1 This matter came on for hearing before the Court on Plaintiffs' motion for an order to 2 preserve evidence. Having given full consideration to all of Plaintiffs' papers, evidence, and the 3 relevant authorities, all of Defendants' responses thereto, and the oral presentations of counsel, and 4 good cause appearing, it is HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

5 1. All parties and interveners as well as their employees, officers, agents, servants, 6 contractors, carriers, bailees, attorneys, or persons in active concert or participation with them must 7 take all necessary actions to prevent the destruction or alteration of what they know, or reasonably
8 should know, will be relevant evidence in this litigation until further Order of this Court, including 9 any evidence the destruction of which would prejudice another party.

10 2. Counsel is under an obligation to exercise reasonable efforts to identify and notify 11 parties and nonparties, including employees and agents of corporate or institutional parties and 12 non-parties, who possess or will possess materials reasonably anticipated to be relevant in this 13 action.

14 3. If the practices of any party involve the destruction, recycling, relocation, or 15 mutation of such materials, the party must either

16 (1) halt such practices;

17 (2) sequester or remove such material from the process; or

18 (3) arrange for the preservation of complete and accurate duplicates or copies of 19 such material, suitable for later discovery if requested.

20 4. A party may apply to the court for further instructions or relief from this Order upon 21 reasonable notice after the Ninth Circuit decision in Hepting v. AT&T.

22 5. Each party will, within 10 days after receiving this Order, designate an individual 23 who shall be responsible for ensuring that the party carries out the requirements of this Order.
