6 AMERICAN GENERAL LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY,

7 Plaintiffs,

8 v.

9 ANTONIO BURRELL, et al.,

10 Defendants.

Case No. 16-cv-01375-DMR

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
SANCTIONS SHOULD NOT BE ISSUED
FOR REPEATED FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH COURT ORDERS

Dkt. No. 56

11 On February 15, 2017, the court stayed this interpleader action and ordered Defendants
12 Lesia Habte and Antonio Burrell (collectively “Defendants”) to file a joint status report every 90
13 days. [Docket No. 49]. Because Defendants failed to file their first joint status report, even after
14 being ordered to do so, the court issued an order to show cause why Defendants should not be
15 sanctioned for their failure to comply with court orders. [Docket No. 52].

16 On June 7, 2017, after reviewing Defendants’ late responses to the order to show cause, the 17 court discharged the order to show cause. [Docket No. 56]. However, the court expressly warned
18 Defendants that “further failure to submit timely status reports will result in sanctions.” [Docket
19 No. 56]. The court provided the deadline for the next joint status report, August 14, 2017, and 20 stressed that “[c]ounsel are expected to calendar these dates going forward.” [Docket No. 56].

21 No joint status report was filed by August 14, 2017. This is the second time in a row that 22 Defendants have failed to comply with the court’s orders. Accordingly, Defendants are ordered to
23 respond by August 18, 2017, and show cause why they should not be sanctioned for their repeated
24 failure to follow court orders.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: August 16, 2017
