Re: Digital Envoy v. Google
USDC, Northern District of California, Case No.: C-04-01497 RS

Dear Tim:

In response to your email of January 15, your proposal on the schedule is unacceptable. Your proposal does not allow us to file a reply in time for the Court to consider all the papers. If you do not agree to our original briefing schedule, we'll file a motion to shorten time tomorrow asking the Court to adopt our schedule. If you have an alternative in mind, please let us know by noon Pacific time tomorrow.

As an aside, there is no reason for you to refuse to inform all of the third parties that they can wait to respond to your subpoena until the protective order motion is resolved. The fact that you won't suggest your intention is really to harass third parties with improper subpoenas.

Very truly yours,

WILSON SONSINI GOODRICH & ROSATI
