I thought it was a bad call on Veoh's part to discontinue the Adult section with no prior warning to it's users. Shows how much they value their customers and our interests. It saddens and disappoints me and I'm considering removing my membership.

It's disheartening how little Veoh cares about it's members for them to do something like this. I hope there are other video client options because now I want to switch to a different one. I can get a better selection from YouTube and now that it doesn't have an adult section there is little to distinguish it from other video broadcasting sites.

I for one do not like censorship of any kind. The lousy president wants to censor everything on the internet and looks like this company Veoh is run by republicans. Censorship, and secrets. Do the elimination overnight and not acknowledge it. A move to Canada maybe in my future. Veoh GET A BACKBONE AND BRING BACK THE ADULT STUFF OR LOSE ALL YOUR CUSTOMERS!

This was the one thing that made Veoh great and unique and popular. What else is on here? CRAP!!!! The adult section was the only section worth watching. ONE, they should have notified everyone before deleting all the files and TWO, the deleted a file off my computer. I would call that breaking and entering. Any lawyers want to comment on that?

Well at the very least we know that some upstart will be making their presence known soon. Too bad for Veoh and I have to agree with some of the other comments. To not inform their visitors of such a sweeping and broad change of policy reflects a bad business sense. Copyright laws are one thing...adult content is another. I think an explanation is in order considering the amount of revenue this site has generated.

"Veoh Networks, announced that it had raised $12.5 million in a Series B venture capital financing from Michael Eisner, former chairman and CEO of The Walt Disney Company, Todd Dages, managing partner of Spark Capital, and Time Warner."

What's interesting to me is that they MUST have known how the change is going to negatively impact their viewership but I guess they feel they made enough money catering to the "industry" and have sold their souls. Were they forced to take down the adult content? And if so, by whom? I for one just love having conservative facism shoved down my throat on the internet.

Canada would surley welcome you! Are you actually trying to imply that George Bush had something to do with Veoh deleting the Adult Content Category...the democrats lied about the election being stolen, they lied about the fact that Saddam had WMD, and now you are saying that the republicans were part of the Veoh conspiracy to publish porno? What the fuck?

I just discovered Veoh two days ago and was very happy with the adult content, recommending it to several of my friends. Tonight, I log on and the Adult section is gone. Without it, I have no need for this website and will be removing the software from my computer. What's the point?

Look,
I agree with you montreal guy. I have friends in Canada and they enjoy the privaleges there that are not available in the US. I just think that blaming the deletion of adult content (on this website) on a political party is stupid. My comment about Canada was meant to reflect an aknowledgment of the more liberal attitude in Canada (particularly the french canadian provinces). We here in the US fully appreciate the Canadian culture...some of us may even envy it.

Do we know that the adult content has been removed? Maybe there is some glitch they're dealing with and this is a temporary issue. I haven't seen one message on this forum confirming that Veoh actually made a decision to remove adult content. If that were the case, there would be no need for the filter.

Let's give it some time and wait to hear from Veoh.

I agree. VEOH chose to lose its competitive edge in the market as well as alienate its new customers by providing no notice or explanation to members.

That's a horrible way to run a business and treat people you want to make use of your site.

I encourage people to cancel their accounts and use the competitors if the section isn't restated..

Well another great site bites the dust. Another MySpace/Youtube is not what we need. Why is it that this always happens. If it is a copyright issue thats one thing...but preventing us from sharing our own video is insane.

Dear coolbeans2369, I totally agree with you, but the content filter its (was) allways on "strict" by default. So no child could see the firemen making fire only by accesing th ehhomepage of veoh. Its not only about the adult content here, but also about the copyright. And if we talk about copyright, I think you uploaded some copyrighted videos on ur veoh account, such as music videos (not live performances). If veoh want to clean this site, they should filter everything, also the WORDS, which is not the case, yet.

But anyway, we will get over it.

Coolbeans you are a fucking idiot

1. Either you are new to the internet or you are retarded...porn IS FREE...you can find free porn everywhere. You can find it on forums, you can find it on rapidshare, you can find it by googling for fucking "porn" you moron.
2. If you are a parent and you are letting your kid surf the internet unattended or without the proper filters then you should be reported to child services asshole!
3. If you want to go somewhere to "not have porn rammed down your throat" then there are millions of sites that you can visit dickwad!
4. Why are you posting in this thread if you don't want to bring back the adult content you idiot!
5. What the fuck is "firemen making fire"? Did you make that up or were you actually enjoying browsing the adult content category on veho?

You are a complete buttnutt. please do not post here anymore!

They could at least put an announcement on the home page -- or in the help section.
You know, if there's no adult content, I'll just stick to the main competitor. The adult content was the only thing that made this site superior.

great job guys. now nothing sets you apart from the 100 of other video sites. oh but you can download here. like i wanna download a car hitting a motorcycle or a guy falling off a skateboard. This thing was growing but whats gonna make people come here? Youtube has a much better selection. I quit Youtube because this site offered everything. Now its just like the rest.

If you guys ever go back to the old way, i hope you send a email out. That way i can redownload the Veoh Client and bookmark this place again. ☺

I am out of here as well....how sad... Perhaps if more parents actually gave a darn about what their kids were doing and stop blaming others for their lack of supervision this kind of junk would end... Here is a hint- lock up the computer sometime or WATCH YOUR KIDS.

I agree. There's nothing to this site to keep me on anymore. I have to go back to the aholes on youtube. I brought a lot of them from there to join this site, but know it's just a waste of time. I hope this gets resolved in favor of adult content coming back. Whatever the reason was that it was removed, I know it was veoh's fault. A nine year old can verify into saying he's over 18 by clicking on a stupid box and at the same time say he's 105! This site should have made the site more strict and enjoyable for all of us adults who were enjoying this material in the 1st place. I am saddened and infuriated as many are at this time that we wasted our time in uploading our adult content for everyone to see what we had up. It's not our fault that we had adult content nor is it our job to keep it from seeing unprivileged eyes from seeing this type of content! Thanks a lot veoh for ruining this site and wasting our time. May this site burn in the lake of ether. Someone please message me if anyone knows of a better site to go to so I can get my hentai up and all my friends adult material up and running again. My address is xxRyouBakuraxx@hotmail.com

You guys had a respectable amount of members because of you rarely censoring anything, now you will lose a lot of the community. You people are ridiculously retarded, now you have nothing to seperate you from the dozens of websites who's foundation is the same as yours.

Back to youtube, censoring pussies.

Bring The Shit Back. It's Not That It's Not Controversial, But It's Fucking Content. Content That Sets You Apart From Everyone Else.

I have to agree with everyone else here: Veoh was notable for its willingness to host a wide variety of vidclips, without placing limits on size, length, or content. By adding a censorship component, Veoh has essentially lost its brand. Now, it's no different from any other vidsharing site--except, of course, that its embedded player app is inferior to the others.

To the decision-makers at Veoh, I have to say congratulations, guys: you've just lost the most important element of your product differentiation package. With all things equal again, there's no reason any of us should stick around. I for one will be migrating back to YouTube, and I imagine a sizeable chunk will do the same. Good luck rebuilding the brand. I wouldn't wanna be in your shoes.

And FYI, to the previous poster: to get rid of the Veoh client, all you have to do is go to Control Panel/Add and Remove Programs and uninstall it. I highly encourage everyone to do so--it feels GREAT.

you guys just screwed yourselves. when you go bankrupt, I hope you all know why we're laughing at you.

Ve-oh, what could have been.

Stop the censorship. When you do, I'll come back. Otherwise, I'll stay at YouTube. Good luck with your currently doomed company.

Seriously though, you guys suck.

This site was cool because you could watch WHATEVER you wanted on here. You didn't have to go to xtube.com for porn and then youtube.com for other entertainment. Now you guys have gone all censorship-nazi on us! What gives?! I understand that it was easy for minors to access the porn, but create a new verification system; don't just shut it out! Do you have any idea how much business you're gonna lose from this little act?!

If something isn't changed soon, you've lost me as a customer as well as my friends.

People, go check out www.xtube.com for your adult entertainment needs. Besides, www.youtube.com has more non-adult content to watch than this site anyway.

lol after reading EVERY comment on these forums regarding you taking away the adult section, I think its just a matter of how long until its back....every member is leaving this site now because of this chance. You were the only site that allowed this, which attracted a lot of people, now you are just like every other horrible video site out there.... good for nothing. I'm out myself. Ill occasionally check back to see if you added the adult section back, and I hope its soon, because ve-oh wil crash-oh so soon

You all have to understand that Veoh.com only made the adult section to get more people to sign up here! It was all a marketing scheme to get as many people as they can before closing down the adult section and fu*king us all over by not being able to watch or download porn.

That's how companies like this work! Youtube did the same thing for copyrighted music content. They didn't start deleting anything until weeks later after thousands signed up. Go figure!

What can you do now? Check out...

Gay-torrents.net

<http://en.gay-torrents.net/>

Its free! Just sign up!

Thousands of full length gay porn is there, and other gay movie content. They have been around longer, and it works well. They have forums and a webcam chat room too! Check it out. Goodbye.. (you cant embed anything in your myspace or webpage, but ohwell!)

You have to wonder how long it will take them to shut down the forums. Folks that do this sort of thing tend to not take criticism very well, sometimes even referring to people with different opinions as traitors.

hey guys! check out the FAQ section under the question of whether veoh is free or not. the reply is that it's free now, but soon there will be software offered for a subscription fee. i have a feeling this is what they're gonna do with the adult content section. i think they figured 'wait, with this much adult traffic, we could be making billions in stead of millions!' mark my words...

If you are leaving the site due to the Adult Content issue, POST HERE with your goodbyes and whatever words you may want to express about the issue...

Well, I must say - I am going. Veoh, you were GREAT until after today. Honestly, without that section, I find no reason in returning. I suppose the only way you will be seeing me on this site is not from downloading the remaining RETARDED & POINTLESS videos, but when I check to see if the Adult part is back.

Until then - Peace Veoh. And good luck in the future. ☺

Veoh has absolutely nothing now. I won't be sticking around any time soon as many that are going to leave as the adult content is gone. We have all wasted our time in uploading our adult content to the site and look what happens. It was all in vain. This site is going to crash and burn as there is no variety as the other sites.
