CASE NO. 15-cv-03504-YGR

NOTICE OF ERRATA

Re: Dkt. No. 327

11 Consistent with the text of its order at page 15 of Docket Number 327, the Court issues
12 these corrections to the following class definitions at page 31 of its order at Docket Number 327.

13 Deletions are set in ~~[brackets]~~ and additions in bold:

14 1) California Class: All CVS customers in California who, between November
15 2008 and July 31, 2015 (the "Class Period"), (1) purchased one or more generic
16 prescription drugs that were offered through CVS's Health Savings Pass ("HSP")
17 program at the time of the purchase; (2) were insured for the purchase(s) through
18 a third-party payor plan administered by Caremark/PCS ~~[or Optum]~~; and (3) paid
19 CVS an out-of-pocket payment for the purchase greater than the HSP price for the 20 prescription.

21 2) Florida Class: All CVS customers in Florida who, between November 2008
22 and July 31, 2015 (the "Class Period"), (1) purchased one or more generic
23 prescription drugs that were offered through CVS's Health Savings Pass ("HSP")
24 program at the time of the purchase; (2) were insured for the purchase(s) through
25 a third-party payor plan administered by Caremark/PCS or Optum; and (3) paid
26 CVS an out-of-pocket payment for the purchase greater than the HSP price for the 27 prescription.

28 Thus, the final text of those definitions as set forth in the Conclusion on page 31 is hereby

REPLACED with the following:

1) California Class: All CVS customers in California who, between November
2008 and July 31, 2015 (the "Class Period"), (1) purchased one or more generic
prescription drugs that were offered through CVS's Health Savings Pass ("HSP") program at the time of the purchase; (2) were insured for the purchase(s) through a third-party payor plan administered by Caremark/PCS; and (3) paid CVS an out-of-pocket payment for the purchase greater than the HSP price for the prescription.
