12 ADVANCED MICROTHERM, INC., et al.,)

Case No.: C 04-2266 JW (PVT)

13 Plaintiffs,)

INTERIM ORDER RE PLAINTIFFS'
MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANTS'
CONTINUING DISCOVERY RESPONSES
UNDER F.R.C.P. RULE 26

14 v.)

15 NORMAN WRIGHT MECHANICAL)
EQUIP. CORP., et al.,)

16 Defendants.)

17

18 On January 6, 2009, Plaintiffs filed a motion to shorten time for hearing a motion to compel
 19 Defendants continuing discovery responses under F.R.C.P. Rule 26. Plaintiffs has originally filed a
 20 motion to compel such supplementation in May of 2008. In the motion to shorten time, Plaintiffs set
 21 forth additional items for which they sought supplementation, as well as a request to compel
 22 Defendants to provide a privilege log. The court granted the motion to shorten time and set
 23 deadlines for the filing of oppositions and replies, and a date and time for the hearing. It appears that
 24 Defendant Norman Wright Mechanical Equipment Corporation ("Norman Wright") filed an
 25 opposition that addressed the issues in Plaintiffs' original motion and not the issues in Plaintiffs'
 26 more recent brief. Therefore,

27 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the hearing on Plaintiffs' motion for continuing discovery
 28 responses is continued to February 24, 2009. Defendant Norman Wright may file a supplemental

1 opposition no later than February 9, 2009. Plaintiffs may file a supplemental reply no later than
2 February 13, 2009.
