Case No. 16-cv-03396-YGR

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Re: Dkt. Nos. 109, 145, 173

10
11 THE COURT hereby issues an ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE why defendant should not be
12 sanctioned in the amount of $250 per day dating back to February 15, 2018, for failure to produce
13 VIC call logs bearing the date, time, debtor first name, debtor last name, account number, result of 14 call, and call duration. Defendant shall file a written statement by March 1, 2018.

15 By way of background, on October 18, 2017, Magistrate Judge Corley ordered defendant
16 to produce VIC call log data. (Dkt. No. 109.) On December 19, 2017, this Court ordered
17 “defendant to produce VIC call logs bearing the date, time, debtor first name, debtor last name,
18 account number, result of call, and call duration by Tuesday, December 26, 2017.” (Dkt. No.
19 145.) At the hearing held on January 30, 2018, this Court again ordered defendant to produce
20 usable VIC call logs by February 15, 2018 and stated that “[f]ailure to do so will result in daily
21 damages.” (Dkt. No. 173, Declaration of Yeremey Krivoshey (“Krivoshey Decl.”), Ex. A at 33:2-22 5.) Defendant failed to produce VIC logs until February 21, 2018. Further, plaintiffs contend that 23 the production “is missing account numbers, the results of the calls, and, in some cases, even the 24 phone number called.” (Krivoshey Decl. ¶ 3.)

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: February 28, 2018
