Date: February 17, 2006
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Dept. 7
Judge: Socrates Peter Manoukian

1 I, Scott R. Mosko, declare that I am an attorney admitted to practice law in the State of 2 California, and a member of the Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, LLP firm,
3 attorneys of record for Defendants ConnectU LLC, Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, 4 Howard Winklevoss, and Divya Darendra in the above-identified matter. The matters referred to in 5 this declaration are based on my personal knowledge and if called as a witness I could, and would, 6 testify competently thereto.

7 1. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of a Notice of Deposition of 8 ConnectU LLC (C.C.P. § 2026) propounded by Plaintiff and served on Defendants on or about 9 November 3, 2005;

10 2. Attached as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of ConnectU LLC's Opposition to Ex
11 Parte Application and Application for Order Limiting Deposition, filed on January 6, 2006;

12 3. Attached as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of this Court's Order, filed on 13 January 6, 2006;

14 4. During the latter part of December, 2005, I participated in pre-motion conferences
15 with Plaintiff's attorney Robert Nagel. During those conferences we discussed many issues, 16 including the following:

17 a. In response to Mr. Nagel's contention that Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler
18 Winklevoss, and Divya Narendra should respond to interrogatories and produce documents
19 involving the WINKLEVOSS COMPANIES, as Plaintiff has defined it in its discovery, I explained
20 that neither Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, nor Divya Narendra were owners, officers, 21 directors or employees of these entities. I explained that while I did not believe Howard Winklevoss
22 had possession, custody or control of the requested information regarding these entities, Plaintiff's
23 decision to propound this discovery toward Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, and Divya
24 Narendra was improper.

25 b. As a result of this pre-motion conference, Plaintiff and Defendants agreed that 26 Defendants would amend certain answers.

27 c. Also during this conference, I advised Mr. Nagel that the composition of 28 ConnectU's members has not changed since its inception. I asked Mr. Nagel if he wanted me to so

1 state in the amended answers Defendants agreed to provide. Mr. Nagel answered that question in the 2 negative.

3 d. Also during this pre-motion conference, Mr. Nagel asked me why some of the 4 interrogatory responses by the individual defendants were limited to their personal capacity, or to 5 their capacity as members of ConnectU. I explained that ConnectU had turned over all information 6 regarding its operations. Therefore, if Plaintiff were to read the individual defendants' responses in 7 conjunction with ConnectU's responses, it would see that complete responses were provided. This 8 was done to avoid having to prepare duplicative answers, as Plaintiff asked the same questions to 9 ConnectU that it did to the individual defendants.

10 e. Also during this pre-motion conference, Mr. Nagel and I re-confirmed that in 11 order to avoid duplication of production efforts, the parties earlier agreed that any document 12 previously produced in the Massachusetts action would be deemed produced in this action.

13 5. On January 12, 2006, Defendants served amended responses to certain discovery.
14 True and correct copies of those amended responses are attached to Robert Nagel's Declaration, as 15 Exhibits 23 - 27.

16 6. On January 13, 2006, Defendants served additional documents responsive to certain 17 discovery requests. I am informed and believe these documents represent the only communications 18 between any of the defendants and a California entity or an individual who resides in California.
19 During the pre-motion conference, Robert Nagel asked me whether Defendants intended to withhold 20 any such communications based on any of the objections asserted. I explained that although 21 Defendants were not waiving their objections, all communications that showed on their face any 22 contact between a defendant and a company or individual located in California would be produced.

23 7. On January 16, 2006, I attended the depositions of ConnectU LLC, Howard 24 Winklevoss, Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, and Divya Narendra. Although the 25 documents referenced in the immediately preceding paragraph to this declaration were hand
26 delivered to Plaintiff's counsel well before January 16, 2006, Plaintiff did not ask the Defendants 27 any questions about these documents or the substance of these documents during their depositions.
28 Further Plaintiff did not inquire about Howard Winklevoss's relationship with the WINKLEVOSS

1 COMPANIES. Plaintiff did not ask what, if any role Howard Winklevoss played in these 2 companies. Plaintiff did not ask whether Howard Winklevoss had possession, custody or control of 3 any documents maintained by the WINKLEVOSS COMPANIES. Plaintiff did not ask Howard 4 Winklevoss any questions concerning the issue of whether there is a unity of interest, ownership, and 5 control between himself and the entities involved. Plaintiff asked no questions regarding how the 6 WINKLEVOSS COMPANIES were organized, where their charters were filed, whether they 7 conduct meetings, or whether corporate formalities are followed. Plaintiff did inquire of the 8 Defendants what their duties were on behalf of ConnectU. Attached as Exhibit E are true and 9 correct copies of certain pages from these depositions in which such questions and answers can be 10 found. (FILED UNDER SEAL)

11 8. As a result of this Court's January 6, 2006 Order, Defendant ConnectU has filed a 12 motion for sanctions, a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit D. (FILED UNDER 13 SEAL)

14 9. Because Plaintiff has made specious arguments which have required Defendants to 15 expend money and time responding, Defendants request they be compensated for their efforts. I 16 have expended approximately 15 hours reviewing Plaintiff's motion and preparing the opposition. I 17 expect to expend an additional 5 hours reviewing the reply, traveling to court, and arguing the 18 motion. This 20 hours correlates to approximately $12,000.

19 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California that the foregoing
20 is true and correct and that this declaration was executed on the 3rd day of February, 2006 at Palo 21 Alto, California.
