Google Inc. v. American Blind & Wallpaper Factory, Inc.

The parties, by counsel, hereby stipulate to the entry of the following Protective Order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and Federal Rule of Evidence 501:

3

Designated Material

"Designated Material" means any document or other information, including magnetic 4 media, electronic media and any material derived from such media, provided during discovery in 5 this action which is believed in good faith to contain or reflect confidential, proprietary or other 6 $\overline{7}$ sensitive matter by the person or entity producing or filing it (the "Designating Party"). Such material may be designated as either "CONFIDENTIAL" or, in limited circumstances, as 8 "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" by the Designating Party in accordance 9 with the procedures set forth below. Such designations are intended to avoid invasions of 10 individual privacy and to protect proprietary information, confidential business or financial 11 12 information, and/or trade secrets relating to the Designating Party's business, personal, or financial affairs. 13

Materials That May Be Marked "CONFIDENTIAL"

The following information may be designated as "CONFIDENTIAL": information, documents, testimony or materials that the Designating Party properly regards as proprietary, confidential, as implicating privacy concerns, or as business information not disclosed in the ordinary course of business.

b. Materials That May Be Marked "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY"

The following information may be designated as "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY": information, documents, testimony or materials that the Designating Party properly regards as relating to (i) current or future revenues, costs, profits, or other highlysensitive, non-public financial matters; (ii) bids, proposals, offers or other documents relating to attempts to acquire a competing business; (iii) future strategic business, sales or marketing plans or activities; or (iv) non-public patent applications or other highly-sensitive trade secrets, the disclosure of which would irreparably harm the Designating Party.

28

2. Access

Disclosure Of CONFIDENTIAL Designated Material

Material designated "CONFIDENTIAL" may be disclosed, as necessary for the 5 prosecution or defense of this action, to (i) a reasonable number of current officers, directors or 6 employees of a party who have a legitimate purpose for reviewing such material in connection 7 with this litigation, (ii) former officers, directors or employees of a party who have a legitimate 8 9 purpose for reviewing such material in connection with this litigation, (iii) the parties' attorneys and their attorneys' support staff, (iv) witnesses or potential witnesses who have a legitimate 10 purpose for reviewing such material in connection with this litigation, and (v) those individuals 11 to whom Designated Materials may be disclosed under the terms of paragraphs (c), (d), (f) and 12 (h) below. Before material designated "CONFIDENTIAL" may be disclosed to any person 13 14 authorized hereunder, such person must be shown a copy, and must agree to be bound by the 15 terms, of this Order.

Disclosure Of CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY Designated Material

 Material designated "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" may be disclosed to outside counsel of record (and their support staff) for the parties to this action.

(ii.) Material designated "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" may also be disclosed to two in-house attorneys, whose primary responsibilities are related to litigation ("Designated Counsel") for each party. Should any of the attorneys serving as Designated Counsel leave the employment of a party, that party may designate a new attorney to serve as Designated Counsel in the manner described above.

17	d. Disclosure By Stipulation
18	Material designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS'
19	EYES ONLY" may be disclosed upon written agreement by all of the parties to this action to any
20	other person who agrees in writing to be bound by this Order.
21	e. Disclosure To Court
22	Except as provided in paragraph 5, this Order shall not apply to disclosures of Designated
23	Material to the Court or its staff in connection with the Court's administration and adjudication
24	of this action, or to Court reporters.
25	f. Copies
26	Copies and extracts of Designated Materials may be made by or for the foregoing
27	persons, provided that all copies and extracts are appropriately marked. The Parties may utilize
28	third party copying and imaging providers. All copies and extracts are subject to paragraph 9 of

5	h.	Autho	rs And Addressees
6	The	designatio	on of any document as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL —
7	ATTORNE	YS' EYE	S ONLY" shall not preclude any party from showing the document to any
8	person who appears as an author, addressee or recipient on the face of the document, provided,
9	however, th	at if: (i) t	he document has been annotated by another person; and (ii) the annotations
10	are designat	ed as "CC	ONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY,"
11	then the annotations shall be redacted from the copy of the document shown to the author,
12	addressee or recipient, unless the annotations were made by someone employed by the
13	Designating Party and the person to whom the document will be shown is also employed by the
14	Designating Party.
15	i.	Inform	nation Otherwise Available
16	The	restriction	ns set forth in this Order shall not apply to information:
17		(i.)	Which is lawfully known to the receiving party or the public before the
18			date of its transmission to the receiving party;
19		(ii.)	Which becomes publicly known after the date of its transmission to the
20			receiving party, provided however, that such information shall not have
21			become publicly known by any act or omission of the receiving party
22			which would constitute a breach of this Order; or
23		(iii.)	Which, after disclosure to the receiving party, is revealed to the public by
24			a person having the unrestricted right to do so.
25	j.	Inform	nation Obtained From Third Parties Other Than Through Discovery
26	Not	hing in thi	s Order shall preclude any party herein, its attorneys or any other person
27	from disclosing or using, in any manner or for any purpose, any Designated Materials if the same formal discovery in this proceeding; and (ii) were not subject to any restriction on disclosure while in the possession of such third-party (e.g., where the third party owed(es) no duty of non disclosure to the party claiming confidentiality of the information).

4 3. Designating Documents

When a party producing documents wishes to designate some portion as 5 6 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" such designation 7 shall be made by placing a conspicuous legend on each page of the document prior to production. This designation of confidential information need not be made until copies of the 8 9 materials are requested after inspection and selection by counsel. Making documents and things 10 available for inspection by a party's counsel shall not constitute a waiver of any claim of 11 confidentiality, and all materials provided for inspection by a party's counsel shall be treated as though designated as "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" at the time of the 12 13 inspection. When a party wishes to designate as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL ----14 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" a document produced by someone else, that party becomes the 15 Designating Party for purposes of that designation, which shall be made within ten business days 16 from the date that the Designating Party receives notice that the document has been produced, by 17 notice to all parties, identifying with particularity the designated documents.

Designating Depositions

a. Timing

20Deposition transcripts or portions thereof may be designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" by a party either: (i) before the testimony 21 22 is recorded, in which case the transcript of the designated testimony shall be bound in a separate 23 volume and marked by the reporter, as the Designating Party may direct, or (ii) by captioned, 24 written notice to the reporter and all counsel of record, given within ten business days after the 25 reporter sends written notice that the transcript or portion thereof is complete. Pending 26 expiration of the ten business days, the deposition transcript shall be treated as if it had been 27 designated "CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

28

b. Exclusion	Of Persons
--------------	------------

Where testimony is designated "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" by 2 a party during a deposition, the Designating Party may exclude from the deposition all persons 3 other than the court reporter(s) and videographer(s), if any, and those persons to whom the 4 5 Designated Material may be disclosed under paragraph 2 of this Order.

6

c.

Any party may mark a deposition exhibit as Designated Material and examine any 7 witness thereon, provided that the deposition witness is one to whom the exhibit may be 8 9 disclosed under paragraph 2 of this Order and the exhibit and related transcript pages receive the 10 same confidentiality designation as the exhibit.

11

Court Procedures

Should a party include or make specific reference to Designated Material designated by 12 another party in a submission to the Court, that party shall follow the procedures set forth in 13 14 Civil Local Rule 79.5 to request that the papers, or portions of the papers, including such 15 Designated Material be sealed.

6. Subpoena By Other Courts Or Agencies

17 If a third party, another Court or an administrative agency subpoenas or orders production of documents or information or materials, designated for protection under this Protective Order, 18 19 that a party has obtained under the terms of this Order, such party shall promptly (a) notify the 20Designating Party of the pendency of such subpoena or order; (b) inform in writing the party that 21 caused the subpoena or order to issue that some or all the material covered by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Order; and (c) deliver a copy of this Order promptly to the party that 22 23 caused the subpoena or order to issue.

24

The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of 25 this Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The Designating 26 27 Party shall bear the burdens and expenses of seeking protection in that court of its confidential 28material. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging anyone

1 to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

2 7. Objections

A party challenging a "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL --- ATTORNEYS" 3 EYES ONLY" designation shall do so in writing and shall state the basis for the challenge. The 4 5 Designating Party shall, within five days after receiving such notice, respond in writing. If the Designating Party fails to respond timely in writing, then the Designating Party shall be deemed 6 to have waived the claim of confidentiality. The challenging party may move the Court for an 7 order that material is not properly designated. Before filing such a motion, counsel shall meet 8 9 and confer in a good faith effort to resolve their differences. The Designating Party may file a brief in opposition to the challenging party's motion within five days. Pending a decision from 10 the Court, the information shall be treated as properly designated under this Order. At all times, 11 the burden shall remain on the Designating Party to sustain the claim of confidentiality. 12 13 8.

No Prejudice

14	a. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any party from seeking and obtaining
15			additional or different protection with respect to the confidentiality of discovery.
16		b. This Order shall not diminish any existing obligation or right with respect to
17			Designated Material, nor shall it prevent a disclosure to which the Designating
18			Party consents in writing before the disclosure takes place.
19		C.	Unless all parties stipulate otherwise, evidence of the existence or nonexistence of
20			a designation under this Order shall not be admissible for any purpose during any
21			proceeding on the merits of this action.
22		d.	A party may seek to make late designations of information and materials by
23			stipulation or court order if the party failed to make a timely designation through
24			mistake or inadvertence.
25	9.	Final	Disposition
26		Withi	n sixty days of final termination of this action (including any appeals), each party
27	shall assemble and destroy or return all Designated Materials, including copies, abstracts,
28	summaries, documents or materials containing information taken from them (but excluding any materials which, in the judgment of counsel, are work product materials) to counsel for the 1 person that produced the material. Each party shall further certify to the owner of the Designated 2 Materials that such destruction or return occurred. In the case of materials designated under this 3 Order by someone other than the party producing those materials, the materials shall be returned 4 to counsel for the Designating Party, or destroyed. The attorneys of record in this case may 5 retain one copy of any Designated Material, solely for archival purposes, that are attached to any 6 7 pleading filed with the Court or have been marked as an exhibit to a deposition, or which is part of deposition testimony, interrogatory response(s), or response(s) to request(s) for admission. 8

9 ||1

10. Modification And Survival

The restrictions imposed by this Order may be modified or terminated only by written stipulation of all parties or by order of this Court. This Order shall survive termination of this action.

13 11. No Contract

This proposed Order is for the Court's consideration and approval as an Order. It shall not be construed to create a contract between the parties or between the parties and their respective counsel.

17 12. Inadvertent Disclosure Of Designated Material

18 If any party inadvertently discloses Designated Material to a person or persons other than 19 those designated under paragraph 2 of this Order, that party promptly shall notify the 20 Designating Party of the disclosure and undertake all reasonable efforts to retrieve the 21 Designated Material.

22 13. Attorney-Client And Work Product Material

If any party inadvertently produces materials protected by the attorney-client or work product doctrines, that party may notify counsel to whom the material was produced and the material will be returned. Inadvertent production of such privileged material will not constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege or work product privilege. The parties agree that upon notification of such an inadvertent production, any copies already made of the privileged material will either be returned or destroyed.

14. Designations Not Admissions

Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed as an admission or agreement that any specific information is or is not confidential, subject to discovery, relevant, or admissible in evidence in this litigation.

5 15. Privileged Log

No party need identify on its privileged log any attorney-client communications or work product materials created on or after the filing of this suit, i.e., November 26, 2003, because to do so would be unduly burdensome given the volume of such attorney-client communications and work product materials.

10 16. Declarations

To become entitled to review materials designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or 11 "CONFIDENTIAL — ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" as provided in paragraph 1, the persons 12 identified in paragraphs 2(a)(ii), 2(a)(iv), (2)(b)(iii), 2(b)(iv) and 2(c) shall first be provided with 13 a copy of this Protective Order and shall be required to sign a Declaration in the form set forth as 14 Exhibit A hereto. None of the other persons listed in paragraph 2 shall be required to sign such a 15 16 Declaration. The party on whose behalf the Declaration is signed shall retain the original Declaration. 17 DATED: August 23, 2005 KEKER & VAN NEST, LLP 18 19 20 By: 21 MICHAEL H. PAGE MARK A. LEMLEY 22
