Case No. 4:18-cv-00584-HSG
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

26 INTRODUCTION

27 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve 28 production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special

1 protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 2 prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby 3 stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective 4 Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections 5 on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from 6 public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are 7 entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties 8 further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated 9 Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; 10 Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the 11 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file 12 material under seal.

13 PROTECTIVE ORDER

14 Based upon the foregoing and based upon the stipulation of the Parties, and 15 good cause appearing, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

16 1. Any Party may designate items of discovery or other information 17 produced or disclosed to any other Party as confidential and subject to the terms of 18 this protective order, so long as any such designation is made in good faith. Items, 19 including documents, tangible things or information, may be designated as 20 confidential if a Party believes in good faith the information contains trade secrets, 21 personal information, competitively sensitive information, proprietary or otherwise 22 confidential information that may be the subject of a protective order under Rule 23 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. All documents designated as 24 confidential under this Order shall be marked prior to production by placing the 25 legend “CONFIDENTIAL” on each page of the document. Except as otherwise 26 adjudicated by the Court, all items so marked, and all copies, prints, summaries, or 27 other reproductions of such information, shall be subject to this Order.

28 2. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or through prior written

1 agreement of the Parties, and subject to the limitations of Paragraph 1 above, 2 information and documents subject to this Order shall not be used or shown, 3 disseminated, copied, or in any way communicated to anyone for any purpose 4 whatsoever, other than as required for the litigation of this action, including any 5 appeals. Any copies, excerpts, summaries, analyses, or other disclosures of, or 6 references to, the substance or contents of any information designated as 7 confidential shall be protected to the same extent as the underlying information.
8 Except as provided for below and in the paragraphs that follow, the Parties shall 9 keep all confidential information and documents strictly confidential from all 10 persons. The information and documents subject to this Order may be disclosed 11 only to:

- 12 (a) The actual named Parties, in the case of individual (non-corporate) 13 Parties in this action;
- 14 (b) In the case of corporate Parties in this action, officers, directors, 15 insurers, in-house counsel and current and former employees of such 16 corporations deemed reasonably necessary by counsel for the 17 prosecution, defense, trial or appeal of this action, including 18 employees and former employees of such Parties who testify as 19 pretrial or trial witnesses in connection with this action;
- 20 (c) Counsel (and their staff) who represent the Parties in this action;
- 21 (d) Experts or consultants retained by counsel, whether or not they are 22 expected to testify;
- 23 (e) The Court and court personnel for any purpose the Court finds 24 necessary;
- 25 (f) Jurors and court personnel at trial of this case; and
- 26 (g) Stenographic and/or videographic personnel hired to record testimony.

27 3. Disclosures shall be made to such persons identified in Paragraph 2, 28 and such persons may review such disclosures, only as necessary for purposes of 1 litigating this action. The persons identified in Paragraph 2 shall not otherwise 2 disseminate the information and documents subject to this Order, or the substance 3 of such information or documents.

4 4. Counsel (and counsel's staff) for the receiving Parties will abide by, 5 and be bound by, the provisions of this Protective Order, and will use due care to 6 ensure that the provisions of the Protective Order are known and adhered to by 7 clients, all persons under counsel's supervision and/or control and any person, firm 8 or corporation who has been retained by counsel to act on the receiving Party's 9 behalf in connection with this litigation.

10 5. With respect to deposition testimony and any document marked as an 11 exhibit thereto, the designation of confidentiality may be made on the record at the 12 time of the deposition, and the designated testimony shall be subject to the full 13 protection of this Order, unless challenged in accordance with the procedures of 14 Paragraph 14. In the case of testimony not so designated during the course of a 15 deposition, counsel may so designate confidential testimony, within thirty (30) 16 days of the deposition testimony and/or exhibits which contain confidential 17 material, in which case the designated testimony and/or exhibits shall be subject to 18 the full protections of this Order. Until the thirty (30) day period for notification 19 has elapsed, deposition transcripts in their entirety and all exhibits are to be 20 considered as confidential and proprietary and subject to the provisions of this 21 Protective Order. If, prior to and/or during the course of a deposition, a witness 22 refuses to be bound by the terms of the Protective Order, the deposition shall be 23 adjourned until application can be made to the Court regarding the deposition.

24 6. Each person given access to documents and information subject to this 25 Order, except those persons identified in paragraph 2(c), (e), and (f) above, must 26 acknowledge this Order and agree, in writing, to be bound by all its terms and 27 conditions. This requirement must be satisfied by obtaining the signature of the 28 person or persons on a copy of the Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order,

1 attached as Exhibit “A” hereto. By agreeing to be bound by this Order, each 2 person consents to the jurisdiction of this Court over his or her person for any 3 proceedings involving alleged improper disclosure of documents or information 4 protected by this Order. Each Party shall maintain the original signed written 5 agreements and a verified list of all experts, consultants or persons to whom the 6 information and documents or copies thereof were revealed. The list of signatories 7 shall not be revealed to any other person or persons except through court order, 8 which shall only be granted upon a showing of good cause. The Party that appears 9 to have improperly disseminated the protected document or information shall be 10 required to produce its list of signatories to the Agreement to Be Bound by 11 Protective Confidentiality Order to the Party having claimed confidentiality.

12 7. If a Party intends to submit to the Court a document marked as 13 confidential either before or during trial, that Party or any other Party may request 14 that such document be placed under seal. If the Parties agree, such request shall be 15 presented to the Court as a stipulated motion. Otherwise, the request shall be 16 presented to the Court as a contested motion. Compelling reasons must be shown 17 for the under seal filing. The purpose of this provision is to avoid placing 18 documents under seal unnecessarily.

19 8. Neither this Order nor the designation of any item as confidential shall 20 be construed as an admission that such document, information or testimony would 21 be admissible in evidence in this litigation or in any other proceeding. In addition, 22 this Protective Order does not, of itself, require the production of any information 23 or documents; nor does the existence of this Order constitute an admission or 24 finding that any material marked as confidential is entitled to protection under 25 applicable law.

26 9. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed a waiver of any Party’s right to:
27 (a) oppose discovery on grounds other than that the same constitutes or contains 28 confidential information, or (b) object on any ground to the admission in evidence,

1 at the trial of this action, of any confidential information.

2 10. If any Party wishes to petition the Court to modify this Order or its 3 application to certain documents or information, the Party shall follow all 4 applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules in petitioning the 5 Court for relief.

6 11. All Parties, within sixty (60) days of the final conclusion of all aspects 7 of this litigation, or a dismissed Party within thirty (30) days of that Party's 8 dismissal with prejudice prior to the final conclusion of all aspects of this 9 litigation, shall:

10 (a) Provide to the Party's counsel that originally produced confidential 11 information a copy of all Agreements executed pursuant to paragraph 6, 12 above; and

13 (b) Retrieve all such confidential information, including all copies thereof 14 and all documents identifying such confidential information, in that 15 party's possession, custody or control, or in the possession, custody or 16 control of all such persons to whom the confidential information was 17 disseminated pursuant to paragraph 6, and either: 1) return all such 18 confidential information to the Party's counsel that originally produced 19 the confidential information (redacting any work product of the receiving 20 counsel) at the producing counsel's business office or any subsequent 21 address designated by that counsel, or 2) completely destroy all such 22 confidential information; and

23 (c) Upon written request, provide a declaration under the penalty of perjury 24 stating that a good faith effort was made to retrieve all such confidential 25 information received and/or disseminated, and that all such confidential 26 information has been either returned or destroyed as indicated in 27 subparagraph (a) and (b) above.

28 12. Up and until the commencement of trial, but not thereafter, the 1 provisions of this Order relating to the confidentiality of protected documents and 2 information shall remain in full force and effect and continue to be binding, except 3 with respect to documents or information that are publicly available. This Court 4 retains jurisdiction over all persons provided access to confidential materials or 5 information for enforcement of the provisions of this Order up and until trial is 6 commenced, but not thereafter.

7 13. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to preclude any Party from 8 seeking or obtaining, on the appropriate showing, additional protection with 9 respect to the confidentiality of documents or information. Nor shall any provision 10 of this Order be deemed to preclude any Party from challenging the validity of the 11 confidentiality of any materials or information so designated.

12 14. If a Party elects to challenge the designation of confidentiality 13 (“Challenging Party”) of any document, information or testimony, the Challenging 14 Party shall notify the Party who designated the challenged document (“Designating 15 Party”) as confidential of its challenge, in writing. Once the challenge is raised, 16 the Parties shall promptly confer and make reasonable and good faith efforts to 17 resolve the disagreement without intervention by the Court. If they are unable to 18 resolve their differences in good faith within ten (10) days of receipt of the 19 challenge, the Challenging Party shall request a ruling from the Court with respect 20 to the confidential treatment of the information at issue within thirty (30) days of 21 completion of the meet and confer efforts. The Designating Party shall have the 22 burden to prove that the challenged document, information or testimony is entitled 23 to protection under applicable law. Until such time as the Parties’ contentions 24 regarding the confidentiality of documents, information or testimony are fully and 25 finally adjudicated, all documents, testimony or other materials designated by 26 defendants as confidential shall retain their confidential status. Nothing in this 27 agreement shall be deemed to alter, modify or reduce the burden on any party 28 asserting a privilege to make out all elements of the privilege claimed.

1           15. It is recognized by the Parties to this Protective Order that documents 2 or testimony may be designated inadvertently or erroneously as confidential, or 3 that such a designation inadvertently or erroneously may be omitted with respect to 4 documents or information that are entitled to such protection. Any Party to this 5 Protective Order may correct its designation or lack thereof within a reasonable 6 time and shall, at its own expense, furnish to all counsel copies of the documents 7 for which there is a change in designation.

8           16. It is recognized by the Parties that documents or testimony stamped as 9 confidential may be inadvertently disclosed to third parties by a receiving Party.
10 Any receiving Party may correct this inadvertent disclosure without sanction by 11 immediately bringing it to the attention of the producing Party by letter to the 12 producing Party's counsel in which the third Party is identified by name and 13 address. The receiving Party shall further provide an affidavit of counsel 14 confirming that to the best of his or her knowledge the documents and any copies 15 thereof were recovered from the third party.

16           17. All documents or information produced by the Parties prior to the 17 entry of this Protective Order by the Court shall be subject to the provisions of this 18 Protective Order to the same extent as if such Protective Order had been entered by 19 the Court as of the date such documents or information were produced. Producing 20 Parties shall have thirty (30) days from the date of entry of this Order to designate 21 already-produced materials as confidential. However, documents or information 22 obtained through means other than discovery in this action shall not be subject to 23 this Protective Order.

24           18. In the event that any person identified in paragraph 2 above who has 25 been provided access to confidential information produced in this action ("Person 26 Served"): (a) is served with a subpoena in another action, or (b) is served with a 27 demand in another action to which he or she is a party, or (c) is served with any 28 other legal process by one not a Party to this litigation, seeking information that

1 has been produced in this action by another Party and which is subject to this 2 Protective Order, the Person Served shall give prompt written notice of such event 3 to counsel of record for the Party that produced the information. Upon receipt of 4 written notice, the Party which produced the information shall advise the Person 5 Served of that Party's position with respect to the protected information.
6 Thereafter, the Party which produced the information shall assume responsibility 7 for prosecuting any objection to the discovery requests, subpoena or demand, and 8 the Person Served shall cooperate to the extent necessary to preserve the 9 confidentiality of the information. Should the person seeking access to 10 information take action to enforce such discovery requests, subpoena, demand, or 11 other legal process, the Person Served shall set forth in his response the existence 12 of this Stipulated Protective Order. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring 13 the receiving Party to challenge or appeal any order requiring production of the 14 information.

15           19. This Order shall not prejudice the Parties' rights or arguments 16 regarding whether documents or information used at trial do or do not remain 17 confidential. Such issues will be taken up as a separate matter upon motion of any 18 Party.

19           20. It is understood by the Parties that this Stipulated Protective Order 20 may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an 21 original.

AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND BY PROTECTIVE ORDER

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that I will be receiving documents that have been designated confidential and subject to the terms of the Stipulated Protective Order entered in the above-captioned case. I understand that such confidential material is to be provided to me pursuant to the terms and restrictions of the aforementioned Protective Order and acknowledge that I have been given a copy of and have read that Protective Order. I understand that any use by me of documents or information designated confidential under the Stipulated Protective Order, or any portion or summaries thereof, in any manner contrary to the provisions of the Stipulated Protective Order, will subject me to the sanctions of the Court. I hereby agree to be bound by all of its terms.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.
