Re: Google Inc. v. American Blind & Wallpaper Factory, Inc.

Dear David:

I write regarding the depositions of current and former American Blind employees. Although this case has been pending for two and half years and fact discovery closes in less than four weeks, Google has not yet been able to take any depositions.

My May 19 letter to you enclosed deposition notices for Bill Smith, Jeff Alderman and Scot Powers. That letter requested that you notify me if the noticed dates are not convenient. Because I have not received a response from you, I assume that the dates are acceptable. My May 19 letter also enclosed a deposition subpoena for Joe Charno and inquired whether you would accept service of this subpoena. Because I have not heard from you, I assume that you will not accept service. Starting tomorrow, we will attempt to serve Mr. Charno.

With this letter, I enclose a deposition subpoena for Steve Katzman. Please advise me by 2 p.m PST tomorrow whether you will accept service of this subpoena. If I do not hear from you, we will attempt to serve Mr. Katzman.

Finally, please notify us who will serve as American Blind's designee for the 30(b)(6) notice that Google served on February 15 and provide us with dates for when he or she will be available for deposition.

Please feel free to contact me about any of the issues raised in this letter.

Very truly yours,

Klaus H. Hamm
