Scott-

We will call you at 8:00 a.m. on December 24. Please let me know if you will be in your office or if we should reach you on a different number.

As we have noted several times, Facebook cannot confirm that its production is complete, because it is not complete. As we also have told you several times, we will notify you when we are reasonably certain it is complete. I am not sure we will have anything to add on this topic during our meet and confer, but we will be happy to discuss it with you.

Theresa,

I am available to confer with you, but not until December 24th, in the morning. During the conference, please be prepared to discuss Facebook's refusal to confirm whether its production of documents to Defendants' most recent set of requests has been completed, and if not, when that production will be complete.

Scott-

Please provide me with specific dates and times within the next week when you are available to meet and confer regarding Mr. Chang's responses to Plaintiffs' document requests as well as the recent responses by Defendants to Plaintiffs' interrogatories. Both sets of responses are inadequate, and neither complies with the Federal Rules.

Theresa,

I just found out that my son is having surgery tomorrow morning. I will not be able to address your questions until the issues concerning my son are resolved, which includes your request to meet and confer regarding Mr. Chang's recent discovery responses.

Thank you, Valerie.

Please provide us with dates that you are available for a CMC, so that Plaintiffs may ask the Court to set one. Scott, please also send me your availability. If we are unable, by Tuesday, December 11, 2007, to find a mutually convenient date before January 3, 2008, Plaintiffs will file an administrative request asking the Court to set a conference at its earliest convenience.

Scott and Valerie-

Now that all of the motions to dismiss have been decided and the parties are settled, we would like to ask the Court to set a CMC. Will you join in a stipulation to set a CMC on Friday, December 14, 2007, after the hearing on Facebook's Motion to Compel?
