court time it is in the best interests of all that petitioner be allowed to listen to these tapes prior to the hearing.

Petitioner has advised that he previously had such an appliance which was stolen from his cell. Petitioner and counsel submit they have been advised that inmates are not currently allowed such new appliances. Counsel is further advised that since petitioner previously had such an appliance he will be permitted to replace this appliance with an approved prison appliance from an approved institutional source; however a court order is required.

Based on the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by counsel for both parties that good cause exists and a court order should issue to the Warden and Correctional Officers at Corcoran State Prison permitting petitioner Johnny Cordova, K-16714, 3C01-118, Corcoran State Prison, P.O. Box 3471, Corcoran, California, to have an approved prison audio cassette appliance in his cell. It is further stipulated that petitioner shall be permitted to review 34 audio cassette tapes labeled with the name Cordova from the Office of the District, County of Santa Clara and submitted to petitioner through his attorney under appropriate institutional procedures and regulations.
