

1 the extent that such transfer has not occurred already.¹ However, the Court does not perceive the
2 need to extend the receivership with respect to Alco for any significant length of time.
3 Accordingly, the Court will extend the receivership through May 31, 2011 with respect to both
4 Alco and San Jerardo, and thereafter will extend the receivership through September 30, 2011
5 with respect to San Jerardo only. It is the Court's understanding that because the County
6 effectively has taken over operation of the San Jerardo system, Alco no longer is responsible for 7 payment of receivership expenses. However, if the Receiver claims that Alco is obligated to pay
8 any expenses incurred to date, the Receiver shall submit a request for payment on or before May 9 13, 2011.

10 ORDER

- 11 (1) The receivership is HEREBY EXTENDED through May 31, 2011 with respect to 12 Alco and San Jerardo;
- 13 (2) Thereafter, the receivership is HEREBY EXTENDED through September 30, 14 2011 with respect to San Jerardo only;
- 15 (3) If the Receiver claims that Alco is responsible for any unpaid receivership
16 expenses to date, the Receiver shall submit a request for payment on or before
17 May 13, 2011.
