

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DOLBY LABORATORIES LICENSING
CORPORATION, ET. AL.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ADOBE INC.,

Defendant.

Case No.: 18-CV-01553-YGR

PRETRIAL ORDER NO. 2 RE COMPLIANCE WITH STANDING ORDERS

11 The Court is in receipt of two binders from plaintiff with its Motions in Limine and its 12 Pretrial Conference Statement. The delivery of the motions in limine is premature. The Court's 13 Standing Order re Pretrial Instructions in Civil Cases requires as follows:

14 Chambers copies shall be provided in a separate binder entitled MOTIONS IN LIMINE and 15 collated with the opposition papers following the motion papers. Said binder shall be 16 delivered no later than noon, seven (7) days prior to the Pretrial Conference. The binder
17 shall include copies of the motions and oppositions with the ECF header reflecting the 18 item's docket number and filing date.

(Paragraph 4; italics supplied.) Further, Dolby has not provided a proposed form of order. (Id.)

19 Counsel for all parties are reminded to read and follow this Court's standing orders, both for 20 civil cases and for civil trials. Dolby may retrieve the binder from the Clerk's Office and return it
21 once complete. Also, as noted in the Standing Order in Civil Cases:

22 For documents submitted in connection with administrative motions to seal, parties shall
23 provide chambers copies of the unredacted documents with proposed redacted material
24 highlighted, as required Civil Local Rule 79-5(d)(1)(D), only. Do not submit chambers copies of the redacted versions of documents sought to be sealed.

(Paragraph 11.)

IT IS SO ORDERED.

December 10, 2019

25
26
27
28

YVONNE GONZALEZ ROGERS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

United States District Court
Northern District of California