CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT
NORTH SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA
540 3002

April 19, 2010

Dear Honorable Judge Jeremy Fogel:

I am writing to you in regard to my civil case against City of San Jose, and the case number is: C07 05740

This case was dismissed on the basis of 11th Amendment; however, the city attorney has imposed tax against me with this matter.

However, with my current financial condition, I can not afford to pay the bill of tax; as of now, I am a student and I don't have income. My ex-husband pays the Home Owner Association fees, utilities bills, property tax, etc. This amounts to $800/month; however, he pays these bills directly to the third party, as described in his declaration.

I also attach my 2009 Tax return form for Honorable Judge Fogel. I'd really appreciate your kind consideration to waive the bill of tax requested by the City.

Sincerely Yours,

Chin-Li (Karen) Mou
