Plaintiff Facebook, Inc. ("Facebook") moves for leave to conduct expedited discovery. It also requests that its motion be heard on shortened time. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 7-1(b), the court finds that the matter is appropriate for determination without oral argument, and the motion for an order shortening time is denied as moot. Upon consideration of the papers presented, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Facebook may serve immediate discovery on Accretive Technology Group, Inc. and FCI, Inc. to obtain the identity of the Doe defendants by serving a Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 subpoena that seeks documents which are sufficient to identify each defendant, including names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, registration, assignment, and other information associated with the Internet Protocol Address identified in the complaint.
2. Facebook's motion for an order permitting it to obtain an image of hard drive(s) is denied without prejudice to renew the request upon a showing that other documentation is
