On October 22, 2007, Plaintiff Lindsay Abrams ("Abrams") filed a putative class action against Defendant Facebook, Inc. ("Facebook"). On January 23, 2008, the parties filed a Stipulated Entry of Judgment of Dismissal with Prejudice and General Release ("Stipulated Settlement"). The Stipulated Settlement provides the following with respect to attorneys' fees:

24 The parties agree that plaintiff's counsel is entitled to a reasonable award of 25 attorneys' fees and expenses in an amount to be determined by the Court.
26 Facebook agrees that any such determination by the Court will be based not solely 27 on the relief obtained for the plaintiff, but also on the benefits conveyed more generally through this settlement. Facebook further agrees that plaintiff shall be entitled to reasonable, limited discovery on this issue, including information relating to (a) the number of text messages Facebook sends out on a daily basis, 28 ¹ This disposition is not designated for publication and may not be cited.

1 (b) the number of text messages sent to previously recycled numbers, and (c) the 2 steps Facebook did or did not previously take to ensure that text messages were 3 not sent to people who did not want them. The parties have agreed that plaintiff's 4 counsel shall submit to the Court in the Action an application in support of an 5 award to plaintiff's counsel via written submissions and briefs and orally at the 6 hearing on such application. The parties state further that it is their collective 7 intention to expedite the process of conducting the foregoing evidentiary hearing 8 and enabling the necessary judicial determinations. Facebook agrees not to appeal 9 the District Court's final Order with respect to such application and to pay any 10 amounts awarded thereby within thirty (30) calendar days of the entry of the final 11 order thereon.

12 Stipulated Settlement ¶ 6.

13 Facebook now seeks to continue the evidentiary hearing scheduled for July 11, 2008, to 14 September 19, 2008, so that it may conduct limited discovery into the subject matters raised by 15 Abrams's fee application. Specifically, Facebook argues that without the ability to review 16 counsel's billing records and depose the experts whose opinions have been proffered, it cannot 17 mount an effective challenge to Abrams's fee request of $5 million. Abrams contends that 18 Facebook is not entitled to such discovery because the Stipulated Settlement provides only for 19 discovery by Abrams. However, the discovery referenced in the Stipulated Settlement concerns 20 the merits of Abrams's claim. Nothing in the Stipulated Settlement precludes Facebook from 21 conducting discovery with respect to Abrams's application for attorneys' fees; indeed the 22 Stipulated Settlement contemplates that Facebook may challenge the application. Accordingly, 23 the Court will continue the hearing and grant Facebook the limited discovery it seeks.
