Sean:

We will respond to your two requests--regarding a specification of the disputes over documents and whether we will withdraw the motion we filed yesterday--as quickly as we can. I cannot promise that it will be by your requested time of noon today, and that is highly unlikely, given schedules and the holiday. So if you believe that you need to object to our motion this afternoon, you should proceed. I will endeavor to respond as soon as possible.

Regards,
Jim

Subject: ConnectU

Jim, while I am working on this draft joint status report, I am reminded that none of the filings about the document turnover issue provide any explanation of what dispute ConnectU believes needs to be resolved. As I understand it, Finnegan was only litigation counsel, not business counsel. Finnegan had collected some ConnectU business documents as part of the discovery process, and those documents were turned over to Facebook and later to ConnectU once Facebook took control of ConnectU. The only issue on the table is your request that Finnegan provide an index to all of its litigation files, the same files that Judge Ware has ruled are off limits to ConnectU. If there is any other dispute, please let me know so that we can see if it can be resolved without bothering the court.

Concerning timing, if you could let me know whether ConnectU will withdraw the latest filing by around noon, I would appreciate it. Otherwise, we will need to file an objection this afternoon.

Regards,
Sean
