UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

EDIN S. CASTELLANOS, Plaintiff,
v.
JEREMY J. MAYA, Defendant.

Case No. 15-cv-00272-JSW

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO SUBMIT POCKET BRIEF

Re: Dkt. No. 143

On July 11, 2016, Plaintiff filed an administrative motion to submit a pocket brief on the admissibility and relevance of officers post training, departmental policies, regulations, standards, and rules. Plaintiff's proposed pocket brief consists of six case summaries, but no analysis as to how those cases would apply to particular exhibits at issue in this case. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's administrative motion without prejudice. If the parties cannot resolve this issue, Plaintiff should simply file a pocket brief – no administrative motions are required to file such briefs during trial – that analyzes how these cases are relevant to the admissibility of particular exhibits. The Court will provide Defendant with an opportunity to respond to any such brief, either orally or in writing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 11, 2016

United States District Judge
