Re: U.S. Patent Application Pub. No.: US 2002/0151592 A2

Dear Mr. Estévez:

On behalf of our client, Unither Pharma, Inc., we write to inform you of the publication of a patent application related to compositions comprising L-arginine. A copy of this recent publication is attached for your convenience. This pending application joins Unither Pharma's intellectual property portfolio related to use of L-arginine for improving human physical performance, benefiting the human cardiovascular system and providing other cardiovascular-related benefits by enhancing the production of nitric oxide in humans which has been the subject of our past correspondence.

Based upon a review of the information provided on the Scitec Nutrition web site (<http://www.scitecnutrition.com/2002/products/effergin.html>), we believe you will find the claims in the attached patent application are of interest to your client.

We also inform you that this pending patent application to compositions comprising L-arginine is included within the rights licensed in Unither Pharma's standard patent license that it is offering on favorable economic terms.

We thank you for your recent letter regarding Unither Pharma's patents. We will be contacting you shortly in reply.

Very truly yours,

Stephen B. Maebius
