Domestic Ricer haha, Just my strut grill alone cost a hell of a lot more then your 351 under your hood, I invested over 100k cash into that car's mods bud, plenty of mechanical mods in there as well as non mechanical. Yes it is a 300c, I own a new range rover as well, and it sees that you my friend are a Used Car Buyer on a Tight Budget. When you start dropping a Quarter Million on 2 vehicles that I use as daily drivers like I do, then come talk to me, until then, you are a financial minion.
