CASE NO. C 07-01389 RS

DEFENDANT WINSTON WILLIAMS'
RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF
FACEBOOK, INC.'S "FIRST SET" [sic]
OF INTERROGATORIES

1 PROPOUNDING PARTY: Plaintiff FACEBOOK, INC.
2 RESPONDING PARTY: Defendant WINSTON WILLIAMS
3 SET NO.: ONE (Nos. 1-3) [sic]
4

5 TO PLAINTIFF AND ITS ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

6 Pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant, Winston Williams
7 (“WILLIAMS”), hereby responds and objects to what was served on November 7, 2007, as the First
8 Set of Interrogatories, but in fact was the Second Set of Interrogatories propounded to this 9 Responding Party, as follows:

10 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

- 11 1. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and to the definitions and instructions
12 to the extent they seek to impose obligations that are broader than or inconsistent with the Federal 13 Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Civil Local Rules.
- 14 2. Responding party objects to each interrogatory, and to the definitions and instructions
15 to the extent they seek the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client privilege, 16 attorney work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or protection, as provided by any 17 applicable law. Responding party does not intend to provide such privileged information, and the 18 inadvertent disclosure of such is not to be deemed a waiver of any privilege. Responding party
19 expressly reserves the right to object to the introduction at trial or any other use of such information
20 that may be inadvertently disclosed. In addition, Responding party objects to the interrogatories and 21 all definitions and instructions to the extent they seek and/or require Responding party to produce a 22 privilege log for documents or information falling within the attorney-client privilege or work-
23 product doctrine, if such documents or information were created after the date that this lawsuit was 24 filed.
- 25 3. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and 26 instructions to the extent they are vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, exceed the boundaries of 27
28

1 discoverable information, or fail to describe the information sought with the required reasonable
2 particularity.

3 4. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to 4 the extent the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, given the 5 needs of the case, the amount in controversy, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at 6 stake in the litigation, and the importance of the proposed discovery in resolving the issues.

7 5. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all other definitions and 8 instructions to the extent they seek information that is confidential financial, proprietary, trade secret 9 or that they seek other confidential or competitively sensitive business information relating to 10 Responding party or any third party. Responding party reserves the right to object that certain 11 information is so confidential and sensitive that it will not be produced even pursuant to a protective 12 order.

13 6. Responding party objects to each interrogatory and all definitions and instructions to 14 the extent they seek information not in Responding Party's custody or control.

15 7. Responding party objects to the interrogatory and all other definitions and 16 instructions to the extent they seek information that is beyond the scope of this litigation, is not 17 relevant, or that falls outside the parameters of discoverable information under the Federal Rules or 18 the Civil Local Rules.

19 8. Responding party has not yet completed its investigation, collection of information,
20 discovery, and analysis relating to this action. The following response is based on information
21 known and available to Responding party at this time. Responding party reserves the right to 22 modify, change, or supplement its response and to produce additional evidence at trial.

23 9. Responding party's agreement to furnish information in response to Plaintiff's
24 interrogatories shall not be deemed as an admission regarding the relevance of the requested
25 information, nor is it intended to waive any right to object the admissibility of such at trial.
26
27
28

1 OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

2 1. Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent they impose burdens on 3 responding different or greater than those provided in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the 4 Civil Local Rules.

5 2. Responding party objects to all definitions to the extent that they are burdensome,
6 oppressive and unnecessary.

7 3. Responding party objects to the definition of "CONNECTU" as overly oppressive,
8 burdensome, and effectively creating a subpart, compound and/or complex interrogatory. When the 9 word "CONNECTU" is used in an interrogatory, Responding party shall assume it means only the 10 limited liability company entitled ConnectU L.L.C.

11 4. Responding party objects to the definition of "Facebook" as vague, uncertain,
12 overbroad and unintelligible. When the word Facebook is used in an interrogatory, Responding
13 party shall assume it means only Facebook, Inc., one of the plaintiffs in this action.

14 5. Responding party objects to the phrase "Pacific Northwest Software" as uncertain, 15 overbroad and unintelligible. When the phrase "Pacific Northwest Software" is used in an 16 interrogatory, Responding party will assume it means the entity incorporated as Pacific Northwest
17 Software, Inc.

18 6. Responding party objects to the phrase "Facebook Users" as vague and unintelligible.
19 Responding party has no knowledge as to which individuals may have subscribed to any service
20 offered by Facebook, Inc.

21 7. Responding party objects to the phrase "User Accounts," as defined because this 22 phrase is overbroad and, to the extent this phrase is used as so defined, would expand a single 23 interrogatory into a compound and complex interrogatory, and one containing subparts, in violation
24 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Further to the extent this phrase is used in an interrogatory,
25 by defining said phrase through at least 19 separate documents, responding to any such interrogatory
26 would be oppressive, confusing and uncertain.

1 With this interpretation, this Interrogatory assumes facts not in evidence. Responding party is
2 willing to meet and confer with Facebook to allow Facebook to clarify this problem with this
3 Interrogatory.

4 INTERROGATORY NO. 2 - Renumbered No. 6:

5 For each FACEBOOK USER ACCOUNT and password identified by you in response to 6 Interrogatory No. 1, identify who registered on behalf of CONNECTU or provided the log-in 7 credentials and password for use by or on behalf of CONNECTU (i.e., “Mark Hall for 8 mjhall@fas.harvard.edu and the password ‘hallmark’” or Cameron Winklevoss registered a 9 Facebook account under the address god@harvard.edu with the password ‘cameron’ for use by 10 ConnectU’), and everyone at CONNECTU to whom the log-in credentials and passwords were given 11 (i.e., “Cameron Winklevoss received the log-in email address mjhall@fas.harvard.edu from Mark
12 Hall along with the password ‘hallmark,’ which address and password were then also given to Tyler
13 Winklevoss, Divya Narendra, Wayne Chang, Winston Williams and David Guwca to use on behalf 14 of ConnectU”).

15 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

16 Responding party incorporates the General Objections and the Objections to the Instructions
17 and Definitions into this response. In addition, Responding party objects to this Interrogatory as 18 vague, over broad, compound and complex. This interrogatory itself comprises multiple subparts, in 19 violation of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The interrogatory as phrased is unintelligible at 20 least for the following reasons: (a) The phrase “Facebook User Accounts” is not defined. The 21 definitions do provide a definition of “User Accounts,” however because the Interrogatory refers to 22 “Facebook User Accounts” it is unclear what is meant by this phrase. Responding party is willing to 23 meet and confer with Facebook to allow Facebook to clarify this problem with this Interrogatory;
24 (b) If “Facebook User Accounts” refers to activities effected by individuals who are, according to 25 the supplied definition of “Facebook Users,” “registered subscribers to Facebook’s website,” 26 Responding party has no way of knowing who is a “registered subscriber” to Facebook’s website.
27 With this interpretation, this Interrogatory assumes facts not in evidence. Responding party is 28

1 willing to meet and confer with Facebook to allow Facebook to clarify this problem with this
2 Interrogatory; (c) This Interrogatory includes quotes to documents, but fails to provide the source or 3 basis for these quotes. Responding party is willing to meet and confer with Facebook so that
4 Facebook can at least provide the source of these purported quotes that will enable Responding party
5 to better understand this Interrogatory.

6 INTERROGATORY NO. 3 - Renumbered No. 7:

7 Identify the number of emails sent by or on behalf of CONNECTU to any FACEBOOK
8 USER using either a false email address, or an email address in which the message was generated by 9 CONNECTU, in order to invite FACEBOOK USERS to join CONNECTU, as well as the identities
10 of all such email addresses used to invite FACEBOOK USERS to join CONNECTU (i.e., 11 “7,000,000 emails were sent to FACEBOOK USERS by or on behalf of ConnectU, using the 12 following email addresses: god@harvard.edu, jstarr@georgetown.edu, jstarr@amhurst.edu,
13 jastarr@dartmouth.edu, mjhall@fas.harvard.edu, etc.”). “Identify” in this interrogatory means
14 include the number of emails sent, a list of the senders of each email, a list of the owner of each
15 sender’s email address, and the location (including IP address and URL) of all servers on which such 16 emails are or were sent and/or stored.

17 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

18 Responding party incorporates the General Objections and the Objections to the Instructions
19 and Definitions into this response. In addition, Responding party objects to this Interrogatory as 20 vague, over broad, compound and complex. This interrogatory itself comprises multiple subparts, in 21 violation of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The interrogatory as phrased is unintelligible at 22 least for the following reasons: (a) The phrase “Facebook User” presumptively means a “registered
23 subscriber to Facebook’s website.” However, Responding party has no way of knowing who is a
24 “registered subscriber[]” to Facebook’s website. With this interpretation, this Interrogatory assumes 25 facts not in evidence. Responding party is willing to meet and confer with Facebook to allow 26 Facebook to clarify this problem with this Interrogatory; (b) This Interrogatory includes quotes to 27 documents, but fails to provide the source or basis for these quotes. Responding party is willing to 28

1 meet and confer with Facebook so that Facebook can at least provide the source of these purported
2 quotes that will enable Responding party to better understand this Interrogatory.
