16 The parties submit the following Stipulation, to continue the Trial and all trial setting
17 deadlines 90 days, including discovery cut-off deadlines. This is based on events or information
18 learned in March and April which both impacts trial setting and give the parties a realistic 19 window to resolve the matter. As will be shown herein, events have occurred which were 20 preconditions to beginning negotiations. A continuance would give the parties a period to 21 attempt to resolve this dispute by scheduling a Settlement Conference with the Honorable 22 Howard Lloyd and if a settlement cannot be reached finish up fact discovery.

23 Good cause is met for the continuance based on the following which affects every 24 Defendant and some of the Plaintiffs:

25 1. With respect to Defendant Armando Vargas, his Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, Case No.
09-56214 RLE, is ongoing and there is a stay as to him. Plaintiffs have filed an adversarial action and had their first Case Management Conference on March 25, 2010 in the bankruptcy

1 action. Plaintiffs' counsel has retained bankruptcy co-counsel Gregory McDonald. Both have 2 communicated extensively with Barry Milgrom counsel for the Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Trustee.
3 During those conversations, Mr. Milgrom made it clear that some of the adversarial claims 4 asserted are the property of the bankruptcy Estate and may not be negotiated or compromised.
5 As this is Plaintiffs' counsel's understanding as well, these claims are being dismissed. This will 6 allow the parties to begin negotiating with Defendant Vargas' bankruptcy counsel and if a 7 settlement is reached it will be presented to the Trustee and to the Bankruptcy Court. This has 8 caused a delay which was cleared up prior to the March 25, 2010 CMC. Once these claims are 9 dismissed, both the Chapter 7 Trustee's attorney and Defendant Vargas' bankruptcy counsel 10 have expressed a willingness to enter into settlement negotiations.

11 2. Plaintiffs learned for the first time on April 19, 2009 that Defendant JAVIER
12 VARGAS filed for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 7 and was granted a discharge on June 9, 13 2009 in the case entitled In re Javier Vargas Pena 09-51532 ASW 7. Based on the preliminary 14 research conducted by Plaintiffs' counsel, Plaintiffs were not listed as creditors. Moreover, it 15 appears that the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction over the scope of the discharge. Counsel for 16 Javier Vargas contends that whether or not Plaintiffs were listed as creditors is inconsequential.
17 Since Javier Vargas filed chapter 7 bankruptcy and did not have any assets, Plaintiffs (the 18 potential creditors) cannot execute on any potential judgment against Javier Vargas since those 19 claims would be discharged under the bankruptcy code and applicable case law. Javier Vargas
20 relies on the following cases as support for his position: In re Beezley (1992) 994 F.2d 1433, 21 1436-1437 [...in the typical Chapter 7 case, the debtor's failure to list a creditor does not, in and 22 of itself, make the creditor's claim nondischargeable... the debt remains within the scope of the 23 discharge afforded by section 727. Scheduling, per se, is irrelevant.]; Mendiola, 99 B.R. at 867 24 [since dischargeability is unaffected by scheduling in a no asset, no bar date case, "reopening the 25 case merely to schedule the debt is for all practical purposes a useless gesture.]; American Standard, 147 B.R. at 483 [of "no legal effect"]; Stecklow, 144 B.R. at 317 ["futile"]; Tucker, 143 B.R. at 334 ["unnecessary" and "unwarranted"]; Peacock, 139 B.R. at 422 ["pointless"];
Thibodeau, 136 B.R. at 10 ["meaningless"]. A continuance will allow the parties to asses the

1 impact of this during settlement negotiations. Moreover, it would give Defendant Javier Vargas 2 the ability to move for a dismissal based on this.

3 4. As to Defendant NOE VARGAS, it has been represented to Plaintiffs' counsel 4 that he does not have any significant assets and a continuance would allow Plaintiffs' counsel to 5 verify this. In the event Plaintiffs' counsel discovers that Noe Vargas does not have the means 6 by which to satisfy a judgment, Plaintiffs will dismiss the action against him. By signing this 7 Stipulation granting Plaintiffs additional time to verify the financial condition of Noe Vargas, he 8 is not waiving his rights to assert any defense, including that he was not Plaintiffs' employer
9 since he did not exercise control over the nature and structure of the employment relationship 10 and he did not have control of the company operations or finances; rather, he merely acted as a supervisor to plumbers on his crews.

11 5. As to Defendant Edith Sauno, she and Defendant Armando Vargas were litigating 12 issues over the ownership of three pieces of real property which were a stumbling block for any 13 settlement she could reach with Plaintiffs. Plaintiff recently learned, by an April 16, 2010 Notice
14 from Mr. Milgrom, counsel for the trustee in the Armando Vargas Bankruptcy, that the Trustee
15 intends to compromise claims between Sauno and Vargas. A true and correct copy of the Notice 16 is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Defendant Sauno will get ownership of the properties in 17 exchange for $150,000.00. If the compromise is approved, this will allow Defendant Sauno to finance a settlement if one can be reached.

18 6. Defendant Sauno's deposition was also timely Noticed and she is unable to be 19 deposed by the end of this month as she is in Mexico. A continuance will allow the deposition to 20 go forward.

21 7. Finally, three of the eleven Plaintiffs have moved to Mexico. As a result, 22 Plaintiffs' counsel cannot produce them in the United States nor do Defendants have an 23 opportunity to depose them. A continuance would allow the parties to complete discovery or for 24 Plaintiffs to move for a protective order allowing them to be deposed by videoconferencing.
25 Defendants will oppose such a protective order.

1 8. In spite of the Stipulation for a continued trial date, counsel believe that the 2 parties should still participate in a settlement conference with Judge Lloyd that is to be 3 completed by mid-May 2010. By that time, Plaintiffs' counsel will have had an opportunity to 4 determine the financial status of Noe Vargas, to confirm whether a judgment can be executed 5 with respect to Javier Vargas, and determine if the property compromise between Sauno and the 6 Vargas Estate were approved.

7 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between the parties, through their respective 8 counsel, as follows:

- 9 1. That the non-jury trial in this matter be continued 90 days to October 25, 2010 at
