The parties should be mindful of any time limits set by the district court.

It is the responsibility of counsel to ensure that whatever discovery is needed for all sides to evaluate the case for settlement purposes is completed by the date of the settlement conference. Counsel shall cooperate in providing discovery informally and expeditiously.

18 especially sensitive matters that other counsel or the Court should be alerted to before the 19 conference.
- 20 6. Whether a pre-settlement conference call with the attorneys and the settlement judge would help 21 make the process more productive (e.g., by ensuring that the appropriate client representatives 22 attend). Counsel may arrange a pre-settlement conference call with Judge Laporte by 23 calling Stephen Ybarra at 415-522-3694.

24 B. Exchange of Current Settlement Demand and Response

25 If there is no current settlement demand, Plaintiff must serve a demand on Defendant in writing entities must approve a proposed settlement agreement before it can be executed, as well as the nature and duration of that approval process.

2. Confidential Settlement Letters

The Confidential Settlement Letter shall not be served upon other parties.

The Confidential Settlement Letter shall not exceed five (5) pages of text and shall include the following:

- a. Separately for each principal claim and defense, a candid and forthright evaluation of the strengths and weaknesses and likelihood that the party submitting the Confidential Letter will prevail. Citations to any key legal authorities relied upon by the parties as part of this evaluation shall be provided.
- b. An estimate of the out-of-pocket expenses, attorneys' fees, and time: (a) spent to date and (b) to be expended for further discovery, pretrial, and trial. If plaintiff seeks attorneys' fees and costs, plaintiff's counsel shall be prepared at the conference to provide sufficient information to enable the fee claim to be evaluated for purposes of settlement.
- c. A description of the principal obstacles (factual, legal, or other) to reaching a settlement agreement, and the reason the parties' assessments of the settlement value of the case differ.
- d. A realistic settlement figure and/or terms (including any non-monetary terms) that, given all the circumstances, the party submitting the Confidential Letter would consider seriously.
- e. Where the party is insured or is a governmental entity, any foreseeable barriers to insurance coverage or approval of a proposed settlement, or special concerns that the insurer or governmental entity might want addressed.

D. Mandatory Personal Attendance

Lead trial counsel shall appear at the settlement conference with the parties and with the

1 person(s) having full authority to make the final decision as to whether any settlement offer is made,
2 accepted, or rejected (if full authority does not rest with the party). A person who needs to
3 call another person not present before making, accepting, or rejecting any settlement offer does not
4 have such full authority. If a party is a governmental entity, its governing body shall designate one
5 of its members or a senior executive to appear at the settlement conference with authority to 6 participate in the settlement conference and, if a tentative settlement agreement is reached, to 7 recommend the agreement to the governmental entity for its approval. An insured party shall 8 appear with a representative of the carrier with full authority to negotiate up to the limits of 9 coverage.

10 Personal attendance is mandatory and will rarely be excused by the Court, and only upon written
11 authorization from the Court. To seek to excuse a party from personally attending a settlement
12 conference, counsel for that party shall meet and confer with counsel for all other parties to determine 13 if there are any objections to the moving party's absence. Counsel must then lodge a letter with the 14 Court, with copies to all parties, seeking to excuse the party's participation. The letter shall recite the 15 compelling reasons for seeking the party's absence, as well as whether the other parties agree or object
16 to the request and the reasons for any objection. The application to excuse a party must be lodged no
17 later than the lodging of the Settlement Conference Documents. If the Court permits attendance by 18 telephone, the person who is excused from personally appearing must be available to participate by 19 telephone throughout the entire conference.

20 E. Duration and Content of Settlement Conference

21 It is not unusual for settlement conferences to last three (3) or more hours, or at times all day.
22 Parties and their representatives should be prepared to devote the entire day to the conference if 23 necessary. Parties are encouraged to participate in the settlement conference and frankly discuss their 24 case. Statements they make during the conference will not be admissible in the event the case does not 25 settle. See ADR L.R. 7-5. The parties and their representatives should be prepared to discuss such 26 issues as their settlement objectives; any impediments to settlement that they perceive; whether they 27 have enough information to discuss settlement and if not, what additional information is needed; and 28 the possibility of a creative resolution of the dispute.

1 F. Continuances

2 Any request to continue the settlement conference shall be submitted in writing as soon as
3 possible after consultation with the opposing party. The request must demonstrate a compelling
4 reason for a continuance, and state whether the opposing party(ies) agree or oppose the request. Any 5 party who objects to the continuance should submit a written response within 2 business days.
6 Courtesy copies of any electronically filed documents must be delivered to chambers as provided in 7 Civil Local Rule 5-1(e)(7).

8 The parties shall notify Magistrate Judge Laporte's Courtroom Deputy, Stephen Ybarra,
9 immediately at (415) 522-3694 if this case settles prior to the date set for settlement conference.

10 Any failure to comply with the requirements of this Order may subject the parties and/or 11 counsel to sanctions.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
