

ECF No. 506. However, the Receivership established by the Court in June 2002 was extended on 21 multiple occasions for the purpose of completing transfer of water systems and resolving 22 administrative matters. See, e.g., ECF No. 988. On July 1, 2013, the Court issued an order 23 approving a stipulation of the parties that resolved all remaining issues in the case. ECF No. 992. 24 On July 16, 2013, the Receiver notified the Court that he had disbursed the funds remaining in the 25 Receivership as stipulated by the parties. ECF No. 993. The County of Monterey subsequently 26 informed chambers via email that it had not received the check for $36,450 that the Receiver had 27 mailed to it. The County requested that the Court delay issuing a final order pending the County's 28 actual receipt of the expected funds. On August 8, 2013, the County informed the Court that a

Dockets.Justia.com

1	replacement check had been received and deposited into the County's general fund account.
2	Accordingly, the Receiver is hereby discharged and all proceedings in this case are hereby
3	terminated.
4	IT IS SO ORDERED.
5
6	DATED: August 12, 2013
7	United States I istrict Judge
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
	2