United States District Court
Northern District of California

MICHAEL GAREDAKIS, et al.,
Plaintiff,
v.
BRENTWOOD UNION SCHOOL
DISTRICT, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 14-cv-4799-PJH (DMR)
NOTICE OF REFERENCE AND ORDER RE: DISCOVERY PROCEDURES
Re: Dkt. Nos. 41, 46

TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL OF RECORD:

Plaintiffs have filed a discovery-related motion. [Docket No. 41.] Subsequently, Judge Hamilton referred the above matter to Magistrate Judge Donna M. Ryu for resolution of all discovery matters, including Plaintiffs’ motion. [Docket No. 46.] Judge Hamilton vacated the hearing date on the motion and ordered the parties to meet and confer, and if they are unable to resolve the discovery matter without judicial intervention, to file a joint letter of not more than 8 pages with no more than 12 pages of attachments, explaining the dispute.

For all future disputes, the parties may seek judicial intervention in discovery disputes following to the procedures in this order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Northern District of California’s Local Rules, General Orders, and Standing Orders. Local rules, general orders, standing orders, and instructions for using the Court's Electronic Case Filing system are available at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>. Failure to comply may result in sanctions.

RESOLUTION OF DISCOVERY DISPUTES

In order to respond to discovery disputes in a flexible, cost-effective and efficient manner, the court uses the following procedure. The parties shall not file formal discovery motions. Instead, as required by the federal and local rules, the parties shall first meet and confer to try to

1 resolve their disagreements. The meet and confer session must be in person or by telephone, and 2 may not be conducted by letter, e-mail, or fax. If disagreements remain, the parties shall file a 3 joint letter no later than five business days after the meet and confer session, unless otherwise
4 directed by the court. Lead trial counsel for both parties must sign the letter, which shall 5 include an attestation that the parties met and conferred in person or by telephone regarding all
6 issues prior to filing the letter. The letter must also include a paragraph listing relevant case
7 management deadlines, including (1) the fact and expert discovery cut-off dates; (2) the last day
8 to hear or file dispositive motions; (3) claim construction or class certification briefing deadlines
9 and hearing dates; and (4) pretrial conference and trial dates. Going issue-by-issue, the joint letter 10 shall describe each unresolved issue, summarize each party's position with appropriate legal 11 authority, and provide each party's final proposed compromise before moving to the next issue.
12 The joint letter shall not exceed eight pages (12-point font or greater; margins no less than one 13 inch) without leave of court. Parties are expected to plan for and cooperate in preparing the 14 joint letter so that each side has adequate time to address the arguments. In the rare instance 15 that a joint letter is not possible, each side may submit a letter not to exceed three pages, which 16 shall include an explanation of why a joint letter was not possible. The parties shall submit one 17 exhibit that sets forth each disputed discovery request in full, followed immediately by the 18 objections and/or responses thereto. No other information shall be included in the exhibit. No 19 other exhibits shall be submitted without prior court approval. The court will review the 20 submission(s) and determine whether formal briefing or proceedings are necessary. Discovery
21 letter briefs must be e-filed under the Civil Events category of Motions and Related Filings >
22 Motions - General > "Discovery Letter Brief".

23 The court has found that it is often efficient and beneficial for counsel to appear in person 24 at discovery hearings. This provides the opportunity to engage counsel, where appropriate, in 25 resolving aspects of the discovery dispute while remaining available to rule on disputes that 26 counsel are not able to resolve themselves. For this reason, the court expects counsel to appear
27 in person. Permission to attend by telephone may be granted upon written request made at least 28 one week in advance of the hearing if the court determines that good cause exists to excuse

1 personal attendance, and that personal attendance is not needed in order to have an effective
2 discovery hearing. The facts establishing good cause must be set forth in the request.
3 In emergencies during discovery events (such as depositions), any party may, after exhausting
4 good faith attempts to resolve disputed issues, seek judicial intervention pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-5 1(b) by contacting the court through the courtroom deputy. If the court is unavailable, the 6 discovery event shall proceed with objections noted for the record.

7 CHAMBERS COPIES AND PROPOSED ORDERS

8 Pursuant to Civil L.R. 5-1(e)(7) and 5-2(b), parties must lodge an extra paper copy of 9 certain filings and mark it as a copy for “Chambers.” All chambers copies should be three-hole 10 punched, and must include tabs between exhibits.

11 Any stipulation or proposed order submitted by an e-filing party shall be submitted by 12 email to dmrpo@cand.uscourts.gov as a word processing attachment on the same day the 13 document is e-filed. This address should only be used for this stated purpose unless otherwise 14 directed by the court.

15 PRIVILEGE LOGS

16 If a party withholds responsive information by claiming that it is privileged or otherwise 17 protected from discovery, that party shall promptly provide a privilege log that is sufficiently 18 detailed for the opposing party to assess whether the assertion of privilege is justified. Unless the 19 parties agree to alternative logging methods, the log should include: (a) the title and description of 20 the document, including number of pages or Bates-number range; (b) the subject matter addressed 21 in the document; (c) the identity and position of its author(s); (d) the identity and position of all 22 addressees and recipients; (e) the date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) on 23 which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its author(s); and (f) the specific basis for 24 the claim that the document is privileged or protected. Communications involving trial counsel 25 that post-date the filing of the complaint need not be placed on a privilege log. Failure to 26 promptly furnish a privilege log may be deemed a waiver of the privilege or protection.
