

On December 1, 2008, Plaintiff filed a complaint in pro se pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. However, the Court cannot conduct an initial review of this matter until Plaintiff has either paid the filing fee or submitted a completed in forma pauperis application. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) (a party is permitted to file a civil action in federal court without prepayment of fees or security if he makes affidavit that he is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor). If the Court determines that the Plaintiff is unable to pay the full filing fee at the time of filing, Plaintiff will be granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, which means the action may proceed without payment of the full filing fee at the outset of the action. The total filing fee 26 that ultimately will be due is $350.00, which will be taken from income to Plaintiff's account in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915(B)(1).
