ORDER CONSOLIDATING TRIALS; SETTING NEW TRIAL DATES

On November 24, 2009, the Court conducted a settlement conference in the above entitled cases. Although the case did not settle, Plaintiffs agreed to consolidate the cases for the purposes of trial. Counsel for Defendants requested additional time to confer with their clients. On December 1, 2009, Defendants filed a Case Management Conference Statement. (Docket Item No. 102.) In their Statement, Defendants request that the Sanchez case be tried separately and that the three remaining cases be consolidated for trial on a different date. (Id. at 5-6.) Upon consideration of Defendants' grounds for separate trials, the Court finds that a consolidated trial for all four cases is appropriate

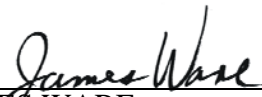

1 because the evidence will be the same and there is no prejudice to Defendants. Accordingly, the 2 Court ORDERS a consolidated trial for all four cases and MODIFIES the trial schedule as follows:
