Case No. CV 08-04052 JF PVT

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendant SHAWN HOGAN ("Mr. Hogan") has asserted his privilege against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution (United States v. Balsys (1998) 524 U.S. 666, 672; Lefkowitz v. Turley (1973) 414 U.S. 70, 77); the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 501; the California Constitution, Article 1, Section 15; and California Evidence Code section 940. The provision of any responses by Defendant hereunder shall not be construed to be a waiver of the same.

Defendant further objects because conducting discovery is premature and inappropriate at this time. FBI Special Agent Melanie Adams and Assistant United States Attorney Kyle F. Walding inform that Defendant is the subject of a grand jury investigation and that it is anticipated that criminal charges will be filed. Upon the transfer of this action to the appropriate forum, Defendant intends to seek a stay of this action (and/or any other appropriate relief), including a stay of all discovery in this matter, pending the resolution of any potential criminal proceedings and/or until the statute of limitations on any such criminal proceedings has run. To the extent Mr. Hogan determines that there is no longer a threat of criminal prosecution and/or elects to withdraw his assertion of the privilege against self-incrimination, Defendant expressly reserves the right to supplement these responses accordingly (in whole or in part), and to object to the use or disclosure of the following responses for any purpose whatsoever.

Defendant further objects to the subject interrogatories in that Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint was granted with leave to amend as to Plaintiff's claims under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act and other fraud-based claims and discovery is therefore premature. Williams v. WMX Technologies, Inc., 112 F.3d 175, 178 (5th Cir. 1997) (in fraud cases, the requisite elements must be adequately laid out "before access to the discovery process is granted." (emphasis in original)).

Defendant further objects to the definitions set forth in Plaintiff's requests as compound, vague and ambiguous; these objections further include, but are not limited to, the following: "DPS" is overbroad, unduly burdensome and oppressive in that it purports to apply to third parties collectively and/or individually, to information subject to the attorney-client privilege, and purports to seek responses from Mr. Hogan as phrased. "eBay" is further unduly burdensome and oppressive in that the phrases "eBay's internationally operated websites," and "any and all divisions, subdivisions, departments or subsidiaries of eBay" reference information that is within Plaintiff's control and/or is unknown to Defendant.

Defendant incorporates each of the foregoing objections in Defendant's responses below.

II. RESPONSES

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Identify all persons or entities with knowledge regarding DPS's participation, manipulation or interaction in any Affiliate Marketing Program including eBay's Affiliate Marketing Programs including, but not limited to, all methods, techniques and technologies, software, source code, Javascript and HTML code, used by DPS to obtain revenue from, or otherwise interact with, participate in or manipulate any Affiliate Marketing Program.

Response to Interrogatory No. 1:

Objection. This request, including the use of the definitions provided for "DPS" and "eBay," is vague and ambiguous, compound, overbroad, and unduly burdensome and oppressive. Defendant further objects because this interrogatory is argumentative with respect to the terms "manipulation" and "manipulate." Defendant further objects because this interrogatory seeks information not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant further objects to this request on the grounds that Mr. Hogan has invoked his privilege against self incrimination under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution; the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 501; the California Constitution, Article 1, Section 15; and California Evidence Code section 940. Further, Defendant incorporates the above Preliminary Statement herein by reference in full. Subject to and without waiving these objections, Defendant responds as follows: No such persons or entities exist, as Defendant DIGITAL POINT SOLUTIONS, INC. has never conducted any business of any kind with Plaintiff.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2

Identify all Internet Forums at, within or through which DPS discussed any aspect of their participation in, manipulation of or interaction with eBay's Affiliate Marketing Programs, or any other Affiliate Marketing Program.

Response to Interrogatory No. 2:

DATED: March 12, 2009

Objection. This request, including the use of the definitions provided for "DPS" and "eBay," is vague and ambiguous, compound, overbroad, and unduly burdensome and oppressive. Defendant further objects because this interrogatory is argumentative with respect to its use of the term "manipulation." Defendant further objects because this interrogatory seeks information not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendant further objects to this request on the grounds that Mr. Hogan has invoked his privilege against self incrimination under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution; the Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 501; the California Constitution, Article 1, Section 15; and California Evidence Code section 940. Further, Defendant incorporates the above Preliminary Statement herein by reference in full. Subject to and without waiving these objections, Defendant responds as follows: No such forums exist, as Defendant DIGITAL POINT SOLUTIONS, INC. has never conducted any business of any kind with Plaintiff.
