7 of her employment with Apple, she had responsibility for, among other things, 8 overseeing Apple's legal group and its various corporate functions. Except as expressly 9 admitted, Ms. Heinen denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 9 of the Complaint.

10 10. The allegations contained in Paragraph 10 of the Complaint are directed to 13 that Fred D. Anderson served as Apple's Chief Financial Officer and then subsequently 14 served as a director on Apple's Board of Directors until his resignation from the Board in 15 September 2006.

16 RELEVANT ENTITY

17 11. Ms. Heinen denies the allegation in the first sentence of Paragraph 11 of the 8 false paperwork for submission to Apple's Board of Directors. Ms. Heinen also denies 9 that she was the person who selected the grant date or exercise price for the Executive 10 Team grant. Except as expressly denied, Ms. Heinen admits the allegations in the first 11 and third sentences of Paragraph 19 of the Complaint. Ms. Heinen denies all remaining

20 Securities and Exchange Commission annual reports that included audited financial 21 statements, certified by the Company's outside auditors, KPMG. These documents speak 22 for themselves, and Ms. Heinen refers the Plaintiff and the Court to the documents for 23 their contents. Except as expressly admitted, Ms. Heinen lacks sufficient knowledge or 24 information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in 25 Paragraph 22 of the Complaint, and on that basis denies them.

6 believed to be within such persons' professional or expert competence.

7 SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

9 Ms. Heinen is not liable for Plaintiff's claims because she relied in good faith 10 upon the professional judgments of Apple's other legal professionals at the time of the Plaintiff’s claim for injunctive relief is barred because there has been no violation of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, and because there is no reasonable likelihood that any violation will be repeated. Ms. Heinen presently lacks sufficient knowledge or information on which to form a belief as to whether she may have additional affirmative defenses available. For this reason, Ms. Heinen reserves her right to assert additional affirmative defenses and other defenses in the event that discovery indicates that they would be appropriate.
