Jury Selection

1. The entire panel will be sworn. The Court will inform the panel of the nature and duration of the case and ask any panel member to identify himself or herself if, due to the nature or duration of the case or any physical or personal problem, service would impose an extreme hardship. The Court will examine panel members claiming hardship and issue appropriate excuses.

2. The Clerk will call the names of all prospective jurors. Fourteen jurors will be seated in the jury box, and the others will be seated in the courtroom in the order in which their names are called.

3. The Court will conduct voir dire of the prospective jurors, including any Court-approved questions which have been previously submitted by counsel.

4. After the Court has completed voir dire, counsel shall ask for permission to approach the bench to inform the Court if counsel wish to challenge a particular juror or jurors for cause. If counsel wish to challenge for cause, the Court will determine a procedure for hearing the challenge. If parties do not indicate a desire to make legal challenges, the jury panel is deemed passed for cause, and the parties will be allowed to exercise any peremptory challenges.

5. Parties are required to responsively indicate any peremptory challenges. In multiple party cases, counsel are directed to elect and designate one of their number as "lead" counsel for the <sup>1</sup> Jury trials are held in afternoon sessions from 1:00pm to 4:00pm, Tuesdays through Fridays unless the Court otherwise specifies. At the Subsequent Final Pretrial Conference, the Court reserves the right to fold the afternoon sessions into morning sessions (9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.) thus creating full days for trial. The final trial schedule will be confirmed at the Subsequent Final Pretrial Conference or two weeks before trial.

1 purpose of exercising joint challenges. The first 8 prospective jurors remaining after exercise of 2 challenges shall be seated as jurors. If more than 8 jurors are to be chosen pursuant to Rule 48, 3 Fed.R.Civ.P., prior to jury selection, the Court will advise the parties of the number of jurors to be 4 chosen and the number of additional peremptory challenges to be allowed. For cases where eight (8) 5 jurors are impaneled, each side (individually or jointly) will be allowed four (4) peremptory 6 challenges.

7 6. Before the remaining panel is excused, the Court will ask counsel if there is any 8 legal cause why the panel should not be sworn as the jury for the case. If a party should indicate a 9 desire to state legal cause, the Court will determine a time and procedure for ruling on those 10 objections. Any objections not stated are deemed waived.

11 Exhibits

12 7. On the day before the first day of trial, each party shall lodge with Chambers an 13 exhibit binder for each witness, which shall contain all exhibits which the party contemplates 14 offering into evidence through the witness. Any party objecting to an exhibit shall insert a page in 15 front of the exhibit which identifies the party making the objection and the legal ground for the 16 objection. Although an exhibit to which an objection has been made may be shown to the witness, it 17 shall not be displayed to the trier of fact unless the objection is overruled and the exhibit is received 18 into evidence.

19 8. If the case involves only a few exhibits, instead of witness exhibit binders, the 20 parties may include all exhibits in a single notebook.

21 9. Unless otherwise ordered, all exhibits shall be in a format compatible with either the 22 video or digital evidence presentation system utilized by the Court for display after it is received into 23 evidence.

24 10. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to the admission into evidence of all exhibits.
25 If the parties stipulate to admissibility, the parties shall indicate, "I am going to show you Exhibit __, 26 which is in evidence by stipulation." The exhibit may be shown to the witness and the trier of fact 27 without being formally offered into evidence.

1           21.       Counsel have full responsibility to arrange for the appearance of witnesses during 2 the presentation of their case so as to eliminate delay caused by waiting for witnesses who have been 3 placed on call by counsel.

4           22.       Unless an agreement to the contrary is entered into by opposing counsel, all
5 nonparty or nonexpert witnesses will be excluded from the courtroom when not testifying. When a 6 witness has completed his or her testimony, the witness is excused unless counsel indicates that he 7 or she wishes the witness to remain subject to being recalled. Any witness who has been excused 8 from further testimony may remain as a spectator. It will be the responsibility of counsel to make an 9 announcement at the time the witness steps down that he or she should remain in the environs of the 10 Court for a reasonable time to permit such counsel an opportunity to secure and serve a subpoena
11 upon the witness and assume responsibility for his or her per diem and other expenses as provided 12 by governing rule or statute.

13           23.       Counsel shall admonish all persons at counsel table that gestures, facial expressions, 14 audible comments, or the like, as manifestations of approval or disapproval during the testimony of 15 witnesses, or at any other time, are prohibited.

16           24.       Counsel should never, in the presence of the jury, ask the Court reporter to mark or 17 flag a witness's answer to a particular question. Instead, make a note of the time and subject matter 18 of the testimony you want marked, and inform the reporter unobtrusively at the next recess. This is 19 to avoid the use of "marking" as a device for attracting the jury's attention to certain testimony.

20           25.       Witness examination shall consist of direct examination, cross-examination and re-
21 direct examination. No recross-examination will be allowed without prior approval of the Court
22 specifically indicating the area for recross-examination. When there are multiple defense counsel, 23 they are directed to confer and designate to the Court the sequence in which they wish to be 24 recognized during trial for purposes of presenting opening statements and conducting cross-
25 examination of witnesses. If one counsel conducts the direct examination of a witness, that same 26 counsel must make objections when the witness is cross-examined. Counsel who will conduct the 27 cross-examination should object while the witness is on direct.

28

1           26.       From and after the moment the case is called for trial, any objection, motion or other 2 application for relief made by any defense counsel, orally or in writing, shall be deemed to be 3 adopted and joined in by every other defendant, without announcement by counsel to that effect, and 4 the rulings of the Court shall be deemed applicable to each defendant unless otherwise stated at the 5 time the ruling is made. Accordingly, it shall be regarded as unnecessary and improper for counsel 6 to rise to "join in" an objection or motion. Rather, counsel should rise to be heard only for the 7 purpose of expressly opting out of an objection or motion if that is his or her position.

8           27.       Counsel are directed to deliver to opposing counsel at the end of each trial day (if 9 not earlier) a list of witnesses counsel anticipates calling the next trial day.

10          28.       Counsel calling a non-client witness to testify should have no further discussions 11 with that witness concerning the case or any aspect of his or her testimony after the witness has been 12 tendered for cross-examination and until such time as the witness has been tendered back for redirect
13 examination. At all other times, within the bounds of governing ethics and the law, counsel may 14 engage in discussions with witnesses during trial.

15          29.       Counsel are directed to schedule any matters to be heard out of the presence of the 16 jury at a time other than that set for the presentation of evidence. Any time taken away from 17 presentation of evidence to the trier of fact due to, for example, lengthy legal motions made during 18 the time allocated to the presentation of evidence, or delays in the commencement of proceedings 19 due to circumstances within the control of counsel, will be deducted from the time allocated for the 20 presentation of evidence. Upon timely application based upon good cause, the Court may relieve a 21 party of its stipulation to the agreed schedule.

22          30.       It is the practice of the Court periodically to inform counsel of the Court's record of 23 how much time each side has remaining for the presentation of evidence based upon the stipulated 24 trial schedule.

25          31.       In an effort to heighten juror comprehension and to sharpen the issues in dispute, 26 after each witness has been excused, counsel may request permission to address the jury for 27 purposes of commenting on the significance of the evidence. Commentary shall be limited to 5 28

1 minutes for each party. Commentary shall be opened by the side calling the witness (unless waived)
2 and closed by the side cross-examining the witness. No rebuttal to commentary shall be allowed.
3 Commentary must conform to the rules of evidence with respect to closing argument. Counsel are 4 cautioned to avoid any appearance of stating principles of law which apply to the case or expressing 5 any personal opinion concerning the credibility of witnesses. Time taken for commentary shall be 6 deducted from the time allocated to each side for the presentation of evidence.

7
Instructing the Jury

8 32. The Court pre-instructs the jury as to preliminary matters immediately before 9 opening statements, and finally instructs before arguments of counsel. Written instructions are 10 provided to the jury upon retiring for deliberation.

11
Jury Deliberations

12 33. Counsel and litigants are not required to remain in the courtroom during jury 13 deliberations; however, it is counsel's responsibility to keep the clerk fully informed as to counsel's
14 whereabouts at all times, including the noon hour. Counsel are expected to return to the courtroom 15 within five minutes after being notified to do so. Failure to be available will be deemed waiver of 16 the right to be present.

17 34. The jury will be permitted to take a noon recess or other rest breaks without the 18 necessity of reconvening, and to retire for the evening and resume their deliberations the next 19 morning without reconvening.

20
Daily Trial Transcript

21 35. Any counsel desiring daily or expedited transcripts during trial should make 22 immediate arrangements with the court reporter and should inform the Court and other counsel of 23 such intentions.
