Enwere v. Terman Apartments, LP et al

28 U.S.C. § 1915, a district court may authorize the commencement of a civil action in forma 1 2 pauperis if the court is satisfied that the would-be plaintiff cannot pay the filing fees necessary to 3 pursue the action. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). The Court is satisfied that Plaintiff cannot pay the 4 filing fee. The Court may deny in forma pauperis status, however, if it appears from the face of 5 the proposed complaint that the action is frivolous or without merit. O'Loughlin v. Doe, 920 F.2d 614, 616 (9th Cir. 1990); Tripati v. First National Bank & Trust, 821 F.2d 1368, 1370 (9th 6 7 Cir. 1987). While the pro se complaint in the instant case is not pleaded artfully and may require 8 amendment, the Court concludes that the action is not frivolous or without merit. The Court will 9 grant Plaintiff's application to proceed in forma pauperis. The Marshal shall affect service of 10 process. The Court counsels Plaintiff to seek legal representation in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
