STIPULATION

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2009, defendant Kenneth L. Schroeder ("Schroeder") issued a subpoena to non-party Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati ("WSGR") (the "Subpoena");

WHEREAS, on July 7, 2009, Magistrate Judge Howard R. Lloyd entered the Protective Order Regarding Confidentiality of Certain Materials as to Which KLA-Tencor Corporation Claims Privilege (the "July 7, 2009 Protective Order"), having heard certain arguments regarding claims of privilege asserted by KLA-Tencor Corporation ("KLA"), among others;

WHEREAS, based on the nature of a significant portion of the documents that WSGR anticipates producing in response to the Subpoena, and the need for expeditious production of documents, the parties and WSGR agree that it is appropriate that WSGR's production of documents be governed by the July 7, 2009 Protective Order;

Accordingly, WSGR, Schroeder, and the SEC hereby petition the Court to enter the following [Proposed] Protective Order Regarding Confidentiality of Certain Materials Produced by Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati ("Protective Order");

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between WSGR, Schroeder, and the SEC, through their respective counsel, as follows:

By this Protective Order, the July 7, 2009 Protective Order shall be read to govern documents produced by WSGR during this litigation. Accordingly, each provision of the July 7, 2009 Protective Order shall apply to WSGR, to its production of documents, and to the parties' use and handling of documents produced by WSGR, including (but not limited to):

- the definition of "Confidential Material" in paragraph 1.b. shall be read to include information or tangible things produced by WSGR or any of its current or former partners or employees;
- 2. the definition of "Material" in paragraph 1.d. shall be read to include documents, electronically stored information, testimony and discovery responses, including all copies, excerpts and summaries thereof produced by WSGR or any of its current or former partners or employees;

SEC v. SCHROEDER Case No. C-07-3798-JW
