ORDER RE GOVERNMENT’S REQUEST
TO UNSEAL FOR LIMITED PURPOSE

[Re Docket No. 71]

The United States has moved to unseal certain records in the underlying criminal case (94-CR-0003 CRB) for the limited purpose of obtaining copies for the government’s files in preparation for the appeal of the denial of Ailemen’s motion under § 2255. The government requests that the records be unsealed only for the limited purpose of the allowing the government to obtain a copy of the documents for its files and otherwise the documents should remain sealed.

It is unclear from the docket for the court of appeals whether it has ruled on this motion but it appears that it has not.¹ Assuming the court of appeals has not ruled, this court allows the limited unsealing for the purpose stated. The limited unsealing does not allow either party to use the ¹ It is not entirely clear whether the order dated January 10, 2012 rules on the government’s current motion but it appears that it does not.
