UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

INTEL CORPORATION, a Delaware Corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, a Pennsylvania Corporation, and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive

Defendant.

CASE NO. C08 03238 JF

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

AS MODIFIED BY THE COURT

Plaintiff Intel Corporation (“Intel”) and defendant The Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania (“ICSOP”) (collectively referred to herein as the “Parties”), through their respective counsel, stipulate to the protective order set forth below.

The Court, having reviewed the stipulated protective order and the stipulation of the Parties, and good cause appearing therefore, hereby issues the following order:

1. During the course of this litigation, the Parties may be required to produce documents and information that contain sensitive, privileged, proprietary and/or confidential information.

2. Any Party may designate documents or information that contain sensitive, <sup>information for</sup> which protection is warranted under FRCP 26(c) ~~privileged, proprietary and/or confidential information~~ by designating that document or

1 information as "CONFIDENTIAL PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER" or "CONFIDENTIAL."
2 Such designation shall be made, where practical, by marking each page of a document, each
3 separate part or component of a thing, or each separate item of information in a conspicuous
4 manner. If it is not practical to so mark the material itself, a container for, or a tag or other
5 document, such as a privilege log, shall mark or refer to the documents in a conspicuous manner as
6 "CONFIDENTIAL."

7 3. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure by the producing Party of ~~sensitive,~~
8 ~~privileged, proprietary and/or confidential~~ <sup>"CONFIDENTIAL"</sup> information, either by way of document production or 9 deposition testimony, regardless of whether the information was so designated at the time of 10 disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of a Party's claim of confidentiality,
11 either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto on the 12 same or related subject matter. Any such inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed information
13 not designated shall be so designated, by providing written notice to the other Party as soon as 14 reasonably possible after the producing Party becomes aware of the inadvertent or unintentional
15 disclosure.

16 4. Access to materials designated CONFIDENTIAL and to any portion of any 17 transcript, brief, affidavit, memorandum or other paper that contains, reveals or refers to 18 documents or information so designated shall be limited to:

- 19 a. Outside counsel of record for the Parties;
- 20 b. Persons regularly employed in the offices of such outside counsel actually 21 assisting such counsel in the preparation of this case;
- 22 c. Employees of the Parties whose access to the confidential information is 23 reasonably necessary for the prosecution or defense of this case;
- 24 d. Non-party experts or professional advisors or consultants retained by any 25 Party to assist in the prosecution or defense of this case;
- 26 e. Court reporters involved in transcribing depositions or other proceedings in 27 this case;

- 1 f. The Court and court officials involved with this case;
2 g. the trier(s) of facts;
3 h. As required by compulsory subpoena, order or process issued by a court or 4 governmental body of competent jurisdiction; and
5 i. Outside vendors, such as copy services.

6 Individuals and organizations identified in paragraphs 4(c) – (e) above shall be required to
7 first execute the Agreement to be Bound by Stipulated Protective Order, attached hereto as Exhibit
8 A.

9 5. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Court 26(c), any party to this Stipulation and Order
10 seeking to file Confidential Information or documents paraphrasing or quoting such information
11 with the Court shall ~~advise the clerk that such information or documents have been designated~~
12 ~~Confidential in accordance with this Stipulation and Order and shall request that the same be filed~~
13 ~~in the clerk's office in sealed envelopes or containers labeled with the title and docket number of~~
14 ~~this action, an indication of nature of the contents and the legend:~~

15 ~~CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL~~

16 ~~This envelope contains documents that are subject to a Stipulation~~
17 ~~and Order governing the use of confidential materials. Pursuant to~~ 18 ~~Federal Rule of Court 26(c), the envelope shall not be opened nor~~ 19 ~~the contents thereof displayed or revealed (other than to court~~
20 ~~personnel) except by order of the Court.~~

21 6. Prior to the use of any Confidential Information at any hearing to be held in open
22 court, counsel who desires to use such Confidential Information shall provide reasonable notice to 23 opposing counsel for the other party to this Stipulation and Order and allow opposing counsel the 24 opportunity to object to the disclosure of Confidential Information in open court.

25 7. In the event that a Party is served with any subpoena, order or process seeking 26 disclosure of material designated CONFIDENTIAL, that Party ("Responding Party") shall 27 promptly give written notice to the other Party no later than 5 days after the Responding Party or 28 its counsel first receives the subpoena, order or process. The Responding Party's notice to the

1 other Party shall be addressed to counsel for the other Party and enclose a copy of the subpoena,
2 order or process. Upon receipt of proper notice from the Responding Party, the other Party may
3 object to the requested disclosure on the grounds of confidentiality or otherwise. If the Party
4 objecting to the requested disclosure is not the Responding Party, then the Responding Party shall
5 withhold production pending the result of such objection unless such withholding would result in a
6 violation of the subpoena, order or process seeking the documents. All expenses related to such 7 objection shall be incurred by the Party asserting the objection.

8 8. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prevent a Party to this action from 9 opposing the designation of documents or information as CONFIDENTIAL. A Party opposing the 10 designation of documents or information as CONFIDENTIAL shall serve a written objection,
11 including a statement of the grounds for the objection, on the designating Party. The designating
12 Party shall have 10 days following the receipt of the objection to withdraw its CONFIDENTIAL
13 designation. If the CONFIDENTIAL designation is not withdrawn, the objecting Party may move
14 the Court for an order removing the CONFIDENTIAL designation.

15 9. Each recipient of documents or information designated as CONFIDENTIAL shall 16 maintain such material in a secure, safe area and shall exercise the same standard of care with 17 respect to the storage, custody, use and dissemination of such material as is exercised by the 18 recipient with respect to its own confidential and proprietary material.

19 10. Except upon consent of the designating Party or upon order of the Court, any and 20 all documents or information designated CONFIDENTIAL that are produced, served or otherwise
21 made available by the designating Party to another Party during the course of this case, together
22 with all reproductions, copies, abstracts, indices, or summaries of those documents or information,
23 shall be used only for the prosecution, defense and/or settlement of this case and for no other
24 purpose whatsoever.

25 11. If documents or information designated CONFIDENTIAL are disclosed to any 26 person other than in the manner authorized by this order, the Party responsible for the disclosure
27 must immediately bring all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure to the attention of the other

1 Party, and without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the designating Party, make every effort
2 to prevent further unauthorized disclosure on its own part or on the part of the recipient of such
3 documents or information.

4 12. The production of invoices, bills and other documents relating to costs incurred by 5 Intel in defense of the Janet Skold, et al v Intel Corporation, et al and Barbara's Sales, Inc. et al v.
6 Intel Corporation, et al for which Intel could assert attorney-client privilege or work product
7 protection, shall not constitute a waiver of such privilege or protection with regard to non-parties
8 to this case, and shall not constitute a further waiver concerning any related or unrelated
9 documents or other matter protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection.

10 13. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prevent any Party from seeking such 11 further provisions regarding confidentiality, as may be appropriate.

12 14. Nothing in this order shall be construed as a waiver by a Party of any objections
13 that might be raised as to the admissibility at trial of any evidentiary materials.

14 15. This order shall remain in effect after the final determination of this case, unless 15 otherwise ordered by the Court.
