11 CONSENT/DECLINATION FORM

12 Plaintiff, who is currently in custody at the California Medical Center, filed with the Court 13 a letter addressed to the Honorable Thelton E. Henderson. The Clerk of the Court construed the 14 letter from Plaintiff as a request to file a pro se prisoner complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

15 On January 15, 2016, the Clerk sent Plaintiff a notice directing him to file a complaint 16 along with an application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) within twenty-eight days. He was 17 warned that the failure to do so within the twenty-eight-day deadline would result in the dismissal
18 of this action without prejudice. To date, Plaintiff has neither filed his complaint nor his IFP 19 application, and the deadline for doing so has passed.

20 On January 21, 2016, this case was assigned to the undersigned Magistrate Judge. Plaintiff
21 was directed to file a completed consent/declination form within fourteen days. The fourteen-day
22 deadline has passed, and Plaintiff has not yet filed his completed consent/declination form.

23 Before the Court is Plaintiff’s request for an extension of time to file his complaint, IFP
24 application, and his consent/declination form. Dkt. 6.

25 Good cause appearing, the request is GRANTED. No later than fourteen (14) days from 26 the date of this Order, Plaintiff shall file a completed consent/declination form. No later than 27 twenty-eight (28) days from the date of this Order, Plaintiff shall file his complaint and a 28 completed IFP application along with his trust account statement and certificate of funds. The failure to do so on or by the twenty-eight-day deadline will result in the dismissal of this action without prejudice.
