 COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

2 1. The City and County of San Francisco (“San Francisco”) seeks declaratory and 3 injunctive relief against the United States of America and the above-named federal officials for 4 violating the Tenth Amendment, U.S. Const. amend. X. San Francisco further seeks a declaration that 5 it complies with Title 8, Section 1373 of the United States Code (“Section 1373”) under the 6 Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. Sections 2201 and 2202 et seq.

7 2. In blatant disregard of the law, the President of the United States seeks to coerce local 8 authorities into abandoning what are known as “Sanctuary City” laws and policies. To accomplish this 9 objective, on January 25, 2017, the President issued an Executive Order entitled, “Enhancing Public
10 Safety in the Interior of the United States.” Exec. Order No. 13,768, 82 Fed. Reg. 8799 (Jan. 25, 2017)
11 (“Executive Order”). The Executive Order announces that it is the Executive Branch’s policy to 12 withhold federal funds from “sanctuary jurisdictions,” and directs the Attorney General and Secretary
13 of Homeland Security to ensure that sanctuary jurisdictions do not receive Federal grants, and directs
14 the Attorney General to take enforcement action against any local entity that “hinders the enforcement 15 of Federal law.” This strikes at the heart of established principles of federalism and violates the United 16 States Constitution.

17 3. The President and San Francisco agree that San Francisco is a Sanctuary City, but 18 disagree about what that means. San Francisco laws limit when city employees and agencies may 19 assist with the enforcement of federal immigration law. These laws generally prohibit city employees 20 from using city funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of federal immigration law, unless 21 required by federal or state law. They specifically prohibit local law enforcement officers from 22 cooperating with Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) detainer requests, which are 23 voluntary, and limit when local law enforcement officers may give ICE advance notice of a person’s 24 release from local jail.

25 4. Like many other cities, San Francisco is a city of immigrants, many of whom are 26 undocumented, who come here to live, work, and raise families. San Francisco is safer when all
27 people, including undocumented immigrants, feel safe reporting crimes. San Francisco is healthier 28 when all residents, including undocumented immigrants, access public health programs. And San

1 Francisco is economically and socially stronger when all children, including undocumented
2 immigrants, attend school. Using city and county resources for federal immigration enforcement
3 breeds distrust of local government and officials who have no power to change federal laws, and can 4 also wrench apart family and community structures that support residents and thus conserve resources.
5 For these reasons, among others, San Francisco has directed its employees and officers not to assist the 6 Federal government in enforcing federal immigration law, with limited exceptions.

7 5. San Francisco faces the imminent loss of federal funds and impending enforcement
8 action if it does not capitulate to the President's demand that it help enforce federal immigration law.
9 At least one jurisdiction has already succumbed to this presidential fiat.

10 6. The Executive Order relies on Title 8, Section 1373 of the United States Code ("Section 11 1373"), which provides that local governments may not prohibit or restrict any government entity or 12 official from "sending to, or receiving from, [federal immigration officials] information regarding the 13 citizenship or immigration status . . . of any individual." San Francisco seeks declaratory relief that its 14 Sanctuary City laws comply with Section 1373. San Francisco does not prohibit or restrict its 15 employees from sharing information about the citizenship or immigration status of any individual with 16 federal immigration officials.

17 7. The Executive Order is a severe invasion of San Francisco's sovereignty. The 18 Executive Order not only interferes with San Francisco's ability to direct the official actions of its 19 officers and employees but also threatens new consequences for failing to comply with 1373. In this 20 action, San Francisco seeks declaratory relief that Section 1373 is unconstitutional on its face and as 21 applied to state and local Sanctuary City laws such as San Francisco's. The Executive Branch may not 22 commandeer state and local officials to enforce federal law.

23 8. The Constitution establishes a balance of power between the state and Federal 24 governments, as well as among the coordinate branches of Federal government, to prevent the 25 excessive accumulation of power in any single entity and reduce the risk of tyranny and abuse from 26 any government office. In so doing, the Tenth Amendment provides that "[t]he powers not delegated
27 to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States
28

1 respectively, or to the people.” This state sovereignty extends to political subdivisions of the State,
2 including cities and counties such as San Francisco.

3 9. This lawsuit is about state sovereignty and a local government’s autonomy to devote 4 resources to local priorities and to control the exercise of its own police powers, rather than being
5 forced to carry out the agenda of the Federal government. Under the Constitution and established
6 principles of federalism, state and local governments have this autonomy. The Executive Order 7 purports otherwise to wrest this autonomy from state and local governments, and a court order is 8 needed to resolve this controversy.

9 10. San Francisco recognizes that there will be additional developments related to the 10 Executive Order in the weeks and months to come. But the consequences threatened by the Executive
11 Order are too severe for San Francisco to wait. The Executive Order threatens the loss of more than $1
12 billion in federal funds that support vital services, the loss of community trust, and the loss of San 13 Francisco’s sovereign authority to set and follow its own laws on matters appropriately and 14 historically within the control of local government. San Francisco has no choice but to seek the 15 intervention of this Court to ensure that its rights and residents are protected, and that the 16 Administration complies with Federal law and the Constitution.

17 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18 11. The Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 1346. This Court has 19 further remedial authority under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. Sections 2201 and 2202 et 20 seq.

21 12. Venue properly lies within the Northern District of California because Plaintiff, City
22 and County of San Francisco, resides in this judicial district and a substantial part of the events or 23 omissions giving rise to this action occurred in this District. 28 U.S.C. §1391(e).

24 PARTIES

25 13. Plaintiff, City and County of San Francisco (“San Francisco”), is a municipal 26 corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, and is a 27 charter city and county.

1 14. Defendant Donald J. Trump is the President of the United States. He is sued in his 2 official capacity.

3 15. Defendant United States of America is sued under 28 U.S.C. Section 1346.

4 16. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) is a cabinet department of the 5 United States Federal government with the primary mission of securing the United States. Defendant
6 John F. Kelly is the Secretary of DHS. Secretary Kelly is responsible for executing relevant provisions
7 of the Executive Order. Secretary Kelly is sued in his official capacity.

8 17. The Attorney General (“AG”) is a cabinet department of the United States Federal 9 government overseeing the Department of Justice. Defendant Dana J. Boente is the Acting Attorney 10 General. Acting Attorney General Boente is responsible for executing relevant provisions of the 11 Executive Order. Acting Attorney General Dana J. Boente is sued in his official capacity.¹

12 18. Doe 1 through Doe 100 are sued under fictitious names. Plaintiffs do not now know the 13 true names or capacities of said Defendants, who were responsible for the alleged violations alleged,
14 but pray that the same may be alleged in this complaint when ascertained.

15 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16 I. SAN FRANCISCO’S SANCTUARY CITY LAWS

17 19. San Francisco is a Sanctuary City and has been since 1989. In the 1980s, thousands of 18 Central American refugees fled countries in the midst of violent civil wars to seek legal protection in 19 the United States. Against the backdrop of this humanitarian crisis, San Francisco began enacting the 20 ordinances that, as later amended, make up San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws.

21 20. Numerous other municipalities—including New York, D.C., Chicago, Los Angeles,
22 New Orleans, Santa Clara, Minneapolis, and Houston—have also enacted Sanctuary City laws.
23 Although the details of their ordinances differ, all of these jurisdictions have adopted laws or policies
24 that limit using local resources to implement and enforce federal immigration laws.

25 21. Today, San Francisco’s body of Sanctuary City law is contained in two chapters of San 26 Francisco’s Administrative Code: Chapters 12H and 12I.

27 _____
28 ¹ Jeff Sessions has been nominated to serve as Attorney General and will replace Acting Attorney General Dana J. Boente, if confirmed.

1 22. Importantly, these chapters do not protect criminals or prevent people from being
2 prosecuted for illegal acts. Instead, they protect children by ensuring that their parents feel safe taking 3 them to playgrounds, to schools, and to hospitals. They protect families from being split up when 4 parents of children born in the United States are deported. And they protect the safety and health of all
5 residents of San Francisco by helping to ensure that everyone, including undocumented immigrants,
6 feels safe reporting crimes, cooperating with police investigations, and seeking medical treatment.
7 Specifically, Chapters 12H and 12I apply as follows.

8 23. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12H—the full text of which is attached as 9 Exhibit 1—prohibits San Francisco departments, agencies, commissions, officers, and employees from 10 using San Francisco funds or resources to assist in the enforcement of Federal immigration law or to 11 gather or disseminate information regarding the release status, or other confidential identifying 12 information, of an individual unless such assistance is required by Federal or state law.

13 24. San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 12I—the full text of which is attached as 14 Exhibit 2—prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from detaining an individual who is 15 otherwise eligible for release from custody on the basis of a civil immigration detainer request issued 16 by the Federal government.

17 25. Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations provides that such a 18 detainer “serves to advise another law enforcement agency that the Department seeks custody of an 19 alien presently in the custody of that agency, for the purpose of arresting and removing the alien.”
20 Subsection (d) provides that “[u]pon a determination by the Department to issue a detainer for an alien 21 not otherwise detained by a criminal justice agency, such agency shall maintain custody of the alien
22 for a period not to exceed 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays in order to permit
23 assumption of custody by the Department.”

24 26. A detainer request issued under this section is distinct from a criminal warrant, which 25 San Francisco honors consistent with its Sanctuary City laws. A detainer request is not issued by a 26 judge and is not based on a finding of probable cause. It is simply a request by ICE that a state or local 27 law enforcement agency hold individuals after their release date to provide ICE agents extra time to 28 decide whether to take those individuals into federal custody and then deport them.

1 27. Complying with such a detainer request requires committing scarce law enforcement
2 personnel and resources to track and respond to requests, detain individuals in holding cells, and
3 supervise and feed individuals during the prolonged detention. And the Federal government has made
4 clear that the local agency bears the financial burden of the detention, providing that “[n]o detainer
5 issued as a result of a determination made under this chapter . . . shall incur any fiscal obligation on the 6 part of the Department.” 8 C.F.R. 287(e).

7 28. Chapter 12I also prohibits San Francisco law enforcement officials from responding to 8 a federal immigration officer’s request for advance notification of the date and time an individual in 9 San Francisco’s custody is being released, unless the in question meets certain criteria. See Section 10 12I.3(c), (d).

11 29. Finally, as relevant here, Chapter 12I provides that “[l]aw enforcement officials shall 12 not arrest or detain an individual, or provide any individual’s personal information to a federal 13 immigration officer, on the basis of an administrative warrant, prior deportation order, or other civil 14 immigration document based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions of immigration laws.”
15 See Section 12I.3(e). “Personal information” is defined as “any confidential, identifying information 16 about an individual, including, but not limited to, home or work contact information, and family or 17 emergency contact information.” See Section 12I.2.

18 30. The legislative findings set forth in Chapter 12I evidence the legitimate local purpose of 19 San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws. For example, the Legislature declared:

20 Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City
21 employees and City residents is essential to the City’s core mission of ensuring 22 public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the 23 community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as 24 of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure community security, and due process for all. (See Section 12I.2.)

25 31. Chapter 12I makes clear that its purpose and effect are limited to matters “relating to 26 federal civil immigration detainers, notification of release of individuals, transmission of personal 27 information, or civil immigration documents, based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions
28 of immigration laws.” Chapter 12I expressly states that “[i]n all other respects, local law enforcement

1 agencies may continue to collaborate with federal authorities to protect public safety.” See Section 2 12I.4.

3 32. Further underscoring that San Francisco’s Sanctuary City laws arise from San 4 Francisco’s commitment and responsibility to ensure public safety and welfare, the Board of 5 Supervisors, as San Francisco’s legislative body, found that public safety is “founded on trust and 6 cooperation of community residents and local law enforcement.” Section 12I.1. Citing a study by the 7 University of Illinois, which found that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed were less likely to provide 8 information to police because they feared exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of 9 deportation, the Legislature stated that “civil immigration detainers and notifications regarding release
10 undermine community trust of law enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming 11 forward to report crimes and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies.” Id.; see also id. (“The 12 City has enacted numerous laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between 13 communities and local law enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration 14 enforcement undermines community policing strategies.”).

15 33. The Board of Supervisors also had a public health purpose for its decision to restrict 16 disclosure of confidential information: “To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to 17 reliably collect confidential information from all residents Information gathering and cooperation
18 may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration 19 custody.” Id.

20 34. Finally, the Board of Supervisors determined that enforcing immigration detainer
21 requests would require San Francisco to redirect scarce local law enforcement personnel and 22 resources—noting that the costs of “responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but [are]
23 not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to 24 detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil 25 immigration detainer.” Id. In short, the Board of Supervisors concluded that “[c]ompliance with civil 26 immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local 27 resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.” Id.

1 35. San Francisco departments have adopted policies and practices consistent with 2 Chapters 12H and 12I.

3 36. California law incorporates local Sanctuary City laws such as Chapters 12H and 12I.
4 The TRUST Act states that that local law enforcement officials may comply with ICE detainer
5 requests only if (1) the continued detention would not violate any federal, state, or local law, or any 6 local policy, and (2) the defendant's criminal history meets specified conditions. Cal. Gov't Code
7 §§ 7282, 7282.5. Thus, because in San Francisco ICE detentions are prohibited under local law, they 8 are also prohibited under state law.

9 II. SECTION 1373

10 37. Section 1373 provides that "a local government entity or official may not prohibit, or in 11 any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, [federal 12 immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration status . . . of any 13 individual." 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). This restriction exclusively regulates government entities.

14 38. Section 1373 requires San Francisco to allow its employees to use city resources, 15 including San Francisco tax dollars, to respond to requests for information about citizenship and 16 immigration status.

17 39. On May 31, 2016, in response to a request from the Office of the Attorney General, the 18 Office of the Inspector General ("OIG") of the Department of Justice issued a memorandum ("OIG
19 Memo") regarding potential violations of Section 1373 by recipients of funding from the Edward 20 Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant Program ("JAG"). Memorandum from Michael E.
21 Horowitz, Inspector Gen., to Karol V. Mason, Assistant Att'y Gen. for the Office of Justice Programs, 22 "Department of Justice Referral of Allegations of Potential Violations of 8 U.S.C. § 1373 by Grant
23 Recipients" (May 31, 2016), <https://oig.justice.gov/reports/2016/1607.pdf>.²

24 40. In analyzing the local laws and policies of ten selected state and local jurisdictions, the 25 OIG demonstrated how the Federal government interprets Section 1373.

26
27 ² The authorizing legislation for the JAG program requires that all grant applicants certify
28 compliance with the provisions of the authorizing legislation and all other "applicable federal laws."
42 U.S.C. § 3750 et seq. The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs has recently announced that Section 1373 is an "applicable" law under the JAG authorizing legislation.

1 41. For example, though Section 1373 does not expressly address immigration detainers,
2 OIG expressed concern that local laws concerning the handling of detainer requests “may have a
3 broader practical impact on the level of cooperation afforded to ICE by these jurisdictions and may,
4 therefore, be inconsistent with at least the intent of Section 1373.” OIG Memo at 7. It went on to state
5 that local laws and policies that “purport to be focused on civil immigration detainer requests [and say
6 nothing about sharing immigration status with ICE] . . . may nevertheless be affecting ICE’s
7 interactions with the local officials regarding ICE immigration status requests.” Id.

8 42. OIG also stated that such immigration detainer request policies “may be causing local 9 officials to believe and apply the policies in a manner that prohibits or restricts cooperation with ICE
10 in all respects [which], of course, would be inconsistent with and prohibited by Section 1373.” Id.
11 at 8.

12 43. In the OIG Memo, the Federal government also endorses the view that local 13 jurisdictions hinder the enforcement of Federal immigration law if they do not honor detainer requests
14 or if they place any other limitations on cooperation with ICE. See, e.g., id. at 4 (stating that even 15 though Section 1373 does not specifically address restrictions by state or local entities on cooperation
16 with ICE regarding detainers, “[a] primary and frequently cited indicator of limitations placed on 17 cooperation by state and local jurisdictions with ICE is how the particular state or local jurisdiction
18 handles immigration detainer requests issued by ICE”).

19 44. In the OIG Memo, OIG recommended that the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of 20 Justice Programs (“OJP”) provide JAG recipients clear guidance on their obligation to comply with 21 Section 1373 and require them to certify that they comply with that section. See id. at 9.

22 45. In response to these recommendations, in July and October 2016 OJP issued guidance 23 regarding compliance with Section 1373. See Office of Justice Programs, Guidance Regarding 24 Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t Just. (July 7, 2016) (“OJP July Guidance”); Office of 25 Justice Programs, Additional Guidance Regarding Compliance with 8 U.S.C. § 1373, U.S. Dep’t Just.
26 (October 6, 2016) (“OJP October Guidance”).

27 46. In the OJP July Guidance, OJP stated that to comply with Section 1373, “[y]our 28 personnel must be informed that notwithstanding any state or local policies to the contrary, federal law

1 does not allow any government entity or official to prohibit the sending or receiving of information
2 about an individual’s citizenship or immigration status with any federal, state or local government
3 entity and officials.” OJP July Guidance at 1 (emphasis added). Accordingly, OJP reads into the law
4 an affirmative obligation to instruct personnel regarding the substance of Section 1373.

5 47. In the October 2016 Guidance, OIG stated that all JAG applicants must comply with—
6 and certify their compliance with—Section 1373. OJP October Guidance at 1.

7 48. As a subgrantee of a JAG grant, San Francisco is required to certify its compliance with 8 Section 1373.

9 III. SAN FRANCISCO COMPLIES WITH SECTION 1373

10 49. San Francisco complies with Section 1373.

11 50. The plain language of Section 1373 states that “a local government entity or official 12 may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or 13 receiving from, [federal immigration officials] information regarding the citizenship or immigration
14 status . . . of any individual.” 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a). Nothing in San Francisco Administrative Code
15 Chapters 12H or 12I limits communications regarding citizenship or immigration status in any way.

16 51. And, indeed, under ICE’s Secure Communities program (also known as “S-Comm”) 17 whenever an individual is taken into custody, the person is digitally fingerprinted and those 18 fingerprints are sent to the California Department of Justice and ultimately the FBI. The FBI forwards
19 the fingerprints to DHS, which allows ICE to determine the immigration status of everyone in San 20 Francisco custody.

21 52. Under Chapter 12I and the TRUST Act, San Francisco does not enforce detainer
22 requests (see ¶24, supra), and does not respond to notification requests from the Federal government
23 unless certain conditions are met (see ¶28, supra)—but compliance with such requests is not, in fact, 24 required by Section 1373, which speaks only to communications regarding citizenship and 25 immigration status. By contrast, San Francisco does comply with criminal warrants.

26 53. Also, complying with civil immigration detainer requests alone, in the absence of 27 probable cause for the detainer, would violate the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution
28 and could subject San Francisco to civil liability for this harm. See Arizona v. United States, 132 S. Ct.

1 2492, 2509 (2012) (noting that “[d]etaining individuals solely to verify their immigration status would
2 raise constitutional concerns”); Morales v. Chadbourne, 793 F.3d 208, 217 (1st Cir. 2015); see also
3 Melendres v. Arpaio, 695 F.3d 990, 1000-01 (9th Cir. 2012) (applying the Fourth Amendment to 4 immigration arrests).

5 54. San Francisco has affirmatively instructed personnel regarding the substance of Section
6 1373. For example, in a recent memorandum to all San Francisco employees, the San Francisco
7 Human Resources Director explained: “Although federal law states that a ‘local government entity or 8 official may not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government entity or official from sending to, or 9 receiving from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service information regarding the citizenship or 10 immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of any individual’ (8 U.S.C. § 1373), Chapters 12H and 12I
11 impose other types of restrictions, which are consistent with federal law and are summarized below.”

12 IV. THE EXECUTIVE ORDER

13 55. On January 25, 2017, President Donald J. Trump issued the Executive Order attached
14 as Exhibit 3.³

15 56. The Executive Order declares that “Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States 16 willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These 17 jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our 18 Republic.” Executive Order, at 8799.

19 57. To address the purported harm caused by Sanctuary Cities, the Executive Order
20 establishes the policy that “jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive 21 Federal funds, except as mandated by law.” Id.

23
24 ³ On January 27, 2017, President Trump issued a second Executive Order relating to 25 immigration issues entitled, “Protecting The Nation From Foreign Terrorist Entry Into The United 26 States.” The January 27, 2017 Executive Order barred individuals from certain countries from entering 27 the United States. Since its issuance, five courts have issued orders granting temporary relief against 28 the January 27, 2017 Executive Order. See Darweesh v. Trump, United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, Case No. 17 Civ. 480; Tootkaboni v. Trump, United States District Court,
District of Massachusetts, Case No. 17-cv-10154; Aziz v. Trump, United States District Court, Eastern District of Virginia, Case No. 1:17-cv-116; Doe v. Trump, United States District Court, Western District of Washington, Case No. 17-cv-00126; Vayeghan v. Trump, United States District Court, Central District of California, Case No. CV 17-0702.

1 58. Specifically, Section 9(a) of the Executive Order states: “It is the policy of the 2 executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a
3 State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.” Id. at 8801.

4 59. The Executive Order establishes a funding restriction:

5 In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion
6 and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse
7 to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive 8 Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the 9 Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction.

10 Id. (the “Funding Restriction”).

11 60. The Funding Restriction imposes new funding conditions on existing federal funds that 12 go beyond the statutory conditions imposed by Congress.

13 61. Also, the Funding Restriction imposes funding conditions that are not germane to the 14 purpose of the funds insofar as it reaches funds that are unrelated to law enforcement or immigration.

15 62. The Funding Restriction also imposes conditions so severe that they cross the line
16 distinguishing encouragement from coercion. The Funding Restriction threatens a significant percent
17 of San Francisco’s overall budget, including virtually the entire funding stream for critical programs to 18 its residents, such as Medicaid.

19 63. Finally, the Funding Restriction imposes new funding conditions that require 20 jurisdictions to act unconstitutionally insofar as Defendants interpret Section 1373 to require San 21 Francisco to detain individuals who would otherwise be released from custody. Such detentions would 22 violate, inter alia, the Fourth Amendment.

23 64. For all these reasons, the Funding Restriction violates the Tenth Amendment, the 24 Spending Clause, and Article 1, sec. 1 of the United States Constitution.

25 65. The Executive Order also mandates enforcement action:

26 The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that 27 violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

28 Id. (the “Enforcement Directive”).

1 66. The Enforcement Directive commandeers state and local governments by, inter alia,
2 compelling them to enforce federal law under threat of legal action, violating Tenth Amendment to the 3 United States Constitution.

4 V. DEFENDANTS CHARACTERIZE SAN FRANCISCO AS A SANCTUARY CITY
5 THAT WILL LOSE FEDERAL FUNDING

6 67. In the Executive Order, Defendants equate Sanctuary Cities with jurisdictions that fail
7 to comply with Section 1373.

8 68. Defendants characterize San Francisco as a Sanctuary City.

9 69. For example, in a written campaign speech then-candidate Donald J. Trump gave in 10 Phoenix, Arizona on August 31, 2016, he expressly referred to San Francisco as a Sanctuary City. See 11 Donald J. Trump: Address on Immigration, Donald J. Trump for President (Aug. 31, 2016),
12 <https://www.donaldjtrump.com/press-releases/donald-j.-trump-address-on-immigration> (“Another
13 victim is Kate Steinle, gunned down in the Sanctuary City of San Francisco by an illegal immigrant 14 deported five previous times.”).

15 70. Not only have Defendants made clear that they consider San Francisco a Sanctuary
16 City, but they have also repeatedly indicated that Sanctuary Cities, like San Francisco, violate federal 17 law and should have their federal funding revoked.

- 18 • In statements to the Daily Caller on July 7, 2015, Congressman Darrell Issa and 19 Attorney General nominee Senator Jeff Sessions criticized San Francisco and other
20 sanctuary jurisdictions for failing to honor detainers. Attorney General nominee
21 Senator Jeff Sessions stated, “This disregarding of detainers and releasing persons
22 that ICE has put a hold on — it goes against all traditions of law enforcement. Laws 23 and courtesies within departments — if you have somebody charged with a crime in 24 one city, you hold them until you complete your business with them So what 25 was happening was, ICE authorities were filing detainers and sanctuary cities were 26 saying, ‘We’re not gonna honor them. They finished paying for the crime they 27 committed in our city — we’ve released them.’” Kerry Picket, Sen. Sessions: City

22 73. Defendants’ statements establish their view that Sanctuary Cities, like San Francisco,
23 violate Section 1373 and will lose federal funding—apparently all or almost all federal funding—
24 under the Executive Order.

25 VI. SECTION 1373 AND THE EXECUTIVE ORDER HARM SAN FRANCISCO

26 A. Section 1373(a) Impermissibly Intrudes on State Sovereignty

27 74. Section 1373(a) unconstitutionally regulates “States in their sovereign capacity.” Reno, 28 v. Condon, 528 U.S. 141, 151 (2000). It necessarily regulates governments in their capacities as

1 governments. It does not “subject state governments to generally applicable laws.” New York v. U.S.,
2 505 U.S. 144, 160 (1992). On the contrary, in every possible application, it targets “government
3 entit[ies] or official[s]” for special treatment. 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a).

4 75. Congress may not command States to provide the Federal government with information
5 “that only state officials have access to,” Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898, 932 n.17 (1997). The 6 Federal government must not regulate its fellow governments in their capacities as governments.

7 76. Also, Section 1373 targets government entities’ and officials’ authority to control their 8 subordinates—an authority at the heart of a government’s existence as a government. “[A] State can 9 act only through its officers and agents.” Nevada v. Hicks, 533 U.S. 353, 365 (2001). “Through the 10 structure of its government, and the character of those who exercise government authority, a State
11 defines itself as a sovereign.” Gregory v. Ashcroft, 501 U.S. 452, 460 (1991).

12 77. By preventing state and local governments from directing employees how to handle
13 information about citizenship and immigration status, Section 1373 makes it impossible for local 14 jurisdictions freely to choose and clearly to establish how they will handle this information. Under 15 Section 1373, San Francisco cannot legislate or regulate that government officials and employees will 16 never share citizenship or immigration information. Yet Congress has no power “to require the States 17 to govern according to Congress’ instructions.” New York, 505 U.S. at 162 (emphasis added).

18 78. Section 1373 mandates uncertainty where Sanctuary City laws seek to provide 19 certainty. Because of Section 1373, San Francisco cannot tell the public that it will never share
20 information about citizenship or immigration status. Any attempt to impose a uniform rule is fettered
21 by the individual discretion of over 30,000 employees and officials. This is not the way San Francisco
22 chooses to govern. It is chaos imposed by the Federal government.

23 79. To the extent the Executive Order incorporates Section 1373(a), it is invalid for all of 24 the reasons described above.

25 B. Federal Funds Received by San Francisco

26 80. San Francisco receives in excess of $1.2 billion annually in federal funds. This is 27 approximately 13% of San Francisco’s annual budget.

1 81. Only a small percentage of all federal funds received by San Francisco relate to 2 immigration or law enforcement.

3 82. San Francisco receives federal funds for entitlement programs for its residents
4 including Medicaid and Medicare, Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, Supplemental Nutrition
5 Assistance Program, Foster Care, Child Welfare Programs, and Child Support Services.

6 83. San Francisco also receives federal grants for infrastructure and transportation projects,
7 public health programs, workforce development, supportive housing, and veterans' services, among 8 other things.

9 84. Congress has established numerous conditions governing eligibility for these funds. For 10 instance, to receive Medicaid funds, a state must create a state plan that includes assurances to the 11 Federal government that the state will provide specified types of care and that the state regulates health
12 insurance providers to ensure access to medical assistance, among many other requirements. 42 U.S.C.
13 § 1396(a).

14 85. As with entitlement programs, most federal grants are awarded based on statutory 15 eligibility criteria. For example, HUD Community Development Block Grants fund many projects to 16 combat evictions, maintain stable housing occupancy and supply, and incentivize affordable unit
17 construction. These grants require the grantee to prepare a statement of community development 18 objectives and projected use of funds, provide a citizen participation plan, and certify other 19 enumerated criteria. 42 U.S.C. § 5304.

20 86. No federal funds received by San Francisco have statutory conditions specifically 21 requiring compliance with Section 1373.

22 87. San Francisco receives most federal funds as reimbursements. Thus, San Francisco is 23 currently providing services and benefits that the Federal government has agreed to reimburse. The 24 Executive Order calls into question whether the Federal government will in fact reimburse San 25 Francisco for these funds. This presents San Francisco with a Hobson's choice. San Francisco, facing 26 possible reductions, could cut services now, harming the public. Or San Francisco could continue to 27 spend knowing that if cuts come they could come suddenly, outside of the budget process, and the San 28

1 Francisco will have to impose service cuts even more radically at that time, given that funds have 2 already been spent in anticipation of federal reimbursement.

3 C. Budget Impact of the Executive Order

4 88. The Executive Order's threat to cut federal funds impairs San Francisco's internal 5 government operations by hampering its budget process. The threatened loss of federal funds renders 6 San Francisco unable to prepare a balanced budget for the next fiscal year.

7 89. San Francisco has already begun the seven-month process of adopting the annual 8 budget for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2017. On December 13, 2016, the Mayor and the 9 Controller (San Francisco's chief financial officer) issued budget instructions to all San Francisco
10 departments with detailed guidance on the preparation of departments' budget requests. Public 11 hearings have begun to consider departmental budget proposals. Most San Francisco departments must 12 submit their budget requests for the coming fiscal year to the Controller by February 21. The 13 Controller must submit a consolidated budget proposal to the Mayor by March 1, the Mayor must 14 submit budget proposal to the Board of Supervisors by June 1, and the Board must approve a balanced 15 budget by August 1.

16 90. The Executive Order's threat to cut federal funds is manifestly coercive. This is why at 17 least one jurisdiction has already changed its policy about immigration detainers in response to the 18 Executive Order. The day after the Executive Order was issued, Miami-Dade County Mayor Carlos 19 Gimenez instructed the county's interim corrections director to "fully cooperate" with the Federal 20 government and comply with all immigration detainer requests, eliminating a previous federal 21 reimbursement requirement. "It's really not worth the risk of losing millions of dollars to the residents
22 of Miami-Dade County in discretionary money from the feds," said Mayor Gimenez. Ray Sanchez, 23 Trump's Sanctuary Crackdown, CNN Politics (Jan. 27, 2017, 6:34 PM ET),
24 <http://www.cnn.com/2017/01/27/politics/miami-dade-mayor-sanctuary-crackdown/>. There is little 25 doubt that is exactly what the President intends in his promise to end sanctuary cities.

26 D. Community Relations Impact of the Executive Order

27 91. The Executive Order fosters an atmosphere of fear and distrust between undocumented 28 immigrants and local government officials in San Francisco.

1 92. By heightening undocumented immigrants’ concerns that any interaction with San
2 Francisco officials will lead to their information being turned over to ICE, the Executive Order
3 discourages undocumented immigrants from reporting crimes, seeking public health services, and 4 otherwise engaging with San Francisco programs and services. This threat harms public safety, public
5 health, and San Francisco’s ability to act in what San Francisco has determined to be the best interest
6 of its residents, consistent with federal and state law.

7 93. The Executive Order undermines San Francisco’s ability to provide critical services not
8 just to undocumented immigrants, but to all residents. When witnesses and crime victims will not talk
9 to the police, law enforcement suffers and the entire community is less safe. When children are not 10 vaccinated or the sick are not treated for communicable diseases, illness spreads throughout the 11 community. The United States Constitution guarantees states and local governments, such as San 12 Francisco, that they may make those decisions and do not have to carry out the Federal government’s 13 immigration programs.

14 94. San Francisco has been forced to expend its tax dollars educating San Francisco
15 officials and reassuring residents in response to the Executive Order.

16 95. As a result, the Executive Order causes the very harms San Francisco’s Sanctuary City
17 laws were designed to prevent. The Executive Order destroys rather than “foster[s] respect and trust 18 between law enforcement and residents,” wastes rather than “protect[s] limited local resources,” and 19 discourages rather than “encourage[s] cooperation between residents and City officials, including 20 especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees.” San Francisco Administrative 21 Code Ch. 12I.1.

22 CAUSES OF ACTION

23 COUNT ONE

24 DECLARATORY RELIEF – SAN FRANCISCO COMPLIES WITH 8 U.S.C. § 1373

25 96. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as 26 if fully set forth herein.

27 97. San Francisco contends that it complies with Section 1373. San Francisco
28 Administrative Code Chapters 12H and 12I do not prohibit, or in any way restrict, any government

1 entity or official from sending to, or receiving from, the Immigration and Naturalization Service
2 information regarding the citizenship or immigration status, lawful or unlawful, of any individual.

3 98. Defendants contend that San Francisco does not comply with Section 1373.

4 99. An actual controversy presently exists between San Francisco and Defendants about 5 whether San Francisco complies with Section 1373.

6 100. A judicial determination resolving this controversy is necessary and appropriate at this 7 time.

8 COUNT TWO

9 TENTH AMENDMENT – 8 U.S.C. § 1373(a) IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

10 101. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as 11 if fully set forth herein.

12 102. On its face, Section 1373 commandeers state and local governments in violation of the 13 Tenth Amendment to the Constitution by, inter alia, regulating the “States in their sovereign 14 capacity,” Reno, 528 U.S. at 151, limiting state authority to regulate internal affairs and determine the 15 duties and responsibilities of state employees, Gregory, 501 U.S. at 460, and ultimately forcing States 16 to allow their employees to use state time and state resources to assist in the enforcement of federal 17 statutes regulating private individuals, Reno, 528 U.S. at 151, and to provide information that belongs 18 to the State and is available to them only in their official capacity, Printz, 521 U.S. at 932-33 & n.17.

19 103. As applied to invalidate state and local Sanctuary City laws, like San Francisco
20 Administrative Code Chapters 12H and 12I, which were enacted to further legitimate local interests
21 grounded in the basic police powers of local government and related to public health and safety, 22 Section 1373(a) commandeers state and local governments and violates the Tenth Amendment to the 23 United States Constitution.

24 COUNT THREE

25 TENTH AMENDMENT – EXECUTIVE ORDER SECTION 9(A)’S ENFORCEMENT
26 DIRECTIVE IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

27 104. Plaintiffs repeat and incorporate by reference each allegation of the prior paragraphs as 28 if fully set forth herein.

1 9. Grant any other further relief that the Court deems fit and proper.

CHAPTER 12I: CIVIL IMMIGRATION DETAINERS

- Sec. 12I.1. Findings.
- Sec. 12I.2. Definitions.
- Sec. 12I.3. Restrictions on Law Enforcement Officials.
- Sec. 12I.4. Purpose of this Chapter.
- Sec. 12I.5. Semiannual Report.
- Sec. 12I.6. Severability.
- Sec. 12I.7. Undertaking for the General Welfare.

SEC. 12I.1. FINDINGS.

The City and County of San Francisco (the "City") is home to persons of diverse racial, ethnic, and national backgrounds, including a large immigrant population. The City respects, upholds, and values equal protection and equal treatment for all of our residents, regardless of immigration status. Fostering a relationship of trust, respect, and open communication between City employees and City residents is essential to the City's core mission of ensuring public health, safety, and welfare, and serving the needs of everyone in the community, including immigrants. The purpose of this Chapter 12I, as well as of Administrative Code Chapter 12H, is to foster respect and trust between law enforcement and residents, to protect limited local resources, to encourage cooperation between residents and City officials, including especially law enforcement and public health officers and employees, and to ensure community security, and due process for all.

The United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") is responsible for enforcing the civil immigration laws. ICE's programs, including Secure Communities and its replacement, the Priority Enforcement Program ("PEP"), seek to enlist local law enforcement's voluntary cooperation and assistance in its enforcement efforts. In its description of PEP, ICE explains that all requests under PEP are for voluntary action and that any request is not an authorization to detain persons at the expense of the federal government. The federal government should not shift the financial burden of federal civil immigration enforcement, including personnel time and costs relating to notification and detention, onto local law enforcement by requesting that local law enforcement agencies continue detaining persons based on non-mandatory civil immigration detainers or cooperating and assisting with requests to notify ICE that a person will be released from local custody. It is not a wise and effective use of valuable City resources at a time when vital services are being cut.

ICE's Secure Communities program (also known as "S-Comm") shifted the burden of federal civil immigration enforcement onto local law enforcement. S-Comm came into operation after the state sent fingerprints that state and local law enforcement agencies had transmitted to the California Department of Justice ("Cal DOJ") to positively identify the arrestees and to check their criminal history. The FBI would forward the fingerprints to the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") to be checked against immigration and other databases. To give itself time to take a detainee into immigration custody, ICE would send an Immigration Detainer – Notice of Action (DHS Form I-247) to the local law enforcement official requesting that the local law enforcement official hold the individual for up to 48 hours after that individual would otherwise be released ("civil immigration detainers"). Civil Immigration detainers may be issued without evidentiary support or probable cause by border patrol agents, aircraft pilots, special agents, deportation officers, immigration inspectors, and immigration adjudication officers.

Given that civil immigration detainers are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, and the regulation authorizing civil immigration detainers provides no minimum standard of proof for their issuance, there are serious questions as to their constitutionality. Unlike criminal warrants, which must be supported by probable cause and issued by a neutral magistrate, there are no such requirements for the issuance of a civil immigration detainer. Several federal courts have ruled that because civil immigration detainers and other ICE "Notice of Action" documents are issued without probable cause of criminal conduct, they do not meet the Fourth Amendment requirements for state or local law enforcement officials to arrest and hold an individual in custody. (Miranda-Olivares v. Clackamas Co., No. 3:12-cv-02317-ST *17 (D.Or. April 11, 2014) (finding that detention pursuant to an immigration detainer is a seizure that must comport with the Fourth Amendment). See also Morales v. Chadbourne, 996 F. Supp. 2d 19, 29 (D.R.I 2014); Villars v. Kubiowski, No. 12-cv-4586 *10-12 (N.D. Ill. filed May 5, 2014).)

On December 4, 2012, the Attorney General of California, Kamala Harris, clarified the responsibilities of local law enforcement agencies under S-Comm. The Attorney General clarified that S-Comm did not require state or local law enforcement officials to determine an individual's immigration status or to enforce federal immigration laws. The Attorney General also clarified that civil immigration detainers are voluntary requests to local law enforcement agencies that do not mandate compliance. California local law enforcement agencies may determine on their own whether to comply with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers. In a June 25, 2014, bulletin, the Attorney General warned that a federal court outside of California had held a county liable for damages where it voluntarily complied with an ICE request to detain an individual, and the individual was otherwise eligible for release and that local law enforcement agencies may also be held liable for such conduct. Over 350 jurisdictions, including Washington, D.C., Cook County, Illinois, and many of California's 58 counties, have already acknowledged the discretionary nature of civil immigration detainers and are declining to hold people in their jails for the additional 48 hours as requested by ICE. Local law enforcement agencies' responsibilities, duties, and powers are regulated by state law. However, complying with non-mandatory civil immigration detainers frequently raises due process concerns.

According to Section 287.7 of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the City is not reimbursed by the federal government for the costs associated with civil immigration detainers alone. The full cost of responding to a civil immigration detainer can include, but is not limited to, extended detention time, the administrative costs of tracking and responding to detainers, and the legal liability for erroneously holding an individual who is not subject to a civil immigration detainer. Compliance with civil immigration detainers and involvement in civil immigration enforcement diverts limited local resources from programs that are beneficial to the City.

The City seeks to protect public safety, which is founded on trust and cooperation of community residents and local law enforcement. However, civil immigration detainers and notifications regarding release undermine community trust of law enforcement by instilling fear in immigrant communities of coming forward to report crimes and cooperate with local law enforcement agencies. A 2013 study by the University of Illinois, entitled "Insecure Communities: Latino Perceptions of Police Involvement in Immigration Enforcement," found that at least 40% of Latinos surveyed are less likely to provide information to police because they fear exposing themselves, family, or friends to a risk of deportation. Indeed, civil immigration detainers have resulted in the transfer of victims of crime, including domestic violence victims, to ICE.

The City has enacted numerous laws and policies to strengthen communities and to build trust between communities and local law enforcement. Local cooperation and assistance with civil immigration enforcement undermines community policing strategies.

In 2014, DHS ended the Secure Communities program and replaced it with PEP. PEP and S-Comm share many similarities. Just as with S-Comm, PEP uses state and federal databases to check an individual's fingerprints against immigration and other databases. PEP employs a number of tactics to facilitate transfers of individuals from local jails to immigration custody.

First, PEP uses a new form (known as DHS Form I-247N), which requests notification from local jails about an individual's release date prior to his or her release from local custody. As with civil immigration detainers, these notification requests are issued by immigration officers without judicial oversight, thus raising questions about local law enforcement's liability for constitutional violations if any person is overdetained when immigration agents are unable to be present at the time of the person's release from local custody.

Second, under PEP, ICE will continue to issue civil immigration detainer requests where local law enforcement officials are willing to respond to the requests, and in instances of "special circumstances," a term that has yet to be defined by DHS. Despite federal courts finding civil immigration detainers do not meet Fourth Amendment requirements, local jurisdictions are often unable to confirm whether or not a detention request is supported by probable cause or has been reviewed by a neutral magistrate.

The increase in information-sharing between local law enforcement and immigration officials raises serious concerns about privacy rights. Across the country, including in the California Central Valley, there has been an increase of ICE agents stationed in jails, who often have unrestricted access to jail databases, booking logs, and other documents that contain personal information of all jail inmates.

The City has an interest in ensuring that confidential information collected in the course of carrying out its municipal functions, including but not limited to public health programs and criminal investigations, is not used for unintended purposes that could hamper collection of information vital to those functions. To carry out public health programs, the City must be able to reliably collect confidential information from all residents. To solve crimes and protect the public, local law enforcement depends on the cooperation of all City residents. Information gathering and cooperation may be jeopardized if release of personal information results in a person being taken into immigration custody.

In late 2015, Pedro Figueroa, an immigrant father of an 8-year-old U.S. citizen, sought the San Francisco Police Department's help in locating his stolen vehicle. When Mr. Figueroa went to the police station to retrieve his car, which police had located, he was detained for some time by police officers before being released, and an ICE agent was waiting to take him into immigration custody immediately as he left the police station. It was later reported that both the Police Department and the San Francisco Sheriff's Department had contact with ICE officials while Mr. Figueroa was at the police station. He spent over two months in an immigration detention facility and remains in deportation proceedings. Mr. Figueroa's case has raised major concerns about local law enforcement's relationship with immigration authorities, and has weakened the immigrant community's confidence in policing practices. Community cooperation with local law enforcement is critical to investigating and prosecuting crimes. Without the cooperation of crime victims – like Mr. Figueroa – and witnesses, local law enforcement's ability to investigate and prosecute crime, particularly in communities with large immigrant populations, will be seriously compromised.

SEC. 12I.3. RESTRICTIONS ON LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a law enforcement official shall not detain an individual on the basis of a civil immigration detainer after that individual becomes eligible for release from custody.

(b) Law enforcement officials may continue to detain an individual in response to a civil immigration detainer for up to 48 hours after that individual becomes eligible for release if the continued detention is consistent with state and federal law, and the individual meets both of the following criteria:

(1) The individual has been Convicted of a Violent Felony in the seven years immediately prior to the date of the civil immigration detainer; and

(2) A magistrate has determined that there is probable cause to believe the individual is guilty of a Violent Felony and has ordered the individual to answer to the same pursuant to Penal Code Section 872.

In determining whether to continue to detain an individual based solely on a civil immigration detainer as permitted in this subsection (b), law enforcement officials shall consider evidence of the individual's rehabilitation and evaluate whether the individual poses a public safety risk. Evidence of rehabilitation or other mitigating factors to consider includes, but is not limited to: the individual's ties to the community, whether the individual has been a victim of any crime, the individual's contribution to the community, and the individual's participation in social service or rehabilitation programs.

This subsection (b) shall expire by operation of law on October 1, 2016, or upon a resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors that finds for purposes of this Chapter, the federal government has enacted comprehensive immigration reform that diminishes the need for this subsection (b), whichever comes first.

Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to apply to matters other than those relating to federal civil immigration detainers, notification of release of individuals, transmission of personal information, or civil immigration documents, based solely on alleged violations of the civil provisions of immigration laws. EXHIBIT 3

Presidential Documents

Executive Order 13768 of January 25, 2017

Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (8 U.S.C. 1101 et seq.), and in order to ensure the public safety of the American people in communities across the United States as well as to ensure that our Nation's immigration laws are faithfully executed, I hereby declare the policy of the executive branch to be, and order, as follows:

Section 1. Purpose. Interior enforcement of our Nation's immigration laws is critically important to the national security and public safety of the United States. Many aliens who illegally enter the United States and those who overstay or otherwise violate the terms of their visas present a significant threat to national security and public safety. This is particularly so for aliens who engage in criminal conduct in the United States.

Sanctuary jurisdictions across the United States willfully violate Federal law in an attempt to shield aliens from removal from the United States. These jurisdictions have caused immeasurable harm to the American people and to the very fabric of our Republic.

Tens of thousands of removable aliens have been released into communities across the country, solely because their home countries refuse to accept their repatriation. Many of these aliens are criminals who have served time in our Federal, State, and local jails. The presence of such individuals in the United States, and the practices of foreign nations that refuse the repatriation of their nationals, are contrary to the national interest.

Although Federal immigration law provides a framework for Federal-State partnerships in enforcing our immigration laws to ensure the removal of aliens who have no right to be in the United States, the Federal Government has failed to discharge this basic sovereign responsibility. We cannot faithfully execute the immigration laws of the United States if we exempt classes or categories of removable aliens from potential enforcement. The purpose of this order is to direct executive departments and agencies (agencies) to employ all lawful means to enforce the immigration laws of the United States.

Sec. 2. Policy. It is the policy of the executive branch to:

(a) Ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States, including the INA, against all removable aliens, consistent with Article II, Section 3 of the United States Constitution and section 3331 of title 5, United States Code;

(b) Make use of all available systems and resources to ensure the efficient and faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States;

(c) Ensure that jurisdictions that fail to comply with applicable Federal law do not receive Federal funds, except as mandated by law;

(d) Ensure that aliens ordered removed from the United States are promptly removed; and

(e) Support victims, and the families of victims, of crimes committed by removable aliens.

Sec. 3. Definitions. The terms of this order, where applicable, shall have the meaning provided by section 1101 of title 8, United States Code.

Sec. 4. Enforcement of the Immigration Laws in the Interior of the United States. In furtherance of the policy described in section 2 of this order, I hereby direct agencies to employ all lawful means to ensure the faithful execution of the immigration laws of the United States against all removable aliens.

Sec. 5. Enforcement Priorities. In executing faithfully the immigration laws of the United States, the Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) shall prioritize for removal those aliens described by the Congress in sections 212(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 235, and 237(a)(2) and (4) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2), (a)(3), and (a)(6)(C), 1225, and 1227(a)(2) and (4)), as well as removable aliens who:

- (a) Have been convicted of any criminal offense;
- (b) Have been charged with any criminal offense, where such charge has not been resolved;
- (c) Have committed acts that constitute a chargeable criminal offense;
- (d) Have engaged in fraud or willful misrepresentation in connection with any official matter or application before a governmental agency;
- (e) Have abused any program related to receipt of public benefits;
- (f) Are subject to a final order of removal, but who have not complied with their legal obligation to depart the United States; or
- (g) In the judgment of an immigration officer, otherwise pose a risk to public safety or national security.

Sec. 6. Civil Fines and Penalties. As soon as practicable, and by no later than one year after the date of this order, the Secretary shall issue guidance and promulgate regulations, where required by law, to ensure the assessment and collection of all fines and penalties that the Secretary is authorized under the law to assess and collect from aliens unlawfully present in the United States and from those who facilitate their presence in the United States.

Sec. 7. Additional Enforcement and Removal Officers. The Secretary, through the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, shall, to the extent permitted by law and subject to the availability of appropriations, take all appropriate action to hire 10,000 additional immigration officers, who shall complete relevant training and be authorized to perform the law enforcement functions described in section 287 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357).

Sec. 8. Federal-State Agreements. It is the policy of the executive branch to empower State and local law enforcement agencies across the country to perform the functions of an immigration officer in the interior of the United States to the maximum extent permitted by law.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Secretary shall immediately take appropriate action to engage with the Governors of the States, as well as local officials, for the purpose of preparing to enter into agreements under section 287(g) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1357(g)).

(b) To the extent permitted by law and with the consent of State or local officials, as appropriate, the Secretary shall take appropriate action, through agreements under section 287(g) of the INA, or otherwise, to authorize State and local law enforcement officials, as the Secretary determines are qualified and appropriate, to perform the functions of immigration officers in relation to the investigation, apprehension, or detention of aliens in the United States under the direction and the supervision of the Secretary. Such authorization shall be in addition to, rather than in place of, Federal performance of these duties.

(c) To the extent permitted by law, the Secretary may structure each agreement under section 287(g) of the INA in a manner that provides the most effective model for enforcing Federal immigration laws for that jurisdiction.

Sec. 9. Sanctuary Jurisdictions. It is the policy of the executive branch to ensure, to the fullest extent of the law, that a State, or a political subdivision of a State, shall comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373.

(a) In furtherance of this policy, the Attorney General and the Secretary, in their discretion and to the extent consistent with law, shall ensure that jurisdictions that willfully refuse to comply with 8 U.S.C. 1373 (sanctuary jurisdictions) are not eligible to receive Federal grants, except as deemed necessary for law enforcement purposes by the Attorney General or the Secretary. The Secretary has the authority to designate, in his discretion and to the extent consistent with law, a jurisdiction as a sanctuary jurisdiction. The Attorney General shall take appropriate enforcement action against any entity that violates 8 U.S.C. 1373, or which has in effect a statute, policy, or practice that prevents or hinders the enforcement of Federal law.

(b) To better inform the public regarding the public safety threats associated with sanctuary jurisdictions, the Secretary shall utilize the Declined Detainer Outcome Report or its equivalent and, on a weekly basis, make public a comprehensive list of criminal actions committed by aliens and any jurisdiction that ignored or otherwise failed to honor any detainers with respect to such aliens.

(c) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget is directed to obtain and provide relevant and responsive information on all Federal grant money that currently is received by any sanctuary jurisdiction.

Sec. 10. Review of Previous Immigration Actions and Policies. (a) The Secretary shall immediately take all appropriate action to terminate the Priority Enforcement Program (PEP) described in the memorandum issued by the Secretary on November 20, 2014, and to reinstitute the immigration program known as “Secure Communities” referenced in that memorandum.

(b) The Secretary shall review agency regulations, policies, and procedures for consistency with this order and, if required, publish for notice and comment proposed regulations rescinding or revising any regulations inconsistent with this order and shall consider whether to withdraw or modify any inconsistent policies and procedures, as appropriate and consistent with the law.

(c) To protect our communities and better facilitate the identification, detention, and removal of criminal aliens within constitutional and statutory parameters, the Secretary shall consolidate and revise any applicable forms to more effectively communicate with recipient law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 11. Department of Justice Prosecutions of Immigration Violators. The Attorney General and the Secretary shall work together to develop and implement a program that ensures that adequate resources are devoted to the prosecution of criminal immigration offenses in the United States, and to develop cooperative strategies to reduce violent crime and the reach of transnational criminal organizations into the United States.

Sec. 12. Recalcitrant Countries. The Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State shall cooperate to effectively implement the sanctions provided by section 243(d) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1253(d)), as appropriate. The Secretary of State shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, ensure that diplomatic efforts and negotiations with foreign states include as a condition precedent the acceptance by those foreign states of their nationals who are subject to removal from the United States.

Sec. 13. Office for Victims of Crimes Committed by Removable Aliens. The Secretary shall direct the Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to take all appropriate and lawful action to establish within U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement an office to provide proactive, timely, adequate, and professional services to victims of crimes committed by removable aliens and the family members of such victims. This office shall provide quarterly reports studying the effects of the victimization by criminal aliens present in the United States.

Sec. 14. Privacy Act. Agencies shall, to the extent consistent with applicable law, ensure that their privacy policies exclude persons who are not United States citizens or lawful permanent residents from the protections of the Privacy Act regarding personally identifiable information.

Sec. 15. Reporting. Except as otherwise provided in this order, the Secretary and the Attorney General shall each submit to the President a report on the progress of the directives contained in this order within 90 days of the date of this order and again within 180 days of the date of this order.

Sec. 16. Transparency. To promote the transparency and situational awareness of criminal aliens in the United States, the Secretary and the Attorney General are hereby directed to collect relevant data and provide quarterly reports on the following:

(a) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated under the supervision of the Federal Bureau of Prisons;

(b) the immigration status of all aliens incarcerated as Federal pretrial detainees under the supervision of the United States Marshals Service; and

(c) the immigration status of all convicted aliens incarcerated in State prisons and local detention centers throughout the United States.

Sec. 17. Personnel Actions. The Office of Personnel Management shall take appropriate and lawful action to facilitate hiring personnel to implement this order.

Sec. 18. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect:

(i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or

(ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals.

(b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations.

(c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person.
