The parties' intention to stay proceedings

Magistrate Judge Seeborg on June 12, 2009. The parties have agreed to instruct Australian counsel as to the stay of Australian proceedings.

- 2. To preserve the status quo, Plaintiffs and Defendants also jointly request that all motions or other matters presently under submission to this Court or to Magistrate Judge Seeborg be held in abeyance during that ninety day period and that no order upon any matter presently under submission issue during that period.
- 3. Plaintiffs and Defendants also jointly request that all dates presently reflected on the Scheduling Order for this matter dated June 23, 2009, [Docket 570-1] be vacated. In the event that the parties do not succeed in reaching a full and final settlement of all disputes in this action prior to the expiration of the ninety day stay requested herein, and unless the parties jointly request a further stay, Plaintiffs and Defendants will confer and not later than one hundred days after the date of this Stipulation, will submit to the Court a proposed Amended Scheduling Order. With respect to pending motions as to which the briefing is incomplete and/or as to which a hearing has yet to occur, the parties will confer, agree upon a schedule for the completion of briefing and confer and agree upon dates for hearings on such pending motions upon the earliest dates convenient for the parties and the Court after expiration of said one hundred day period.
- 4. Plaintiffs and Defendants have likewise agreed that the period of stay requested herein shall not inure to the benefit of or to the detriment of either Plaintiffs or Defendants, and that neither the request for nor existence of this stay, nor any communications between counsel, the parties or the Court concerning the request for the stay will be discoverable or admissible in this action.
