UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PHILLIP BRISETTE,
Plaintiff,
v.
CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-05578-PJH

ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH LEAVE TO AMEND

United States District Court
Northern District of California

Plaintiff, a state prisoner, has filed a pro se civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. He has been granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

DISCUSSION

I. STANDARD OF REVIEW

Federal courts must engage in a preliminary screening of cases in which prisoners seek redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review the court must identify any cognizable claims, and dismiss any claims which are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. at 1915A(b)(1),(2). Pro se pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2) requires only "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." "Specific facts are not necessary; the statement need only "give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim is and the grounds upon which it rests."" Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 93 (2007) (citations omitted). Although in order to state a claim a complaint "does not need detailed

1 factual allegations, . . . a plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of his 'entitle[ment]
2 to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the 3 elements of a cause of action will not do. . . . Factual allegations must be enough to 4 raise a right to relief above the speculative level." Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550
5 U.S. 544, 555 (2007) (citations omitted). A complaint must proffer "enough facts to state
6 a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Id. at 570. The United States Supreme 7 Court has recently explained the "plausible on its face" standard of Twombly: "While legal
8 conclusions can provide the framework of a complaint, they must be supported by factual
9 allegations. When there are well-pleaded factual allegations, a court should assume their 10 veracity and then determine whether they plausibly give rise to an entitlement to relief."
11 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 679 (2009).

12 To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential
13 elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was 14 violated, and (2) that the alleged deprivation was committed by a person acting under the 15 color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

16 II. LEGAL CLAIMS

17 Plaintiff seeks an order compelling a California State Court to conduct a hearing 18 regarding his state habeas petition for a prison disciplinary finding.

19 The federal mandamus statute provides: "The district courts shall have original 20 jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of 21 the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff." 28
22 U.S.C. § 1361.

23 However, this court has no authority to take the actions requested by plaintiff by 24 way of a writ of mandamus. Federal courts are without power to issue mandamus to 25 direct state courts, state judicial officers, or other state officials in the performance of their 26 duties. A petition for mandamus to compel a state court or official to take or refrain from 27 some action is frivolous as a matter of law. See Demos v. U.S. District Court, 925 F.2d
28 1160, 1161-62 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 111 S. Ct. 1082 (1991); see also In re Campbell,

1 264 F.3d 730, 731-32 (7th Cir. 2001) (denying petition for writ of mandamus that would
2 order state trial court to give plaintiff access to certain trial transcripts which he sought in
3 preparation for filing state post-conviction petition; federal court may not, as a general
4 rule, issue mandamus to a state judicial officer to control or interfere with state court
5 litigation).

6 Plaintiff brought habeas petitions in the state superior court, court of appeal, and 7 supreme court. No hearings were scheduled in any of those cases and all petitions were 8 denied. Plaintiff seeks to have the denials vacated and a hearing held in state court.
9 Pursuant to the authority above this court cannot compel a state court to have a hearing.
10 The complaint will be dismissed but plaintiff will be provided one opportunity to amend.¹

11 CONCLUSION

12 1. The complaint is DISMISSED with leave to amend in accordance with the 13 standards set forth above. The amended complaint must be filed no later than January 14 29, 2016, and must include the caption and civil case number used in this order and the 15 words AMENDED COMPLAINT on the first page. Because an amended complaint
16 completely replaces the original complaint, plaintiff must include in it all the claims he 17 wishes to present. See Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1262 (9th Cir. 1992). He may 18 not incorporate material from the original complaint by reference.

19 2. It is the plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the 20 court informed of any change of address by filing a separate paper with the clerk headed
21 "Notice of Change of Address," and must comply with the court's orders in a timely
22 fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute
23 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

26
27 ¹ Depending on the circumstances of the disciplinary hearing and the punishment, plaintiff
28 may be able to challenge the finding in a habeas petition. Plaintiff would need to file the petition in the district where he is confined, which at this time is the Eastern District of California.
