter, the Court finds that each Petitioner should proceed in separate cases.
18 Because the claims are not common to all Petitioners, and because these Petitioners have limited
19 access to one another and cannot represent each other in these proceedings, basic case management
20 principles of delay reduction and avoidance of confusion call for their claims to proceed separately.
21 Accordingly, all other Petitioners' actions except for Petitioner Starr's action are DISMISSED from 22 this action without prejudice to allow these other Petitioners to file new actions. The Clerk of the 23 Court shall send the other Petitioners a blank habeas corpus petition form with which to file their 24 own actions.

25 The Court now reviews the claims submitted by Petitioner Starr (hereinafter "Petitioner").
26 Among his allegations, which are difficult to decipher on the hand-written petition, Petitioner seems 27 to claim due process violations, a violation of the constitutional protection against double jeopardy,
28 and a denial of his right to cross-examine witnesses. Dkt. 1 at 8-11.<sup>1</sup>

1 Also on January 22, 2104, the Clerk sent Petitioner a notice directing him to pay the filing
2 fee or to file a completed in forma pauperis ("IFP") application. The Court cannot conduct an initial 3 review of this matter until Petitioner has either paid the filing fee or completed an IFP application.
4 See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) (a party is permitted to file a civil action in federal court without 5 prepayment of fees or security if he makes affidavit that he is unable to pay such fees or give 6 security therefor).

7 On February 3, 2014, Petitioner filed a motion leave to proceed IFP; however, he did not file
8 a prisoner trust account statement showing transactions for the last six months or a Certificate of 9 Funds that was signed by an authorized officer at the prison. Dkt. 10. Instead, the record shows that 10 Petitioner submitted a Certificate of Funds; however, he signed it -- posing as an authorized officer
11 at SVSP. Id. at 5.

12 Petitioner then filed various motions in the instant action, among them he seeks preliminary
13 injunctive relief (dkt. 4) and leave to file an amended complaint (dkt. 9). Petitioner also filed
14 motions entitled, "Motion for: Summary Judgment Pursuant to § 1473(pc)" (dkt. 11),<sup>2</sup> and "Motion
15 to Vacate All Sentences" (dkt. 14). However, as explained below, because Petitioner has not filed 16 the requisite supporting documents with his IFP application, these motions will be denied as 17 premature.

18 This action was originally assigned to Magistrate Judge Donna M. Ryu; however, he 19 declined magistrate judge jurisdiction (dkt. 8) and his case was later reassigned to the undersigned 20 Judge (dkt. 13). On February 6, 2014 and February 7, 2014, the Clerk's notice regarding the 21 impending reassignment (dkt. 12) and the Order Reassigning Case (dkt. 13), respectively, were 22 mailed to Petitioner at SVSP.

23 On February 25, 2014, Petitioner filed his prisoner trust account statement in support of his
24 IFP application. Dkt. 15.

26 <sup>2</sup> Because Petitioner does not specify, the Court assumes he is referring to California Penal 27 Code § 1473. Subdivision (a), which deals with the writ of habeas corpus, provides that "[e]very 28 person unlawfully imprisoned or restrained in his liberty, under any pretense whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus, to inquire into the cause of such imprisonment." Cal. Penal Code § 1473(a).

1 On February 27, 2014, the Clerk sent Petitioner a notice directing him to pay the filing fee or 2 to file a proper Certificate of Funds. The Clerk provided another copy of the correct IFP application
3 form, along with a return envelope, instructions, and a notification that the case would be dismissed
4 if Petitioner failed to pay the fee or file the requisite document within twenty-eight days. All the 5 aforementioned documents were mailed to Petitioner at SVSP.

6 On March 5, 2014, the Clerk's February 6, 2014 notice regarding the impending
7 reassignment (dkt. 12) and the February 7, 2014 Order Reassigning Case (dkt. 13) were returned
8 undeliverable because Petitioner "refused" them. Dkts. 17, 18. Meanwhile, the Clerk's February 27, 9 2014 notice was not returned as undeliverable; therefore, the Court assumes Petitioner received that 10 notice relating to filing a proper Certificate of Funds, which was due on March 27, 2014.

11 The March 27, 2014 deadline passed, and Petitioner did not file a proper Certificate of 12 Funds. Instead, he filed more premature motions, including the following entitled: "Motion for 13 Costs" (dkt. 21); two other "Motion[s] for Summary Judgment" (dkts. 23, 26); and a "Motion for an 14 Order for Bodys [sic] to be Produced for Court on Due Process" (dkt. 25). Again, for the same 15 reasons mentioned above, these motions will be denied as premature.

16 Out of an abundance of caution, on April 23, 2014, the Clerk attempted to send Petitioner a
17 second notice directing him to pay the filing fee or to file a proper Certificate of Funds. The Clerk
18 sent the same forms mentioned above to Petitioner at SVSP.

19 On April 28, 2014, which was almost a month after the March 27, 2014 deadline listed on 20 the Clerk's February 27, 2014 Notice, Petitioner submitted a seven-page document that was docketed
21 as a "Statement," to which he attached another Certificate of Funds. Dkt. 28 at 3. However, this 22 filing was still improper because, again, Petitioner has signed it, posing as an authorized officer at 23 SVSP.

24 On May 21, 2014, the Clerk's April 23, 2014 notice was returned undeliverable because
25 Petitioner "refused" it. Dkt. 29.

26 Petitioner then filed two other motions entitled, "Motion for Recall of Sentences" (dkt. 31)
27 and a motion for appointment of counsel (dkt. 34).
28

1 On June 2, 2014, the Clerk attempted to send Petitioner a third notice directing him to pay
2 the filing fee or to file a proper Certificate of Funds. The Clerk sent the same forms mentioned
3 above to Petitioner at SVSP.

4 On July 7, 2014, the Clerk's June 2, 2014 notice was returned undeliverable because
5 Petitioner "refused" it. Dkt. 29.

6 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b), a district court may sua sponte dismiss an 7 action for failure to prosecute or to comply with a court order. See Link v. Wabash R.R., 370 U.S.
8 626, 633 (1962); McKeever v. Block, 932 F.2d 795, 797 (9th Cir. 1991). But such a dismissal should 9 only be ordered when the failure to comply is unreasonable. See id. A district court should afford
10 the litigant prior notice of its intention to dismiss. See Malone v. United States Postal Serv., 833
11 F.2d 128, 133 (9th Cir. 1987).

12 In the instant case, Petitioner originally received notice of the improper Certificate of Funds
13 in the Clerk's February 27, 2014 notice. This notice was not returned undeliverable. In this notice, 14 the Clerk afforded Petitioner prior notice of dismissal within twenty-eight days if he failed to 15 comply. Dkt. 16 at 1. Indeed, Petitioner has failed to comply because he did not file a timely and 16 proper Certificate of Funds by the March 27, 2014 deadline. Instead, as explained above, he filed a
17 late Certificate of Funds, which was also improper because he signed it posing as an authorized 18 SVSP officer. On March 5, 2014, May 21, 2104 and July 7, 2014, mail sent to Petitioner was 19 returned as undeliverable with the notation: "Returned to Sender -- Inmate Refused," as well as 20 additional handwritten notations stating, "Refused."

21 Accordingly, in light of Petitioner's inability to file a timely and proper Certificate of Funds
22 as well as his recent acts of refusing mail, it is in the interests of justice and judicial efficiency for 23 the Court to establish whether Petitioner intends to continue to prosecute this action. Petitioner is 24 directed to follow the instructions below, which includes the filing of: (1) a notice of continued
25 intent to prosecute; and (2) a timely and proper Certificate of Funds, without which the Court cannot 26 conduct an initial review of this matter. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a).

27 CONCLUSION

28 For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

1 shall comply with the following provisions of Rules 3-4(c)(2)-(3), and 7-4(a)(2)-(5), (b), of the 2 Northern District of California Civil Local Rules:

3 Rule 3-4. Papers Presented for Filing.

4 (c) General Requirements.

5 (2) Written Text. Text must appear on one side only and must be double-
6 spaced with no more than 28 lines per page, except for the identification of counsel,
7 title of the case, footnotes and quotations. Typewritten text may be no less than 8 standard pica or 12-point type in the Courier font or equivalent, spaced 10 characters
9 per horizontal inch. Printed text, produced on a word processor or other computer,
10 may be proportionally spaced, provided the type may not be smaller than 12-point
11 standard font (e.g., Times New Roman). The text of footnotes and quotations must 12 also conform to these font requirements.

13 (3) Identification of Paper. Except for exhibits, each paper filed with the 14 Court must bear a footer on the lower margin of each page stating the title of the 15 paper (e.g., "Complaint," "Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment," etc.) or some 16 clear and concise abbreviation. Once the Court assigns a case number to the action
17 that case number must be included in the footer.

18 Rule 7-4. Brief or Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

19 (a) Content. In addition to complying with the applicable provisions of Civil L.R. 3-20 4, a brief or memorandum of points and authorities filed in support, opposition or 21 reply to a motion must contain:

22 ***

- 23 (2) If in excess of 10 pages, a table of contents and a table of authorities;
- 24 (3) A statement of the issues to be decided;
- 25 (4) A succinct statement of the relevant facts; and
- 26 (5) Argument by the party, citing pertinent authorities.

27 (b) Length. Unless the Court expressly orders otherwise pursuant to a party's request 28 made prior to the due date, briefs or memoranda filed with opposition papers may not exceed 25 pages of text and the reply brief or memorandum may not exceed 15 pages of text.

Civil L.R. 3-4(c)(2)-(3), 7-4(a)(2)-(5), (b).

Any pleadings which do not meet these requirements and for which prior permission to exceed the page limits has not been sought shall be returned to Petitioner without being filed.

5. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable extensions will be granted.

Any motion for an extension of time must be filed no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the deadline sought to be extended.

1           6.       Petitioner must keep the Court informed of any change of address and must comply
2 with the Court's orders in a timely fashion. Pursuant to Northern District Local Rule 3-11 a party
3 proceeding pro se whose address changes while an action is pending must promptly file a notice of 4 change of address specifying the new address. See L.R. 3-11(a). The Court may dismiss a pro se
5 action without prejudice when: (1) mail directed to the pro se party by the Court has been returned to 6 the Court as not deliverable, and (2) the Court fails to receive within sixty days of this return a 7 written communication from the pro se party indicating a current address. See L.R. 3-11(b); see also 8 Martinez v. Johnson, 104 F.3d 769, 772 (5th Cir. 1997) (Rule 41(b) applicable in habeas cases).

9           7.       The Clerk shall send Petitioner Starr a blank prisoner IFP application form along with 10 his copy of this Order. The Clerk shall also send each of the other dismissed Petitioners at SVSP:
11 (1) a prisoner IFP application form; and (2) a blank habeas corpus petition form with which to file
12 their own actions, as mentioned above.

13           8.       This Order terminates Docket Nos. 4, 9, 10, 11, 14, 21, 23, 25, 26, 31 and 34.

14           IT IS SO ORDERED.
