FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

Avocet Sports Technology, Inc., et al.,

NO. C 08-04264 JW

Plaintiff,

PRELIMINARY PRETRIAL CONFERENCE SCHEDULING ORDER - (JURY TRIAL)

v.

Amer Sports Corp., et al.,

Defendants.

This case is scheduled for a Preliminary Pretrial Conference on August 30, 2010. Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules of this Court, the parties conferred and duly submitted a Joint Pretrial Statement. (See Docket Item No. 62.) Based on their joint submission, it appears that a trial schedule can be set without the necessity of an appearance at this time.

Accordingly, the Preliminary Pretrial Conference is VACATED and the parties are ordered to comply with the following schedule:

- (1) In their Joint Statement, the parties requested that the last date for hearing dispositive motions be continued for two weeks from November 15, 2010. The Court GRANTS the parties' request and continues the last date for hearing dispositive motions to November 29, 2010 at 9 a.m. All motions must be noticed and filed in accordance with the Civil Local Rules of Court.
- (2) The parties shall adhere to the following trial schedule:

Objections and Lodging Disputed Material with the Court

2. If a party objects to receipt into evidence of a witness, exhibits or discovery response, the party shall advise all opposing parties during the conference described in Paragraph 1, and attempt to resolve the dispute. If the parties are unsuccessful in resolving the dispute, any party wishing to object to receipt of the testimony of any witness, any exhibit or discovery response into evidence shall lodge with Chambers a copy of the disputed material at the commencement of trial. Attached to the submission shall be a brief statement of the objection and any response by the proffering party. The Court will indicate on the submitted copy whether the objection is overruled or sustained and return the material to counsel.

Lodging Joint Pretrial Conference Statement, in Limine Motions and Proposed Jury Instructions

3. Pursuant to the date set forth in the Case Schedule, the parties shall file and lodge with Chambers the following:

a. Joint Pretrial Conference Statement: The parties shall file a joint pretrial statement which shall contain the following information: (1) a brief description of the substance of claims and defenses which remain to be decided; (2) a detailed statement of all the relief claimed, particularly itemizing all elements of damages claimed as well as witnesses, documents or other evidentiary material to be presented concerning the amount of those damages; (3) a plain and concise statement of all relevant facts not reasonably disputable, as well as which facts the parties will stipulate for incorporation into the trial record without the necessity of supporting testimony or exhibits; (4) a plain and concise statement of all disputed factual issues which remain to be decided; (5) a statement assessing whether all or part of the action may be presented upon an agreed statement of facts; (6) a statement of stipulations requested or proposed for pretrial or trial purposes; (7) without extended legal argument, a concise statement of each disputed point of law concerning liability or relief, citing supporting statutes and decisions; (8) a list of all witnesses likely to be called at trial; (9) a list of evidence the parties intend to present at trial through use of excerpts from depositions, from interrogatory answers, or from responses to requests for admission; and (10) any other subjects relevant to the trial of the action, or material to its just, speedy and inexpensive determination. Counsel are directed to meet and confer in advance of the date for submission of pretrial material with respect to the pretrial conference statement.

b. In Limine Motions: Any in limine motions shall be filed in writing and submitted along with the Joint Final Pretrial Conference Statement. Any opposition shall be filed in writing and served no later than ten (10) days after the opening briefs have been filed and served. Fifteen (15) days before the date of the Final Pretrial Conference, the parties shall organize their in limine motions as follows:

- (1) Each side shall be responsible for producing a combined folder with all of their in limine motions, oppositions to their motions (if any), and replies (if any), respectively. The motion papers shall be clearly marked and separated in one single binder. The binder shall contain a table of contents, listing each motion with a short sentence regarding the grounds for in limine and a short sentence regarding the opposition; all statements must be supported by proper citations to the motions. The table of contents as well as the Motions shall also be saved on a CD in MS Word or WordPerfect format to be attached inside the binder.
- (2) Please note that this binder is not a substitute for filing the motions and related papers via ECF; it is designed for the Court to evaluate the motions. Two copies of the binder shall be delivered to the Court (by way of the Clerk’s Office) no later than fifteen (15) days before the date of the Final Pretrial Conference by 3 PM. The parties must also bring the binder to the Final Pretrial Conference for their own references.
- (3) These motions will be deemed submitted without oral argument, unless the Court orders otherwise.

c. Proposed Jury Instructions: The parties shall file their Proposed Jury Instructions thirty (30) days before the date of the Final Pretrial Conference.

1 7. Before the case is submitted for decision, each party will be deemed to have had an
2 opportunity to review the material described in the previous paragraph to ensure their accuracy.
3 Unless a party objects before the case is submitted for decision to the judge or jury, the party will be 4 deemed to have waived any and all objections to the submitted materials.

5 8. To accommodate review of electronic exhibits, the parties will jointly provide the 6 jury with the following equipment: a laptop computer, the external stand alone hard drive, CD or 7 DVD, a printer (and, if practicable, an LCD projector).

8 9. During its closing instructions, the Court will advise the jury of the form in which 9 exhibits will be submitted to them. The jury will also be instructed that, unless impracticable, upon
10 a juror’s written request, a printed copy of any exhibit received in evidence will be provided to the 11 jury. Before the jury retires to deliberate, the parties will provide a tutorial to the jurors on how to 12 operate the equipment, how to view the exhibits, and how to print the exhibits if the jury wishes to 13 do so. A written set of instructions on operations of the equipment will be sent into the jury room.

14 10. When the jury is deliberating, at least one lawyer for each side shall remain in close
15 proximity to the courtroom. In the event of any technical problem, or if the jurors have questions
16 about how to operate the equipment, the jurors shall pass a note to the clerk, just as with any other
17 questions they may have. The Court will read the note to the lawyers. Those lawyers shall consult 18 with each other and with their respective technicians, and propose to the Court how they wish to 19 address the technical problem.

20 11. The parties shall maintain a backup laptop computer and a backup hard drive with 21 identical images and data at the courthouse such that, in the event of a technical problem that cannot 22 be quickly and easily remedied, the equipment can be replaced.

23 12. Unless the Court orders otherwise for good cause shown, the expense of the 24 equipment and the costs of preparation of the Lists and Exhibits will be shared equally among the 25 parties.

26 13. This Standing Order also applies to cases tried to the Court sitting without a jury, 27 except that paragraphs 8-11 do not apply.

28

1 21. In examining a witness, counsel shall not repeat or echo the answer given by the 2 witness.

3 22. Counsel must stand when making an objection.

4 23. Conferences at the bench or sidebar are not favored by the Court. Any sidebar
5 conferences which are allowed will be off the record. If any counsel wishes to place matters on the 6 record, he or she may so request, and the Court will make a responsive order.

7 24. Counsel have full responsibility to arrange for the appearance of witnesses during the 8 presentation of their case so as to eliminate delay caused by waiting for witnesses who have been 9 placed on call by counsel.

10 25. Unless an agreement to the contrary is entered into by opposing counsel, all nonparty
11 or nonexpert witnesses will be excluded from the courtroom when not testifying. When a witness 12 has completed his or her testimony, the witness is excused unless counsel indicates that he or she 13 wishes the witness to remain subject to being recalled. Any witness who has been excused from 14 further testimony may remain as a spectator. It will be the responsibility of counsel to make an 15 announcement at the time the witness steps down that he or she should remain in the environs of the 16 Court for a reasonable time to permit such counsel an opportunity to secure and serve a subpoena
17 upon the witness and assume responsibility for his or her per diem and other expenses as provided
18 by governing rule or statute.

19 26. Counsel shall admonish all persons at counsel table that gestures, facial expressions, 20 audible comments, or the like, as manifestations of approval or disapproval during the testimony of 21 witnesses, or at any other time, are prohibited.

22 27. Witness examination shall consist of direct examination, cross-examination and re-
23 direct examination. No recross-examination will be allowed without prior approval of the Court
24 specifically indicating the area for recross-examination. When there are multiple defense counsel,
25 they are directed to confer and designate to the Court the sequence in which they wish to be 26 recognized during trial for purposes of presenting opening statements and conducting cross-
27 examination of witnesses. If one counsel conducts the direct examination of a witness, that same

28

1 counsel must make objections when the witness is cross-examined. Counsel who will conduct the
2 cross-examination should object while the witness is on direct.

3 28. After the commencement of trial testimony, upon request of co-parties, any objection,
4 motion or other application for relief made by any co-party, orally or in writing, shall be deemed to 5 be adopted and joined in by every other co-party, without announcement by counsel to that effect,
6 and the rulings of the Court shall be deemed applicable to each party unless otherwise stated at the 7 time the ruling is made. Accordingly, it shall be regarded as unnecessary and improper for counsel
8 to rise to "join in" an objection or motion. Rather, counsel should rise to be heard only for the 9 purpose of expressly opting out of an objection or motion if that is his or her position.

10 29. Counsel are directed to deliver to opposing counsel at the end of each trial day (if not 11 earlier) a list of witnesses counsel anticipates calling the next trial day.

12 30. Counsel calling a non-client witness to testify should have no further discussions with 13 that witness concerning the case or any aspect of his or her testimony after the witness has been
14 tendered for cross-examination and until such time as the witness has been tendered back for redirect
15 examination. At all other times, within the bounds of governing ethics and the law, counsel may 16 engage in discussions with witnesses during trial.

17 31. Any time taken away from presentation of evidence to the trier of fact due to, for 18 example, lengthy legal motions made during the time allocated to the presentation of evidence, or 19 delays in the commencement of proceedings due to circumstances within the control of counsel, will 20 be deducted from the time allocated for the presentation of evidence. Upon timely application based 21 upon good cause, the Court may relieve a party of its stipulation to the agreed schedule.

22 32. It is the practice of the Court periodically to inform counsel of the Court's record of how 23 much time each side has remaining for the presentation of evidence based upon the stipulated trial
24 schedule.
