UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ROBERT PRESTON,
Plaintiff,
v.
ZAHED U. AHMED, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-04840-DMR (PR)
ORDER OF PARTIAL DISMISSAL AND SERVICE

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, a state prisoner currently incarcerated at Valley State Prison (“VSP”), has filed a pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging that Defendants were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs while he was housed at the Correctional Training Facility (“CTF”), where he was previously incarcerated from 2013 through 2015.

This matter has been assigned to the undersigned Magistrate Judge. Dkt. 4. Plaintiff has consented to magistrate judge jurisdiction. Dkt. 5.

Plaintiff’s motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis will be granted in a separate written Order.

Venue is proper because the events giving rise to the claims are alleged to have occurred at CTF, which is located in this judicial district. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

In his complaint, Plaintiff names the following Defendants: CTF Doctors Zahed U. Ahmed, Bright, J. Chudy, Sepulveda, C. Ellis and Adams. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief and monetary damages.

II. DISCUSSION

A. Injunctive Relief Claims

As mentioned above, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief as well as monetary damages. The jurisdiction of the federal courts depends on the existence of a “case or controversy” under Article III of the Constitution. PUC v. FERC, 100 F.3d 1451, 1458 (9th Cir. 1996). A claim is considered moot if it has lost its character as a present, live controversy, and if no effective relief

1 can be granted: “Where the question sought to be adjudicated has been mooted by developments
2 subsequent to filing of the complaint, no justiciable controversy is presented.” Flast v. Cohen, 392
3 U.S. 83, 95 (1968). Where injunctive relief is involved, questions of mootness are determined in 4 light of the present circumstances. See Mitchell v. Dupnik, 75 F.3d 517, 528 (9th Cir. 1996).

5 When an inmate has been transferred to another prison and no reasonable expectation or 6 demonstrated probability exists that he will again be subjected to the prison or jail conditions from 7 which he seeks injunctive relief, the claim for injunctive relief should be dismissed as moot. See
8 Dilley v. Gunn, 64 F.3d 1365, 1368-69 (9th Cir. 1995). A claim that the inmate might be re-
9 transferred to the prison or jail where the injury occurred is too speculative to overcome mootness.
10 Id.

11 When Plaintiff filed the instant action, he was still incarcerated at CTF. Plaintiff sought 12 injunctive relief to remedy his alleged injuries stemming from various constitutional violations at 13 CTF. However, the record now shows that he has since been transferred to VSP. Because 14 Plaintiff is no longer incarcerated at CTF, his claims for injunctive relief based on his confinement
15 at CTF are DISMISSED as moot. The Court proceeds to review Plaintiff’s remaining claims for 16 monetary damages.

17 B. Remaining Claims for Monetary Damages

18 i. Standard of Review

19 A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks 20 redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C.
21 § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims 22 that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek 23 monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). Pro se
24 pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th
25 Cir. 1988). To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential
26 elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated,
27 and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law.
28 West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

C. Deliberate Indifference to Serious Medical Needs

Deliberate indifference to serious medical needs violates the Eighth Amendment’s proscription against cruel and unusual punishment. See Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 104 (1976); McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059 (9th Cir. 1992), overruled on other grounds, WMX Technologies, Inc. v. Miller, 104 F.3d 1133, 1136 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc); Jones v. Johnson, 781 F.2d 769, 771 (9th Cir. 1986). A determination of “deliberate indifference” involves an examination of two elements: the seriousness of the prisoner’s medical need and the nature of the defendant’s response to that need. See McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1059. A “serious” medical need exists if the failure to treat a prisoner’s condition could result in further significant injury or the “unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.” Id. (citing Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. at 104). A prison official is deliberately indifferent if he or she knows that a prisoner faces a substantial risk of serious harm and disregards that risk by failing to take reasonable steps to abate it. Farmer v. Brennan, 511 U.S. 825, 837 (1994).

Plaintiff alleges that he suffers from multiple ailments, including neck pain, lower back pain, arthritis, and “serious nerve entrapment neuropathy.” Dkt. 6 at 4-5.¹ Plaintiff claims that he did not received treatment for the aforementioned conditions from the date he transferred from Mule Creek State Prison (“MCSP”) to CTF on September 9, 2013 until the date he signed the instant complaint on October 10, 2015. Id. He adds that his requests for a “lower bunk, extra mattress, extra pillow, back brace and orthotics boots, plus the morphine 2x a day he was receiving [at MCSP]” were denied by Defendants. Id. at 6. Because Plaintiff was denied such “chronos”² and treatment, he claims that he is suffering “excruciating pain all day and night.” Id. at 8.

Liberally construed, the complaint states cognizable Eighth Amendment claims against the named Defendants for deliberate indifference to Plaintiff’s serious medical needs.

¹ Page number citations refer to those assigned by the Court’s electronic case management filing system and not those assigned by Plaintiff.

² A “chrono” is a form that allows prisoners to request certain medical accommodations as deemed necessary by medical staff.

1 III. CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, the court orders as follows:

3 1. Plaintiff’s claims for injunctive relief based on his confinement at CTF are 4 DISMISSED as moot.

5 2. Plaintiff complaint states cognizable claims of deliberate indifference to his 6 medical needs against Defendants Ahmed, Bright, Chudy, Sepulveda, Ellis and Adams.

7 3. The Clerk of the Court shall mail a Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of 8 Service of Summons, two copies of the Waiver of Service of Summons, a copy of the complaint
9 and all attachments thereto (dkt. 6), a Magistrate Judge jurisdiction consent form, and a copy of 10 this Order to Doctors Zahed U. Ahmed, Bright, J. Chudy, Sepulveda, C. Ellis and Adams at 11 CTF.

12 The Clerk shall also mail a copy of the complaint and a copy of this Order to the State
13 Attorney General’s Office in San Francisco. Additionally, the Clerk shall mail a copy of this 14 Order to Plaintiff.

15 4. Defendants are cautioned that Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
16 requires them to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint.
17 Pursuant to Rule 4, if Defendants, after being notified of this action and asked by the court, on 18 behalf of Plaintiff, to waive service of the summons, fail to do so, they will be required to bear the 19 cost of such service unless good cause be shown for their failure to sign and return the waiver
20 form. If service is waived, this action will proceed as if Defendants had been served on the date
21 that the waiver is filed, except that pursuant to Rule 12(a)(1)(B), Defendants will not be required
22 to serve and file an answer before sixty (60) days from the date on which the request for waiver
23 was sent. (This allows a longer time to respond than would be required if formal service of 24 summons is necessary.) Defendants are asked to read the statement set forth at the foot of the 25 waiver form that more completely describes the duties of the parties with regard to waiver of 26 service of the summons. If service is waived after the date provided in the Notice but before
27 Defendants have been personally served, the Answer shall be due sixty (60) days from the date on 28 which the request for waiver was sent or twenty (20) days from the date the waiver form is filed,

1 whichever is later. Defendants shall also respond to the Notice of Assignment of Prisoner
2 Case to a United States Magistrate Judge for Trial by filing a consent/declination form on 3 the date the Answer is due.

4 5. Defendants shall answer the complaint in accordance with the Federal Rules of 5 Civil Procedure. The following briefing schedule shall govern dispositive motions in this action:

6 a. No later than sixty (60) days from the date their answer is due, Defendants
7 shall file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. The motion must be 8 supported by adequate factual documentation, must conform in all respects to Federal Rule of 9 Civil Procedure 56, and must include as exhibits all records and incident reports stemming from 10 the events at issue. A motion for summary judgment also must be accompanied by a *Rand*³ notice
11 so that Plaintiff will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of him in order to 12 oppose the motion. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 935 (9th Cir. 2012) (notice requirement set out 13 in Rand must be served concurrently with motion for summary judgment). A motion to dismiss 14 for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies must be accompanied by a similar notice.
15 However, the court notes that under the new law of the circuit, in the rare event that a failure to 16 exhaust is clear on the face of the complaint, Defendants may move for dismissal under Rule
17 12(b)(6) as opposed to the previous practice of moving under an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion.
18 Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir. 2014) (en banc) (overruling Wyatt v. Terhune, 315
19 F.3d 1108, 1119 (9th Cir. 2003), which held that failure to exhaust available administrative 20 remedies under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), should be raised by a 21 defendant as an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion). Otherwise if a failure to exhaust is not clear on 22 the face of the complaint, Defendants must produce evidence proving failure to exhaust in a
23 motion for summary judgment under Rule 56. Id. If undisputed evidence viewed in the light most 24 favorable to Plaintiff shows a failure to exhaust, Defendants are entitled to summary judgment
25 under Rule 56. Id. But if material facts are disputed, summary judgment should be denied and the 26 district judge rather than a jury should determine the facts in a preliminary proceeding. Id. at 27

28

³ Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952 (9th Cir. 1998).

1 1168. If Defendants are of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment,
2 they shall so inform the court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due. All papers
3 filed with the court shall be promptly served on Plaintiff.

4 b. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the court
5 and served on Defendants no later than twenty-eight (28) days after the date on which 6 Defendants' motion is filed.

7 c. Plaintiff is advised that a motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of 8 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case. Rule 56 tells you what you
9 must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must 10 be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact—that is, if there is no real dispute about 11 any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is 12 entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing 13 makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn 14 testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out 15 specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, 16 as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradicts the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and 17 documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit 18 your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you.
19 If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial. Rand, 154
20 F.3d at 962-63.

21 Plaintiff also is advised that—in the rare event that Defendants argue that the failure to 22 exhaust is clear on the face of the complaint—a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available
23 administrative remedies under 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) will, if granted, end your case, albeit without 24 prejudice. To avoid dismissal, you have the right to present any evidence to show that you did
25 exhaust your available administrative remedies before coming to federal court. Such evidence 26 may include: (1) declarations, which are statements signed under penalty of perjury by you or 27 others who have personal knowledge of relevant matters; (2) authenticated documents—
28 documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they are

1 authentic, or other sworn papers such as answers to interrogatories or depositions; (3) statements
2 in your complaint insofar as they were made under penalty of perjury and they show that you have 3 personal knowledge of the matters state therein. As mentioned above, in considering a motion to 4 dismiss for failure to exhaust under Rule 12(b)(6) or failure to exhaust in a summary judgment
5 motion under Rule 56, the district judge may hold a preliminary proceeding and decide disputed
6 issues of fact with regard to this portion of the case. Albino, 747 F.3d at 1168.

7 (The notices above do not excuse Defendants' obligation to serve similar notices again
8 concurrently with motions to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies and 9 motions for summary judgment. Woods, 684 F.3d at 935.)

10 d. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fourteen (14) days after the 11 date Plaintiff's opposition is filed.

12 e. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due.
13 No hearing will be held on the motion unless the court so orders at a later date.

14 6. Discovery may be taken in this action in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 15 Procedure. Leave of the court pursuant to Rule 30(a)(2) is hereby granted to Defendants to depose
16 Plaintiff and any other necessary witnesses confined in prison.

17 7. All communications by Plaintiff with the court must be served on Defendants or 18 their counsel, once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to them.

19 8. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the court
20 informed of any change of address and must comply with the court's orders in a timely fashion.
21 Pursuant to Northern District Local Rule 3-11 a party proceeding pro se whose address changes 22 while an action is pending must promptly file a notice of change of address specifying the new 23 address. See L.R. 3-11(a). The court may dismiss without prejudice a complaint when: (1) mail 24 directed to the pro se party by the court has been returned to the court as not deliverable, and 25 (2) the court fails to receive within sixty days of this return a written communication from the pro
26 se party indicating a current address. See L.R. 3-11(b).

27 9. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable extensions will be granted.
28 Any motion for an extension of time must be filed no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the
