 25 Attorneys for eBay Inc.

26 I have received your request to waive service of summons in this action
 27 along with a copy of the Complaint, two copies of this waiver form, and a prepaid means
 28 of returning one signed copy of the form to you.

1 I, or the entity I represent, agree to save the expense of serving a summons
2 and Complaint in this case.

3 I understand that I, or the entity I represent, will keep all defenses or
4 objections to the lawsuit, the Court's jurisdiction, and the venue of the action, but that I
5 waive any objections to the absence of a summons or of service.

6 I also understand that I, or the entity I represent, must file and serve an
7 answer or a motion under Rule 12 within 60 days from August 27, 2008, the date when 8 this request was sent. If I fail to do so, a default judgment will be entered against me or 9 the entity I represent.

17 Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

18 Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain defendants to 19 cooperate in saving unnecessary expenses of serving a summons and complaint. A 20 defendant who is located in the United States and who fails to return a signed waiver of 21 service requested by plaintiff located in the United States will be required to pay the 22 expenses of service, unless the defendant shows good cause for the failure.

23 "Good cause" does not include a belief that the lawsuit is groundless, or that
24 it has been brought in an improper venue, or that the court has no jurisdiction over this 25 matter or over the defendant or the defendant's property.

26 If the waiver is signed and returned, you can still make these and all other
27 defenses and objections, but you cannot object to the absence of a summons or of service.

If you waive service then you must, within the time specified on the waiver form, serve an answer or motion under Rule 12 on the plaintiff and file a copy with the court. By signing and returning the waiver form, you are allowed more time to respond than if a summons had been served.
